It's encouraging news for Republicans that is coming out of New York now. Representative Sereno E. Payne, Republican floor leader in the house of Representatives is quoted as saying: "I know of one town in New York where every living voter will cast his ballot for Roosevelt. That President Roosevelt will receive the electoral vote of New York is certain. The Republican majority will be as large as in 1900. Fully 50 per cent of the Gold Democrats will vote the Republican ticket. The younger element will support Roosevelt, and he will get most of the new vote." Ex-Senator Thurston, who has been campaigning all around New York state, said the young voters are almost solidly for Roosevelt. He finds the Democrats apathetic, many of them openly expressing the belief that the Democratic ticket has no chance.

Too many Oregon towns and real estate dealers treat new comers, home-seekers and investors as the dry goods clerk did a customer, justifying his actions from a biblical standpoint. The story runs as follows: A very religious man ran a clothing store. He always told his clerks to do nothing that was not warranted by the Bible. One day he learned that a clerk had charged a customer $3 for a $1.50 article and took him to task. "Can you think of a Bible quotation," he asked the clerk, "that would warrant such conduct?" The clerk said he could and quoted: "He was a stranger and I took him in."

Editor Roberts, of the Myrtle Point Enterprise, is an enthusiastic devotee of the theater, his greatest ambition being to shine some day before the footlights. So much is he given to theatricals that on a recent "night out with the boys" which presaged domestic infelicity on his return to his humble domicile, he engaged the local orchestra to accompany him home in order that he might dodge rolling pins and flat irons and ward off the descending strokes of the broomstick to the accompaniment of soft orchestral music, which he declares renders the scene less realistic and decidedly theatrical.

Last week six business establishments of Tillamook were merged into three. There were two meat markets, neither prospering. So one man sold out to the other and became his employee. There were two harness and saddle shops and the proprietors got together and tossed up a coin on a give or take basis. And the proprietors of two furniture stores, after a conference, agreed on terms of consolidation. Thus Tillamook sets a good example for other towns, says the Jacksonville Sentinel.

Referring to the case of Earl Stone at Coquille, in which the young man was convicted of killing his infant babe and was sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary, the Bandon Recorder says: "When Eve and Adam sinned both were turned out of the Garden of Eden, but the modern Eve has found a different way. When she sins and tempts her husband to sin, he is sent to prison for life while she goes free."

What is probably the largest bet of the present campaign was made recently at Silver City, Mont. between V. C. Place general manager of the Pinos Altos Gold and Silver Mining Co., and Chas. M. Shannon of the Sentinel. Mr. Place bets the entire holdings of his company against the Hughes and Shannon property which is wagered on Parker. The properties are worth about $600,000 each.

Senator Fairbanks, republican candidate for vice president, spent three hours in Roseburg Sunday and there was no fall in the temperature either. The Portland Journal will please note this fact.

Japanese soldiers are provided with ready written postal cards. All they have to do is to attach their signature to this—translated: "This is to let you know that I am alive and well. I can not give you my address, for I do not know where I shall be tomorrow. But your letter will reach me if you copy the postmark on this card. Greetings to my family and friends."

Mr. Fairbanks basing himself upon Lincoln's acceptance of the protective policy, declares that protection has "become incorporated into the public law and has become the foundation of the American industrial system." On the Philippine question he says: "The people of the Philippines do not distrust us. We need not distrust ourselves."

It was an honor Roseburg was unprepared for when the Republican vice presidential candidate and his distinguished party halted here for a three hours sight seeing visit Sunday. But the citizens of Roseburg proved themselves capable of doing things on the short order plan and extended the distinguished visitors a very cordial reception.

Since Attorney-General Crawford took office he has approved bonds from various Oregon school districts aggregating $202,000, this action being authorized by the Legislature of 1903, which passed a measure permitting investment of any portion of the irreducible state school fund in school bonds.

Roseburg is waking up and doing the wise thing by making a strong pull for factories, and with success. The great amount of good permanent street improvement work accomplished this season was money well and judiciously expended. There is evidence of enterprise and progress on every hand.

The PLAINDEALER is quietly pegging away, minding its own business. New subscribers are volunteering every day and new advertisements are in evidence in every issue. This we appreciate as it is one of the signs that the people are satisfied with the PLAINDEALER.

Judging from the way the Cottage Grove Leader is booming the Lewis and Clark Exposition one would naturally suppose it was going to be held at Cottage Grove instead of at Portland. Between every article, long or short, the Leader prints, "1905—Oregon—1905."

Though adopted no more than six or seven years ago, the whole of the German quick firing field artillery has been condemned as "obsolete" and is to be replaced by shield-protected guns recoiling on their own limber. That is the Japanese type of field gun.

The Republican national committee has assigned Rev. Walter I. Smith of Ohio, to take Senator Dooliver's place on Fairbanks' special train to assist the senator in his speaking engagements in the West. Smith left Wednesday for Ogden, where he joins the vice presidential candidate's train.

If prohibition carries in old Douglas in November we will not need to wait until January 1, to swear off, reform and turn that new leaf—it will also require less stability and force of character to keep from breaking those good resolutions.

A clean sweep for Roseburg—in landing that $10,000 broom factory. This factory will clear the way for the others which are to follow. Factories are what Roseburg wants and we can well afford to offer liberal inducements to secure them.

Better manufacture the surplus apple crop into cider. That may be about the only thing in Douglas county that can be had which will produce a jag after November 8th.

Grants Pass had an illustrated double page write up in Monday's Portland Telegram. Our southern neighbor is apparently rubbing her eyes and waking up.

Carrie Nation called on all the women of Kansas to join her at Wichita to smash things. Three responded. 'Tis a wicked and perverse generation.'

Salem people are agitating the ownership of their own water and electric light plants, ditto Roseburg.

Our citizens should be wide-awake on every point when it comes to bettering our town.

Not one one-hundredth part of Oregon's mineral wealth has yet been developed.

The prohibition petition has been filed and uneasy is the head that wears a jag.

UP IN ARMS. CRUISERS IN TROUBLE.

Albany Church Board Refuses to Receive Rev. Summerfield.
 ALBANY, Or., Oct. 5.—A majority of the official board of the Methodist Episcopal Church of this city has made a decided protest against the assignment of Rev. D. T. Summerfield to the pastorate of the church by the Eugene conference, and has notified Bishop Henry Spellmeyer, who made the assignment, that if Rev. Summerfield comes to this church he will be neither received nor supported.

The church members say the action was not taken because of any personal feeling against Rev. Summerfield, or because there was any doubt as to his character and standing as a minister, but because their wishes and suggestions regarding the pastorate were entirely disregarded when the assignment was made. While it considers Rev. Summerfield an able minister, the official board of the local M. E. church does not consider him the right man to take charge of the church at the present time; hence this decisive action, which comes, it is understood, as an ultimatum after considerable private discussion.

The church is now in a dilemma. It has refused the services of Rev. Summerfield, and is accordingly without a pastor. How the matter will be settled is yet unknown. It is said to be the duty of the resident bishop and the presiding elder of this district to assign the church a new pastor, but it is hard to say when any action will be taken.

Pioneer Odd Fellow Dies.
 COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Oct. 3.—Samuel P. Garoutte, the pioneer Oddfellow of the Pacific Coast, died at Vallejo Junction, Cal., last night. He was 81 years of age, and had been an active member of the I. O. O. F. He was initiated May 1, 1852, in Lynchburg Lodge No. 151, Lynchburg, O. He had been a voter for 51 years, having cast his first vote in 1844. He was decorated by the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., with the 50-year veteran's jewel on Aug. 19, 1902. The remains were buried here Wednesday, the local lodge conducting the services.

At the Christian Church.
 Evangelist L. F. Stephens and wife can remain in Roseburg only until Sunday night. They start Monday for St. Louis, Mo., to attend the great national convention of the church where 25,000 are expected to assemble. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens are delegates from Washington and must leave Monday. Arrange, if possible to hear the sermons for tonight, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights and at 11 o'clock Sunday.

Twenty persons have responded to the invitation to accept Christ and work in His cause.
 "Sweet Clover" that ever popular pastoral drama, was presented to a packed house at the Roseburg theater Monday night, and generally pleased those who witnessed the play. Otis B. Thayer, the co-star, and Gertrude Bondhill, the old farmer, and Mr. Thayer in the role of the farmer's daughter, very cleverly interpreted the characters, but the monotonous high pitch of the latter's voice somewhat detracted from her admirable presentation. The comedy role was well sustained by Clara Tappelfield and Bob Robson as an old maid and bashful bachelor suitor. The Roseburg orchestra rendered some grand new musical numbers.

 THE SUMMER BOARDER.

Out to the pleasant country,
 Whether in east or west,
 Cometh the summer boarder,
 Looking for health and rest,
 Wanting to pay one per day,
 And to receive the best.

Delicate and quite sickly,
 Hardly can stand on his feet,
 Wanting to trade the city
 Off for a calm retreat;
 No appetite, but it's a fright
 Just to observe him eat.

Wanting to make the natives
 Think he is rich and great,
 Able to run the city,
 Also perhaps the state,
 Built on the plan of a great big man,
 May be a candidate.

Meanwhile the wily farmer
 Who has the coin annexed
 Letteth the boarder ramble
 On with himself as text,
 Don't crack a smile, though all the while
 He and his folks are "next."

Boss of the Road.
 Who is that large gentleman with a big wagon who looks as though he wanted to run over some one? That is the ice man. When summer comes he comes also. He has a vague idea that your mother has some money, and he wants it. He gets it. In exchange for the money he gives her a chunk of ice that she can frequently see without putting on her glasses. In exchange for the money he makes the piece smaller and charges twice as much.

Hardly Same as Cash.
 "Mrs. Blaque is resigned to the doctrine that money is not the thing that counts for anything." "Yes, her husband says she is worth her weight in gold, and every pound she adds to her weight seems like putting money in the bank."

The Difference.
 A villain who may smile and smile,
 Though he'd kill a man by inches,
 But it takes a girl to look real sweet
 When she wears a shoe that pinches.

They Missed It.
 "Some of the world's greatest poets received but very little pay for their masterpieces."
 "Think of what they missed by being born before the days of the soap advertisement!"

He Still Smokes.
 We have the smokeless powder
 In every modern fight,
 But her husband's correspondent
 Is not as yet in sight.

Wanted the Best.
 "Drouse, let's take a trip to the Sandwich Islands."
 "All right, Weary, but before we go to the trouble of traveling, look in the book and see if there are no Pie Islands."

Softened the Shade.
 Her hair was like a carrot.
 A trick-up was enough,
 But still they called it Auburn
 Because she had the "stuff."

PERT PARAGRAPHS.
 The proper place for a crook is in a straitjacket.
 Tax secured in the harvest field is not nearly so aristocratic as tax acquired on the golf links.

THE AMERICA'S CUP.
 Sir Thomas Lipton, who will make another effort to "beat" H. L. The courage and persistence shown by Sir Thomas Lipton in his career as a yachtsman have challenged the admiration of the people of the United States. The repeated defeats he has sustained in his contests for the America's cup have been taken with such good grace that the gallant Sir Thomas has achieved the honor of being called "the man who can afford to be defeated."

A man with no music in his soul may still run a phonograph half the night because he dislikes the neighbors.

It is a strong-minded vegetarian who does not fall when the fried spring chicken is passed.

It may do all right for a savage race, but no refined man will eat dog if he knows it.

Looking at it the other way, the sun is setting on some portion of the British empire every hour in the twenty-four.

A short order is too often the one you get from the grocery.

If you have occasion to call a large man a liar, do it wirelessly.

It is hard for the man who can't spell to be a hero in the eyes of his typewriter.

There is a tide in the affairs of men, and later on there is sometimes an untid in the divorce court.
