Briggs-Benson.—Miss Gail E. Benson, daughter of Judge Henry L. Benson of the circuit court of the first judicial district, was married at Klamath Falls, last week, to Mr. N. G. Briggs, jr., of Hollister, Cal., and the newly wed pair left at once for the latter place, which will be their home. Mr. Briggs is prominently identified with the new Klamath Canal Company.

Trains Collided.—Passenger train, No. 12, came in from the south today four hours late, the result of the passenger train running into an east bound freight train near West Fork, considerably demolishing the caboose and two or three freight cars. The passenger engine was also considerably damaged, but fortunately no one was seriously injured.

New Branch House.—W. D. Garman, of Cottage Grove, and W. A. Hemm, way of Grants Pass, are in Roseburg today making final arrangements to establish a branch store in this city, and the store will probably occupy a room in the Taylor & Wilson block opposite Mark's store. The company has large mercantile establishments at Grants Pass, Cottage Grove and Seaside. They are enterprising people and we welcome them to Roseburg.

New Two Story Brick.—Dr. E. V. Hoover announces that about January 1st he hopes to be able to put the brick masons to work on a new two story brick 50x100 lot, to replace the old Hoover homestead almost opposite the postoffice. It is announced that the ground floor has been leased in advance for a number of years. Dr. Hoover is now engaged in arranging with the Hoover heirs for the new brick which will cost about $7,000. D. S. West, real estate and insurance, who has been occupying part of the old building has taken room 3 in the Taylor & Wilson block and has been given the management of that building. Boyce, the tailor, will move from the old Hoover building later.

Hon. J. T. Bridges. Register of the Roseburg land office, was a witness for the government in the famous land fraud case at Portland Wednesday. He was asked but a few questions, among which was if he knew Horace McKinley. He said he did. He also identified the signature of McKinley and said that McKinley delivered the non-mineral affidavit in question to the Roseburg land office in person. He had tried to discover who one, "Howe," was, but had been unable to do so.

Osteopathic results are wonderful when compared with the "ancient doctor system."

THE HOUSE FURNISHERS

The Price
What you pay for a piece of furniture is often the deciding thing in the selection. The matter of the price is what matters. It affects the purse. But this is another place wherein we can please and satisfy you. Our prices represent the value of the goods. There is a profit in them—just enough to cover up selling expenses and to conduct a legitimate business. That is all we ask you to pay. When you do pay if you are sure you are getting the full worth of your money. You are not making blindfold purchases.

Lack of Space
Prevents our displaying the thousands and one good bargains in our store; if you need anything for furnishing the home it will pay you to interest you to look through our establishment. If you are in the country and need a piece of furniture write us fully describing your wants and about what you want to pay, and we will mail you cuts or photographs of the very latest styles with special net prices. The pictures we send to you will represent the articles as they really are. No catalogue house can keep pace with the rapid changes made by manufacturers.

Couldn't Fool Him on Insurance

In making the rounds of his territory the other day, writing up life insurance, Dave Shamrock struck a hard customer—an old German who had recently lost his residence by fire, the insurance company having built him a better home rather than pay the insurance which was far in excess of the value of the burned house. Being unable to write up the old German, Shamrock proposed that the wife take out a $2000 policy. "Dat be dam!" exclaimed the Dutchman. "You insurance fellows is all lies! I insure my wife, and my wife die! I go to your office to get my $2000; do I get it all the money? No, not quite. You say you will pay me $1000; if you don't like de $1000, you give me a bigger and better wife!" Go you my insurance!
