Golden Weddings

After 50 years of harmonious wedded life Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wikerson of Winniford of Oakland Oregon, celebrated their golden anniversary, Monday, Dec. 19, 1904, surrounded by 28 of their children and grand children, only four of the whole family being absent. They were married near Greenville, Tennessee, Dec. 19, 1854. Eleven children blessed this union, eight of them yet living, all being married but the young son. In 1871 they moved to Oregon, and for 31 years have resided at their present home. They were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts, the most interesting being a fine toned graphophone, given by the children and grand children. The rooms and table were decorated in gold and green, the golden color being carried out in all the cake. The dinner was served on the same snowy cloth which was used for the reception dinner 50 years ago and all such occasions in the family since it was a most delightful affair and altogether the day was a most enjoyable one and an occasion long to be remembered by all present. With fondest wishes that all may meet again in the dear old home to celebrate their diamond wedding.—Owl.

Yon Yonson Coming to Roseburg:

No play of recent years has so much auspicious fun and such genuine heart interest as "Yon Yonson" in which the late Gus Heege made both fame and fortune before his untimely death a few years ago. It has been a difficult matter to successfully replace this great dialect comedian, but Manager P. J. Kennedy has succeeded splendidly. He was compelled to go to Europe to do it, and he is now more than pleased with his investment and at the result of his labor. He has secured Mr. Charles A. Boyd, a handsome young actor, singer and musician, who is considered by all odds to

The Black Patti Troubadours.

America's greatest aggregation of Afro-American Theatians will be the attraction at the Roseburg Theatre Wednesday evening, Dec. 28.
The exalted standing and reputation of Black Patti, the extraordinary excellence of the troubadours and the phenomenal success of their performance elsewhere makes the appearance of this remarkable company of singers, dancers and comedians in this city an event of immense public interest.
Black Patti's lyric triumphs in all the leading music cities of Europe and America are without parallel. She is one of the most popular prima donnas in the world, and has probably sung before the largest and most distinguished audiences that ever assembled to applaud a contralto.
She has been the recipient of distinction from the President of the United States, the Emperor of Austria, the King of Spain, and the most illustrious monarchs of Europe, Asia, Africa and America.

Notice of Publication.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, Oct. 12, 1904.
Samuel E. Knight and J. H. Foreman having filed in this office their corroborated protest against the allowance of timber application No. 2625, for lots 4, 5, 12 and 13, sec. 10 29, T 3 W., made by Charles Maw, upon which final proof was submitted at this office on September 29, 1904, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The protest is hereby ordered. The mineral character of the land is alleged by the protestant and it is for the purpose of determining the character of the tract included in the said entry that the hearing is had.
The testimony in the case will be taken before the Register and Receiver of this office on March 1, 1905, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The parties in interest are hereby summoned to appear at the said time and place to offer testimony in support of their respective claims.
J. H. BOOTH, Receiver.

Hoover and Ballard Nuptials.—Dallas, Oregon, Observer, Dec. 23: Dr. E. V. Hoover, Mayor of Roseburg, Oregon, and Mrs. E. H. Ballard, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hubbard, were married at the Hubbard home, south of town, Tuesday, Rev. J. M. Green, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. The ceremony was witnessed only by the near relatives of the contracting parties. After a beautiful wedding dinner had been served, Dr. and Mrs. Hoover drove to Salem and departed on the overland train for San Francisco. After a tour of Southern California, they will return to their new home in Roseburg. [The many Roseburg friends of the high contracting parties join the Plaindealer in extending congratulations and best wishes.]

Special Car to Oakland.—Arrangements have been made with the Southern Pacific R. R. Co. for a special car to be run from Roseburg, to Oakland in the evening of Dec. 30th, on account of the grand concert and ball to be given in the latter city on that night. The round trip fare of $1.00 will be charged, and it will require fifty fares to secure the car. The members of the Roseburg Orchestra, which has been engaged to furnish music for the affair, are endeavoring to secure the pledge of the required number of persons who intend to make the trip and are meeting with good success. The car, if secured, will leave here at 6 o'clock p. m. and arrive at Oakland about 30 minutes later.

Local Talent Theatricals.—The Roseburg Orchestra will give a splendid drama on or about Jan. 8, 1905, the characterization now being completed. The cast will embrace the very best local talent which insures a production equal if not superior to many of the traveling troupes' presentations at this place. Watch for further announcements. The title of the Drama is "Twixt Love and Money."
