According to the Journal corrospondent Roseburg is a bad town, in the write up of the recent burglaries here he states that $81 was taken from the Office saloon which statement is a mistake as the bartender at that place says that the burgular only took money from the slot machine which did not exceed $4.50 as the machine had been opened by the proprioter that evening at four o'clock. The Eldorado saloon robbery was simply a josh. Space writers should be more careful as articles such as the one mentioned are a knock to the town.
