Mr. Kabat was armed with a 40 82 caliber Winchester, so if you hear a loud detonation from the South you will know Mr. Kabat has located some big game and has got into action.

Mention was made in the last issue of the PLAINDEALER relative to the commitment to the asylum of a prominent merchant from Port Orford, regarding which the Salem Statesman says: P. J. Masterson, a native of Ireland, aged 45 years, and a merchant of Port Orford, was received at the insane asylum from Curry county Saturday. His mental aberration is supposed to be due to the excessive use of alcoholic beverages.

J. A. Snell, representing the Whitaker & Ray Company publishers and booksellers of San Francisco, was in Roseburg last week visiting with his cousin, Miss Dullie Hefty. He was accompanied by Miss Hefty's sister, Miss Lura, of Drain, who after enjoying a brief visit at Myrtle Creek has returned to this city to visit with friends. Mr. Snell returned to San Francisco Saturday.

There are good reasons for believing that home people are buying less of their goods away from home than ever before. It is a good sign. So long as home merchants deal fairly and sell goods at reasonable profits it is the duty of home people to patronize them. On at least half the orders given to the mail order house the purchaser is fooled, if you buy at home and there is anything wrong with your purchase you can have it made right. Not so when you order away from home.

Ray Moore and John Townsend have joined the great majority of pleasure seekers in the mountain fastnesses hereabouts to enjoy a few days recreation. Upon the return of Mr. Moore he will relieve Operator Sheagreen, who has been employed in the Western Union telegraph office transmitting telegraphic dispatches to the Marshfield daily Mail and the North Bend daily Post, those papers having found this service too expensive to continue longer, owing to their limited field and patronage.

A letter received by A. L. Kidder from his son, Stanley L. Kidder, who has been in charge of the United States postal station at Cavite, Philippine Islands, states that he has been appointed postal inspector for the islands, the appointment dating from June 15. The many friends of this esteemed young Roseburger will be gratified to learn of his deserved promotion, as well as the improvement of his health, which has been very poor for some time past, but which is now excellent.

Committed to the Asylum.

I DuClos, a sheep raiser of Wilbur, was brought before Judge Thompson and Dr. Twitchell Tuesday and examined as to his sanity. He is a married man with a large family and a careful examination and evidence submitted disclosed the fact that he is a sensual pervert and a dangerous man to be at large. He was therefore committed to the asylum, it, however, being a question whether that institution or the penitentiary was the proper place for him. He has been greatly annoying the people of his community, on one or more occasions entering the home of a neighbor at night during the absence of the male members of the family, and making himself obnoxious to the female members of the household. It is stated that his wife was not agreeable to the commitment, but was granted permission to dispose of all of the personal property of the family upon agreeing to leave the state, it being her intention to get her sensual spouse out of the asylum on parole as soon as possible.

Du Clos was taken to Salem Tuesday night and turned over to the authorities at the asylum by Sheriff H. T. McClallen.

The Claffin Jubilee Singers.

The people of the M. E. Church have an interesting musical event in store for the public in an engagement with the Claffin University Jubilee Singers, of Orangeburg, South Carolina, who will give a program in the church this Thursday evening July 28. This group of singers is a quintet of young colored men, who are said to be vocalists of unusual ability. We bespeak for them a liberal patronage, assuring the musical public that they will be amply paid for their attendance, for the organization comes to us with the highest recommendation.

In the Justice Court.

A complaint was filed in Justice of the Peace, J. T. Long's court yesterday, entitled "State of Oregon vs. Walter Crittser"; the complaint being filed by W. S. Jones. The crime charged in the complaint was that of assault with a dangerous weapon. The assault was made upon the person of W. S. Jones, near West Fork on July 27, the weapon used being a large rock.

The case will be called for trial Friday at 1 o'clock p. m., District Attorney Geo. M. Brown, appearing for the prosecution and Attorney Dexter Rice for the defense.

Constable H. C. Slocum went yesterday to West Fork and returned with the defendant. He will go again this evening for witnesses.

DIED.

TUCKER—At the family residence in South Salem, Oregon, Sunday evening, July 24, 1904, Mrs. Rhoda Tucker, aged 79 years.

Deceased was born in New York, and came to Oregon several years ago. Eight children are left, Palmer Tucker and E. E. Tucker, of Salem, Myrtle Wilson and T. L. Tucker, of Blair, Neb., Harriet Fretton and Harry Tucker, of John Day, Oregon, Stephen Tucker, of Seattle, and Ella Bentley, of Myrtle Creek, Ore.

SACKETT—At the state asylum for the insane, at Salem, Ore., July 25, 1904, Mrs. Mary Sackett, of Canyonville.

Mrs. Sackett was committed to the asylum from Douglas county in 1890. The unbalancing of her mind was caused by extreme depression due to the death of her husband and two children.

DOWING—At her home in Salem, Monday, July 25, 1904, Miss Mabel Downing, aged about 17 years.

Deceased was a cousin of Mrs. Fred K. Gettine nee Scheldre of this city and was quite well known here having visited relatives in this city several times.

Married.

PAINTER-ROGERS—At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. J. Reed, in Roseburg, Wednesday evening, July 27, 1904, Mr. J. L. Painter and Miss Edna Rogers, Rev. E. Hicks officiating.

The wedding was a quiet and unostentatious affair, only a few relatives and intimate friends being present. The decorations were pink and green—Roses and Ivy. The bride was gowned in white silk mill, while the groom was attired in conventional black.

The happy couple, after receiving congratulations, led the way to the dining hall, where a dainty wedding supper was served. The bride and groom first met at Dunsmuir, California, some time ago, the groom being formerly of Pittsburgh, Penn., but is now located at Igera, California, where he holds the position of bookkeeper for a large lumber company. The bride is a very estimable young lady, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rogers, of Warden, but during the past four years she has resided with her sister, Mrs. Reed. Mr. and Mrs. Painter took their departure on the early Thursday morning train for Igera, where they will reside.

The PLAINDEALER joins their many friends in wishing them a prosperous and happy voyage through life.

COBB-PARKS—In Portland, at the parsonage of the M. E. church, South, Tuesday, July 26, 1904, Thos. C. Cobb and Miss Emma Parks, Rev. Mowery officiating.

The groom is a prominent young man of this city having recently been appointed deputy county clerk. The bride is a popular and accomplished young lady who has taught school very successfully in this county, her home being at Yoncalla, the family being formerly of Minnesota. The happy couple have a host of admiring friends in this county who unite with the PLAINDEALER in wishing them health, happiness and prosperity through life. They will reside in Roseburg.
