The Glendale News, under its present excellent management is keeping up the high standard it enjoyed under the able supervision of Editor Shutt. Bro. McKinney is a capable newspaper man as well as a fine writer and is using every means of making our newspaper the best.

The Fourth at Glendale was a success. The managers deserve great credit for the excellent manner in which the program was carried out. The creations by Hon. O. F. Coehow and Col. Mason were gems of patriotism and delivered in high oratorical manner. A large crowd was in attendance and all were much pleased with the day's entertainment. Along the sporting line Miss Ollie Jones was declared the winner in the young ladies race, also in the race run by the girls. In the race for men, P. H. Roberts won easily and was declared the owner in fee simple of the $45. Ambrose Marshall one of the leading citizens, won the wheelbarrow race and pocketed the prize money. The concert by the Glendale band, at 7:30 was followed by a fine display of fireworks and two balloon ascensions which lasted until dancing began at the opera house, which ended a grand Fourth of July celebration in the city of Glendale.

Our community is sorrowing over the death of one of her leading citizens. J. J. Guth of this city died Sunday evening at the family residence. While his death was not unexpected it came as a funeral pall over the preparations being made for the celebration. Mr. Guth and his wife had been residents of our city for three years and has many friends here who sincerely regret his death and who sympathize with the bereaved wife, who had so faithfully attended her husband in his last illness. When the end came he was tenderly held in the arms of the faithful wife and his last words were a testimony to her long years of tender womanly love that had made all of his earthly happiness. He left an only child, who is a midshipman in the U. S. Navy. Mrs. Guth and child have our heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour of their bereavement. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Landebrough at the home and also at the grave. Interment being made in Maplewood cemetery. MOLLIS.
