CAMILLE TONIGHT
 The Georgia Harper Company is Playing to Appreciative Audiences

The Georgia Harper Company, which is playing a week's engagement at the Roseburg theater, merits all the complimentary notices which have heretofore been published regarding it in the columns of the PLAINDEALER. Regardless of the busy Thanksgiving season fairly good sized houses have greeted the company each evening and a crowded house is predicted for tonight (Wednesday) when the famous emotional drama "Camille" will be presented with special stage setting for its production.

On Monday evening, the company opened its engagement here with the entertaining comedy drama, "The Power of Love," which was well received. Miss Harper was ably supported and fully merited the frequent applause and a "curtain call." Georgia Harper gave us an exhibition of splendid acting, the like of which is seldom seen outside the metropolis, her fine appearance and elegant dressing making a most pleasing stage picture. Little Miss Kathleen McDonald won the hearts of all. The illustrated songs, saxophone solos by Joe Dietrich and other specialties between acts are entertaining features.

On Tuesday evening the thrilling military drama "In Old Virginia" was presented, all new and special scenery being used, which added much to the effect in its excellent presentation. Miss Harper as Bessie, demonstrated her marked ability and versatility. Miss Harriet Brown, as Virginia; Little Kathleen, as Ralph; J. J. Harper, as Ned; E. McDaniel, as Gen. Landrum; Joe Dietrich, as Steve Woodruff; Geo. Hailey as Uncle Eph; Lynn Purden, as Major Westcott and Leslie Glenn as Sgt. O'Rourke; all interpreted their respective roles, admirably, demonstrating the fact that this is one of the best repertoire companies that has ever visited this city.

A family matinee will be given on Thursday afternoon, presenting "Uncle Tom's Cabin," at reduced prices. Popular prices prevail at all evening performances.

The popular drama "The Two Orphans" will follow the presentation of "Camille."

A REAL FARM AT THE EXPOSITION

PORTLAND, Nov. 23.—A large experimental farm, in actual operation under the direction of skilled agricultural specialists will be one of the many novel spectacles at the Lewis and Clark Centennial. The farm will be located on the western side of the fair grounds, and the work of preparing the soil and laying out an ideal spot with a truck garden which was originally a Chickamauga. It is an ideal spot with rich, silvicultural earth capable of producing the most prolific crops. None of the great world's exhibitions ever held before have shown such an object lesson to the people. While there has been cornstocks of enormous size, tied with blue ribbons, and fruits on a china plate, the opportunity of studying a marvellous crop, while actually growing, will be an entirely new and original feature of the 1905 Exposition.
