A Crook Captured.—Friday afternoon C. B. Cannon, local agent for the Ladies Home Journal and Saturday Evening Post, received a telegram from the Pacific Coast agent at San Francisco stating that one H. C. Clark, who was reported as soliciting for those Journals in this county was a fraud and Mr. Cannon was requested to cause his arrest. This telegram was followed Saturday by another of similar wording from the head office in Philadelphia. Upon receipt of the first dispatch, Mr. Cannon placed the matter into the hands of the sheriff, who by notifying the authorities in the towns along the railroad line, brought about Clark's arrest, which was effected at Riddle by Constable H. A. Crow. He was taking subscriptions not only in Roseburg, but in Oakland and Myrtle Creek as well and was operating in Riddle when arrested. He was brought to Roseburg and given a preliminary examination before Justice Long today. He waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $1000 which being unable to furnish he was placed in the county jail to await trial at the next term of court.

Lively Run-away.—Jos. Mabley's team became frightened Friday afternoon at a falling shade tree which was cut down by carpenters on Jackson street in this city and dashed into McNamee's grocery store at the corner of Cass and Jackson streets causing the collapse of the wooden awning or porch above the building. They then dashed down the sidewalk colliding with a shade tree in front of the Cass street meat market, where they were checked and taken charge of by their owner, although the only damage being a wrecked wood rack on the wagon. It was fortunate that no ladies or children were on the street in this locality at the time of the run-away.

Discharged as Cured.—J. W. "Doc" Murray, the eccentric old character who was committed to the insane asylum from Roseburg September, 1904, was discharged from that institution last Wednesday, as cured. Up to the time of his commitment, he had traveled up and down the coast for a number of years, selling "Webfoot Oil," and other cure-alls of his own manufacture.

Hospital Deed Recorded.—Rev. T. O'Carroll is working diligently in the interest of the new Catholic hospital to be located at this place, and with deserved success. The deed to the land comprising the site for the Providence Hospital in West Roseburg was placed on record in the county clerk's office Friday.

Whose Is It?—A. B. Mott, agent for the National Art and Crayon Co., of Chicago, in receiving and delivering enlarged pictures in this county, has received a photograph and enlarged portrait minus the local address. On the back of the photo appears the name "Nancy Oliver," and the photo and crayon picture may be secured by calling at the Plaindealer office.

Mahara's Minstrel proved to be a drawing attraction at the Opera House, Saturday night, and the attendance was large. The entertainment was one of more than ordinary merit and gave excellent satisfaction. The company includes especially good voices for singing, the instrumental numbers were also of a high grade, and finally some of the jokes were decidedly down to date.

Portland is in the clutches of the grip. Hundreds are prostrated and there is scarcely a home which has escaped the malady. In many instances two and three members of the household, and in many cases whole families, are stricken. A fever, sharp, aching pains in the legs and back, accompanied by a headache, are the initiative symptoms of the disease; these are followed by a severe cough.

Eight months ago there came to Oregon City a merchant who purchased a stock of goods. An advertisement was solicited of the new merchant who informed the newspaper man that he did not believe in advertising, since he seriously questioned the efficacy of reaching the public in that way. Last week the same business man packed up his goods and departed for other pastures. The merchant who severs his partnership with printers ink will sooner or later find himself divorced from the trading public.—Enterprise.

Billie Wright Improving.—Mrs. W. T. Wright has just returned home from Los Angeles and Long Beach, California, where she has been with her husband, who was compelled by failing health to give up his position as cashier in the First National Bank of Roseburg, recently, and go south in the hope that a milder and dryer climate would prove beneficial to his health. Mrs. Wright states that he has already derived much benefit from the salubrious ocean breeze at Long Beach, but he has concluded that the dry inland climate of Arizona will prove even more healthful for him, and he will therefore go to that country very soon, and will spend some little time at Colorado Springs before returning home in the spring. Mrs. Wright announces that she is again able to resume teaching in music and that members of her class may call and receive instructions on the days formerly devoted to each of them, commencing Tuesday of this week.
