T. J. Boyd, who returned to this city from Grants Pass about a month ago to accept his old position with the Plaindealer, severed his relations with the paper again Monday and took his departure for San Francisco to accept a position in a job printing establishment in that city.

A Coquille City man last week found a rifle where he left it over 23 years ago. He was in the woods and set the weapon in the hollow of a large cedar tree, and was unable to find the tree afterwards, although he had many hunts for it. The gun was in better condition than one would have thought it would be under the circumstances.

Victor Phipps' genial young man of the Dillard community was transacting business in Roseburg Wednesday and had his name added to the Plaindealer's rapidly increasing subscription list.

Sheriff McClallen says taxes are coming in very lively, the first day's collections, $15,000, being far in excess of the amount paid in on the first day for collecting taxes last year at the sheriff's office.

Mr. Namee Bros. are closing out their stock of groceries at cost. They are compelled to vacate the building and everything will be sold at actual cost. Opposite opera house.

H. H. Gidney, the Days Creek postmaster and merchant, was transacting business in Roseburg Tuesday. In a pleasant call on the Plaindealer he reported excellent crop prospects in his section of the county.

The Winston Dramatic Club will render a three act drama entitled, "A Country Kid," Friday night at Winston Hall, six miles south of town. After the performance those attending will be given an opportunity to enjoy a dance.

Ed. Smith, a prominent citizen of The Dalles, and a cousin of County Treasurer Geo. Dimmick, spent a few days in Roseburg this week. He reports prosperous times up on the Columbia and in the great Inland Empire.

An effort is being put forth to build a telephone line from Enos Dixon's place to Roseburg, a distance of about five miles, which would be a great convenience to the people of that vicinity. Mrs. Short circulated a petition in town Wednesday to raise a fund to assist in constructing this proposed line and received a large number of contributors which was greatly appreciated.

The Roseburg Orchestra purchased a fine "Milton" piano of W. A. Burr, the local music dealer, Tuesday which has been installed in the Roseburg theater, which is under their management. This instrument is a valuable acquisition to the orchestra and its purchase a stroke of enterprise on the part of this excellent musical organization. The orchestra members will soon receive their fine tailor-made dress suits.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Conn, of Lincoln, Neb., arrived here Monday evening and will visit at Melrose with Mr. Conn's cousins, J. W., H. S. and Henry Conn. They note a wonderful change in climatic conditions—a change from mid-winter to mid-summer, as it were.

Dr. Ball Returns to Roseburg

Dr. Bowie or Ball, who was reported had closed his Roseburg office and had gone to Grants Pass, returned to Roseburg Tuesday and announces that his office will be continued here. He regrets the anxiety his visit to Grants Pass caused a few small creditors here and resents statement of Ross, in whose charge he left his office here, to the effect that the doctor had never repaid the money loaned him to pay the freight on his fine equipment from Portland to Roseburg and that he, Ross, had never received a cent of his salary. The doctor says he borrowed no money from Ross, but has paid him $200 in salary since they came to Roseburg. Ross skipped out for Portland before the doctor returned to Roseburg from Grants Pass, after collecting a few small bills due the office about town, it is stated. Dr. Ball expects to open his Roseburg office for business again soon. He says he expected to have offices in several towns along the line, but has abandoned the idea of doing so at present, and will personally attend to the wants of his patients here.

First Rehearsal of Big Chorus

The big chorus recently organized by Prof. Appelhoff, director of the Roseburg Orchestra, met for its initial rehearsal at the opera house Tuesday evening. Sixty of Roseburg's best vocalists have been enlisted in this great musical entertainment, nearly fifty of whom were present at this first rehearsal. This is by far the greatest musical concert undertaking ever attempted in Roseburg and judging from the excellent progress made on this initial rehearsal, it bids fair to be the grand success desired.

The selection now receiving the attention of the big chorus is Haydn's "Creation," a beautiful production and one well adapted to the talent available in this city. The chorus will have a full orchestra accompaniment and will no doubt be the crowning event in Roseburg's musical achievements. The date of the concert has not yet been announced.

The deceased was an old time resident of this county and is survived by three sons, Marion and Earl Smith, of Lower Calapoosia, and B. D. Smith of Medford. Also one daughter, Mrs. A. F. Brown, of Oakland, who is now traveling in the Holy Land. The funeral was held at the Coles Valley cemetery Wednesday.

To Douglas County Teachers.

ROSEBURG, Or., Feb. 28, '05.
DEAR FELLOW TEACHERS:—At a recent meeting of Douglas county teachers called by County Superintendent E. B. Hamlin it was decided to make an educational exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair to be held at Portland the coming summer.

A COUNTY EXHIBIT.
It was deemed best to make the county the unit of a collective exhibit and to request all the schools of the county to assist in its preparation.

PLAN OF EXHIBIT.
The general plan of the exhibit is well described in the state circular recently sent you. Our plan for collecting and arranging the Douglas county exhibit is to have the schools prepare their work in accordance with the instructions contained in the circular; as soon as prepared, the papers should be carefully packed and sent to Supt. Hamlin, who will deliver them to the executive committee to be assorted for arrangement of volumes and cabinets and attend to the shipment of the exhibit to Portland.

TIME.
All the work prepared should be in the hands of the executive committee April 1. It must be in Portland April 10.

PAPER.
A limited supply of paper is furnished free. The county superintendent will mail you on request five sheets per pupil. Additional paper may be had at the prices quoted on page 7 of the exhibit circular.

PHOTOGRAPHS.
Unmounted photographs of industries, as farm or orchard scenes, hoppers, timber, mills, etc. will be of much value in preparing the exhibit. Language work based on these pictures will be interesting.

IMPORTANCE.
The importance of preparing a good exhibit cannot be overstated. Not only will it be an effective advertisement of our county to prospective home-seekers, but it will also be of great value in stimulating interest among the people and patrons of the schools taking part in the preparation of exhibit work. The result of this increased interest will be better schools.

Hoping you will take an active interest in preparing a creditable exhibit in your school. I remain
Yours respectfully,
A. M. SANDERS,
Chairman Executive Committee.

For an Impaired Appetite

Loss of appetite always results from faulty digestion. All that is needed is a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will invigorate the stomach, strengthen the digestion and give you an appetite like a wolf. These Tablets also act as a gentle laxative. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

Cured Consumption

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes, My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. This was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal. 25c, 50c and $1.00. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

Call for Bids.

Bids will be received for the construction of a sewer, on Oak street between Main and Chadwick streets according to plans and specifications now on file at the City Recorder's office, Roseburg, Oregon. Bids must be in the hands of the city recorder by March 6, 1905. The city council reserves the right to reject any and all bids, by order of the city council made the 6th day of February 1905.

H. L. MARSTERS,
City Recorder.
