WOMAN WOUNDS MURDEROUS NEGRO

According to advices which have reached here Mrs. Fred Merrill, of Igerna, Siskiyou county, shot and wounded one of two burly negroes who appeared at her home last 1906, upon a judgment and decree duly rendered week and being refused meals threatened her. It seems day of January, 1905, in favor of the above named 1904, will become subject to entry, filing and that Mrs. Merrill was alone in the house and had previous- plaintiff Nancy Jane Welker and against the ly fed a couple of hobos when the negroes appeared and snd wm. H. Sheppard, her husband, for the sum demanded something to eat. She refused the negroes whereupon one of them sprang at her with an oath, telling her that he knew her husband was away and that he intended to kill her. The terrified woman ran into the bedroom and secured her husband's revolver and sent a bullet the further sum of $20 40 costs and disburseinto the negro's body. He staggered from the house and execution, commanding me to make sale of with his partner escaped. A crowd of men assembled, swore vengeance and gave chase to the negroes who were line of the Thomas Stevens Donation Land traced by the blood of the wounded one, but at last report township (wenty-seven (27) south of range five and fourteen (14), the wenth half of Section fi had not been captured.
