

MURDERER BURNES EXECUTED.

THE ELECTRIC DEATH CHAIR AT SING SING

This is the manner in which Frank Burnes expiated his distasteful crimes in the electric chair at Sing Sing last Monday. The picture shows the manner of applying the electric current to the prisoner in the electric execution chair. In many ways this execution was one of the most remarkable that has ever taken place in the state of New York.

Burnes refused to receive spiritual consolation on the ground that he had nothing to be consoled for, and that he was in no wise responsible for his crimes. He eagerly awaited the hour of his execution Monday and requested that he be allowed to make the death march unattended. With no companion he almost ran to the death chair, so eager was he to have it over with.

Seating himself in the chair he smiled cheerfully at the witnesses as though merely posing for a photograph and seemed to look forward to his death with great satisfaction. Four distinct shocks were necessary to produce death, the last being continued for an unusual length of time.

The specific crime for which Burnes paid the death penalty was murder of a sea captain in the port of New York last fall. In addition to this murder Burnes confessed at his trial that he had killed more than half a dozen persons during the last 10 years.

At his trial Burnes confessed his crimes to assist in expediting the proceedings. Then his lawyer, who had been appointed by the state, appealed the case, which drew from Burnes a letter to the governor, in which he asked that this be overruled, as it was "the work of a scheming lawyer to get more fees," he said.

9TH ANNUAL CONVENTION

Douglas County W. C. T. U. Held in Roseburg.

NATIONAL LECTURER PRESENT

County President, Mrs. A. C. Masters Ably Presided at the Meetings.

The ninth annual convention of the Douglas County W. C. T. U. has passed into history. It was held in the M. E. church of Roseburg June 22-24 inclusive.

The first meeting held Wednesday evening with its program of addresses of welcome, songs, recitations, etc., was published in full in Thursday's PLAIN DEALER.

The Thursday morning session was opened by devotional exercises led by Mrs. Diana Moore of Drain. Convention was called to order by Mrs. Ida Masters of Roseburg, Co. Pres. The work of this session comprised the appointment of committees, reports of county officers and reports of local unions.

The report of County President showed that she had done good work throughout the year. She had procured national speakers to lecture in the county, had urged all local unions to put forth special efforts in the interest of Local Option, and kept in touch with the Local Unions in the county personally and by correspondence.

Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Louis Barzee, also gave a very satisfactory report. She had written a grand number of letters and assisted in organizing a new Union at Looking Glass.

Mrs. Bishop of Yoncalla, recording secretary, in her report showed that she had performed the duties of her office well and faithfully.

Mrs. H. R. Ferguson, county treasurer, reported that the financial condition of the organization was very good; and that all Local Unions responded generously to a call for help for state and county work, and paid their County dues promptly.

Mrs. Mary Lyette sent in an interesting treasurer's report from their Union which was a model report, and all Local Unions were advised to do likewise. The County Treasurer's book showed a membership of one hundred active members in the County. There were eleven delegates present, representing five Local Unions, namely: Drain, Yoncalla, Riddle, Myrtle Creek, Looking Glass and Roseburg. Their reports showed that the work in the County is progressing and temperance sentiment increasing; and that they all put forth extra efforts for Local Option; for example the Drain women stood all day near the balloting place, and used their influence. At Riddle they posted notices contradicting that one, "Vote No" for Local Option. The women of Yoncalla canvassed their precinct and distributed copies of the bill and leaflets. In Roseburg they were also active and distributed hundreds of copies of the bill.

An excellent paper was then read prepared by Mrs. Amy Marian of Drain. It treated on the progress of the temperance cause, and the good effects it had on the young people; an interesting discussion followed. Rev. and Mrs. Hicks were then introduced, and Mr. Hicks gave an interesting description of the blind tigers that used to be in operation in their former home in Tennessee; but now liquor is sold in only eight counties in that state. Mr. Hicks is the new Baptist minister; both he and his wife attended the convention, showing great interest in the work and we know that they will do what they can to help the cause. After noontide prayer, all the delegates and visitors were invited to lunch which was bountifully served in the church parlor.

Afternoon session was opened by a praise service led by Mrs. Bennett; after which the County President gave her annual address. She thanked the women for their loyalty and help during the year and urged that all should work hard to secure prohibition in the Fall. Mrs. Bishop then read a paper she had prepared, entitled, "Why you should belong to the W. C. T. U." She gave a good many practical reasons why. The Free Parliament conducted by Mrs. Bailey was very instructive. A sketch of the history of the world, National and State of Oregon, W. C. T. U. was obtained through questions and answers. There are half a million women wearing the white ribbon throughout the world.

The evening meeting was opened by devotions led by Rev. E. H. Hicks, after which Mrs. Bailey gave a stirring address which was listened to with the closest attention.

Friday morning the work consisted of election of County officers and an hour with superintendents. Mrs. Ida Masters was unanimously chosen County President to succeed herself; all the other officers were re-elected. Mrs. C. J. Armitage of Myrtle Creek, Vice Pres. at large; Mrs. Zedie Bishop, Yoncalla, Rec. Sec.; Mrs. Louis Barzee, Roseburg, Cor. Sec.; Mrs. H. R. Ferguson, Roseburg, Treas. After noontide prayer delegates were again invited to lunch in the church parlor. A thank offering service was held in the afternoon conducted by Mrs. Ferguson. Mrs. Flint sang a beautiful solo, after which Mrs. Barzee held a model mother's meeting. Her subject was Literature—pure and impure. After discussions all present agreed that papers which contained full reports of the criminal court proceedings were unfit to be brought into the house. Before adjournment several loving tributes were paid to the memory of Sarah Kern, who for a number of years was recording secretary of the State W. C. T. U.

The utmost harmony prevailed all during convention. Mrs. Masters the faithful County President presided at all the meetings. Mrs. Bailey's help was highly appreciated and we are very grateful to the choir for their services and to the white ribboners of Roseburg who showed such unbounded hospitality to the delegates and visitors.

ONLY. Only a glance from two bright eyes, Only a smile of pleasure, Only a whisper of glad surprise, Only a few low, tender words, And the fate of a life is spoken, Only a strand in love's silken cords Parted, and hearts are broken.

Only the hope of a day more bright Shall nerve us to a strong endeavor Only one slip from the path of right, And a life is wrecked forever.

Only a duty too long deferred, Only a warning slighted, Only a thoughtless, careless word, And the joy of some heart is blighted.

Only a kindly thought and deed, Only a tear of pity, For the darkened lives and hearts that bleed

In the sorrowful, sinful city, Only a helping hand to raise, The fallen and help the weary, Only a smile and a word of praise, Making these lives more dreary.

Only to hearts that can think and feel For souls by adversity riven, Shall even the shadows of life reveal, The infinite wisdom of Heaven.

Only to feel that life is given For good in its transient span, Should make man pure in the sight of Heaven, And just to his fellow-man.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery. Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; anti-septic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an anti-septic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and swells. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, and a fewing which some injuries outlast for sale by A. C. Masters & Co.
