RICE & RICE

The Price

W hat you pay for a pie.e of furniture is often the deciding thing in the selection. The matter of the price is a matter that strikes home. It affects the purse. But this is another place wherein we can please and satisfy you Our prices represent the value of the goods. There is a profit in them-just enough to cover up selling expenses and to conduct a legitimate business. That is all we ask you to pay. When you do pay it you are sure you are getting the full worth of your money. You are not making blindfold purchases.

Lack of Space

Prevents our displaying the thousand and one good bargains in our store; if you need anything for furnishing the home it will pay you and interest you to look through our establishment. If you are in the country and need a piece of furniture write us fully describing your wants and about what you want to pay, and we will mail you cuts or photographs of the very latest styles with spe ial net prices. The pictures we send to you will represent the articles as they really are. No catalogue house can keep pace with the rapid changes made by manufacturers.

Holidays will soon be here and we will be prepared for all. Don't throw money away buying worthless presents. Buy the satisfactory kind. All will join in telling you RICE & RICE sells it for less.
