Manager W. E. Morrow has gathered in a fine aggregation of ball players, and the team that beats out Roseburg this season, will land the pennant of the Oregon State League. In Hunter, Reed and Gregory, he has a strong pitching staff, and the infield composed of Morrow, Sadler, Sewell and Bradley will certainly be fast. No one deserves more success than "Pop" Morrow, for the present interest in baseball in the Willamette Valley, has been largely due to his efforts—Oregon Sportsman.

Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Oregon Sportsman has reached this office through the hands of manager Morrow of the local base ball team. The new publication is neatly gotten up and will no doubt receive the patronage of the sporting fraternity of the coast it being the only publication of that nature published in the northwest. Ross and Sylvester of Eugene are the publishers. The Oregon Sportsman will be published every Saturday.

Yesterday and today the scene of the wrecked engine has been the "Mecca" of the Roseburg sightseers. The wrecking crew has been busily at work hoisting the tender and letting the engine down into the ravine from where an incline track will be built to run the wrecked engine upon the main line.

Several theories have been advanced as to the cause of the wreck but men who thoroughly understand railroad engineering claim that if the rails on the outside of the entire bend near which the wreck occurred were of the proper kind to trouble would result. The rails at present on this bend are worn from the center of the rail to the "fish-plate" making it very easy for an engine to climb them.

Glendale News.

Manager Kochler, Supt. Fields, Resident Engineer Donald and Roadmaster Donnell passed through here on an inspection trip Tuesday afternoon.

Our city election will be held a week from next Monday—on Monday, April 4th. According to the city charter, no one is entitled to a vote unless they own real estate in the town and reside here.

It is reported that a deal is on for the sale of the timber land at Glendale, belonging to the Abraham estate, to some Pittsburg, Pa., capitalists, whose intention it is to install a big lumbering plant here this season.

N. P. Jones and E. K. Montgomery have been summoned as witnesses before the U. S. grand jury at Portland in the case of E. S. Eaton, charged with contempt from failure to pay the mills. The case comes up on April 1st.

N. F. Thorne, the bright young son of J. R. Thorne, who came out here last fall from Pittsburg, Pa., for the benefit of his health, has accepted a position of assistant cashier and book-keeper in the Douglas County Bank at Roseburg.

The sootling hum of the plover and harrow was knocked into a cocked hat a couple of days this week by the fall of half a foot or so of "beautiful," which, however, was rapidly converted into mud. March evidently intends to go out like a sore-tailed, bear-eyed lion.

Every price we quote represents the best value obtainable for that price, S. K. Sykes, stoves and tinware.

Slats Hunter the big twirler of the Roseburg team will have a rival for the great championship in the person of first baseman Nehring, of the Salem Raglans. We would believe he is taller than our "Slats" until we see him.

As announced in last issue, C. B. Hurd and family arrived here Sunday from Forest Lake, Minn., to make their future home. Mr. Hurd visited his brother here several weeks about four years ago. He is greatly surprised at the town's rapid and substantial growth since that time.

Angus McQueen, the well known Portland mining man, accompanied by J. A. Collett of Portland and A. A. Buchanan of Butte, Mont., both prominent mining men, are here this week looking over our rich gold fields. An immense amount of capital will be invested in mines here this season, and we expect quite a mining boom next summer.

A petition is being circulated and large by signed at Roseburg, asking Governor Chamberlain to pardon E. W. Shively, who is serving a two-year sentence in the penitentiary, convicted for attempted rape. His wife is in a delicate condition at Roseburg, and needs the support of her husband; besides, the petitioners believe that he has been sufficiently punished, and the reasons given for asking for his pardon.—News.
