He comes under the auspices of the student body of the High School. The admission will be, adults 25 cents; children under 12, 15 cents. Special to all pupils 15 cents.

A Masterful Production.

Prof. L. R. Traver, Superintendent of City Schools, Salem, Oregon: I had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Carstens' lecture twice. It is a master production, and will not fail to inspire the hearers. COMMENTED BY PORTLAND'S FAMOUS SCHOOL MAN.

Superintendent of Schools, Multnomah County, Oregon: I have had the pleasure of listening to Rev. F. W. Carstens in his lecture "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy." The lecture is well planned and is entertaining, logical and uplifting. In it Mr. Carstens presents eloquently forceful truth.

R. F. ROBINSON.

IS STRONG, VIGOROUS AND INSPIRING. A. H. Yonder, Professor of Pedagogy, University of Washington: F. W. Carstens' lecture "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy," is strong, vigorous and inspiring. It pleased me and I know it will please others.

Adolph Hardin Charged With Criminal Assault.

Adolph Hardin of Yoncalla, was arrested and brought to Roseburg Saturday by Constable J. P. Thiel, on a charge of criminally assaulting the 16 year old daughter of Sam Long at that place. Hardin is a man about 28 years of age and was formerly in the employ of Mr. Long. He was given a hearing at that place, waived examination and was held to answer before the circuit court which convenes in Roseburg next Monday.

ELKS AT JACKSONVILLE.

A Fraternal Reunion and Feast of Good Things.

"A high horn of buck Elk, two does and a fawn" was the report Conductor Gregory sent in to the head office of the S. P. Co. at Portland about the excursion run by Roseburg Lodge, No. 329, B. P. O. Elks to Jacksonville on Saturday Oct. 1. The two does were Meadames Hansbrough and Poquette, who stopped at Grants Pass, and the fawn a young man who went down to be initiated into the mysteries of Elkdom. The party was joined, at different stations along the line, by other members of the lodge all intent upon paying Jacksonville a visit and join in the festivities.

Reaching Jacksonville about one o'clock they were met by the reception committee and marched to the Masonic Hall where the meeting was called to order and after a short session adjourned until 7:30 that evening. The afternoon was spent in sightseeing and in listening to a concert by the Roseburg Orchestra of ten pieces which accompanied the party. At 7:30 everybody met in a large hall and indulged in dancing until 10 o'clock when the lodge was again called to order in the Masonic Hall for a short business session after which the members indulged in a social session. About midnight all repaired to the banquet hall where lay spread a banquet the equal of which, it is safe to say, has never been seen in Southern Oregon, or, as one of the members said, "if there had been five hundred Elks in Jacksonville they could have done no more than the nine that were entertaining the order."

The hall was most elaborately decorated with the lodge colors, flowers and grapevines, the walls, in fact being literally covered with Jacksonville grape vines on which were still hanging the bunches of grapes, the best to be obtained anywhere.

At the eleven stroke of the gong, after all had gathered at the table, they arose and drank "to the memory of the departed brethren," after which all were seated and the following menu partaken of:

Martini cocktail, oysters, consommé en Tasse, sandwiches, ripe and green olives, celery, cold trout mayonnaise, cold turkey, cold ham, veal loaf, Sauterne, Zinfandel, Burgundy, chicken salad, cheese straws, ice cream, Nabisco, Jacksonville grapes, Jacksonville peaches, Jacksonville figs and melons, Roquefort cheese, Bent's crackers, coffee de menthe, cigars.

During the "cigars" with Judge H. L. Benson in his inimitable manner acting as Toast Master, Hon. E. A. Reams, made the Address of Welcome to which Hon. Geo. M. Brown responded, followed by C. B. Cannon, on the "Origin of the Order," Jas. H. Hansbrough, F. Jennings and other prominent members making very good speeches. The banquet was interspersed throughout by selection by the Roseburg Orchestra, and also a vocal solo by Al Veatch.

After the banquet the meeting broke up and all retired to their respective rooms, some going to Medford but the greater number remaining in Jacksonville.

Sunday the crowd broke up generally, some going to Medford, some to Astoria and others remaining in Jacksonville, but all met in Medford Sunday evening to take the train for home, and expressed the unanimous opinion that it would have been impossible to have had a better time, and that the Jacksonville ladies and gentlemen are the "Best People On Earth."

The nine Jacksonville Elks who furnished this delightful entertainment were: Geo. E. Neuber, L. J. Kinney, Chas. Grimm, M. F. Hanley, Peter Applegate, Jno. Cronmiller, Jno. L. Orth, Jno. Radler and A. E. Reams.

Among those present were: Judge H. L. Benson and F. W. Jennings, of Klamath Falls; N. C. Briggs, of Halliester, Calif.; Jno. Weaver and W. P. Johnson, of Myrtle Creek; Dave Crosby, of Kiddle; Geo. Thompson, Ed. Lester and Newton McGrew, of Grants Pass; Bud Eccleston, of Junction; A. Salzman, W. H. Carroll, E. L. Balfour, W. H. Fisher, Sam'l Josephson, C. B. Cannon, Roy McClallen, F. P. Quinn, H. C. Stinson, Jr., A. A. Fuller, C. G. Grimm, Earl Lander, Geo. M. Brown, Max Weiss, J. W. Tynan, Sam. Rast, H. T. McClallen, Frank Kennedy, A. Mosier, J. D. Hamilton, Jas. Hansbrough, Al Veatch, A. T. Thompson, Thos. C. Bloomer, Jack Robinson, E. Payton, J. E. Lang, Simon Caro, L. A. Sanctuary, Thos. Luster and Jack Phelen, of Roseburg; A. H. Waterman, of Eugene, B. F. Van Dehar, of Myrtle Point, and Prof. F. H. Appellhoff, Thos. Wharton, L. J. Dunnaway, W. D. Strange, Arthur Mahoney, Paul Mahoney, L. E. Bellis, L. B. Moore, R. W. Terrill and Roy Bellows, of the Roseburg Orchestra.

Fairbanks Speaks Not at Ashland.

The address of Vice Presidential Candidate Fairbanks announced to be given in Ashland today has been called off. A banquet, or something of that sort, has been arranged by the Californians to be tendered Senators Fairbanks and Dolliver, at San Francisco, this evening, and to keep this engagement the campaign managers whisked the distinguished party through Ashland this Monday morning long before people were awake on a special train.

The cancellation of Senator Fairbanks' stop will be a distinct disappointment to the people of Southern Oregon, and the change in schedule on the part of the committee, goes to show that Oregon is regarded as safe for the Republican ticket in any event, and that there is need of extra attention to California.

For City Ownership.

Owing perhaps, to some dissatisfaction arising over the water and light service in the city and the long drawn out negotiations for the establishment of a satisfactory rate for light and water service on the part of the Roseburg city council with the water company, a petition to the Oregon Legislature, was presented for signatures in this city the latter part of last week, asking that the charter of the city of Roseburg be so amended as to enable the city to own and operate its own water and light plants. The petition is freely signed by prominent business men and property owners, who by this act seem to sanction and commend the movement. The petition reads as follows:

PETITION.
We, the undersigned residents of Roseburg, Oregon, express ourselves in favor of the City of Roseburg owning and operating its own water and light plants, and hereby request the senators and representatives from this county to the next legislative session to work for the amendment of the charter of the city of Roseburg so as to authorize said city to establish by purchase or otherwise, a system of waterworks and a lighting system for public use and with full power to furnish both water and lights to the inhabitants of said city, will full power also to issue bonds to the extent of $100,000, to establish said water and lighting system.

It is stated that as soon as the desired number of signatures are secured the petition will be placed in the hands of some member of the Douglas county legislative delegation with instructions that it be presented to the legislature at its regular session this winter and its passage vigorously urged. According to the statements of those most interested in the movement it is the intention to either acquire the municipal ownership of the present water and light plants by establishing a reasonable sum therefor or establish an entirely new services on the gravity system, which it is claimed, can be done by piping water several miles.

New Postoffice Regime.

C. W. Parks, Roseburg's newly appointed postmaster, assumed his official duties Saturday morning, October 1st, the beginning of the new quarter, at which time Mr. W. A. Frater completed his long term and stepped down and out. Mr. Parks has in contemplation several important improvements in the post-office service which he hopes to put into execution at an early date, when the office is likely to be moved into larger and more conveniently arranged quarters. Mr. Parks' assistants are Misses Clara McCoy, Ella Cox, and Mr. Chas. Fields.

Prune Packing Operations.

The board of Directors of the Umpqua Valley Prune Growers Association met in Roseburg Saturday to perfect arrangements for beginning the season's packing operations at their plant in North Roseburg. There were present: Managers R. L. Gile, of Salem, and Directors H. E. Huntington, W. S. Wright, and Watson Davis. It was decided to open the plant for receiving fruit on Monday, Oct. 3rd. Packing will commence probably two weeks later. The plant will hardly run more than one-half as long as it did last season, owing to the unusual shortage in the prune crop.
