THE GAME WARDEN

Governor Turns Down Petition for His Removal.

AN EFFICIENT OFFICER.

List of Convictions for Violation of Game Laws.

Not long since a petition containing some thirty names was presented to the removal of J. W. Baker as state game warden on the grounds of diliatorvness and inefficiency. The Governor promptly refused to consider the petition, which it is stated, bore the names of both Democrats and Republicans Governor Chamberlain pointed out the fact that Mr. Baker had proven himself a very alert and efficient officer and had made more arrests and secured more Two convictions for violations of the game laws, during his brief term than had any of his predecessors during their entire administrations, regardless of the small compensation for his services received from the state, and the limited means at hand to be exployed in en- Four Russian War Ships Damaged. forcing the game laws.
