Got Even With the Widow.

"It took me a solid week to think it mt, but I did it," said the summer girl. I paid the widow up for all she had er done or expected to do. I'm staying-when I'm not called home this way to entertain country cousins, who will nsist on coming to Washington in hot reather-at a place up on the sound. Of course, there aren't many men there, nd when one does happen along the idow reaches out and grabs him. I'm ot deft over men, but a summer landcape isn't complete without a few, and no complexioned-doctored widow has a ight to monopolize them when the supmy is so much less than the demand. Pm opposed to monopolies and I set out to turn the widow from the evil of her ways as soon as I arrived. "I marked out one dancing man as my share of the loot and began to prepare for war. The widow danced with that man and walked with him and talked with him and held hands in the corner of the gallery, and try as hard as I might I couldn't get a chance to fire a hostile shot. Taken with Cramps.

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoes Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several loses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicines.—El-keder, lowa, Argus.

Will Ship Calves to California.

J. N. Burgess, the Eastern Oregon cattleman, whose cattle to the number of several hundred head the government inspector condemned and would not allow to be shipped out of the state on account of "scabbies" as recently told about in the PLAINDEALER has decided to dip the calves and ship them to California. The cows will be driven across the mountains to Mr. Burgess' ranch in Eastern Oregon.
