Local and Personal.

Before coming to Roseburg to trade, readers are requested to examine the Plaindealer advertising columns. It's the active, wide-awake business man who advertises, consequently he is the most accommodating, sells the cheapest, and deals the most liberally in every way.

G. W. Woonacott, of Riddle, is registered at the McClallen.

Noah Rose and wife spent Sunday with relatives at Oakland.

Miss Anna Johnson of Drain is the guest of Mrs. F. L. Kinney in this city.

J. W. Beckley, of Canyonville was in this city on business last week.

Roads are reported to be getting in fine shape throughout the country.

Farm transfers are being reported daily. The homesteaders are coming.

John Berger and wife formerly of this city, but now of Silverton, are visiting in Eugene.

Mrs. F. H. Hunter, of Roseburg, is in the city to remain two weeks, the guest of relatives.—Telegram.

Miss Lulu Cloyd left for Myrtle Creek last evening to accept a position in a millinery store there.

Thos. Jennings, of Cottage Grove, spent last week in this city and left for Portland Saturday night.

George Turner, the timberman, left this morning for Portland where he will remain several days on business.

Mrs. W. S. Hamilton and sister, Miss Bessie Kidder, spent a portion of last week visiting friends in Eugene.

Roy Stearns and wife, of Oakland, are in this city today. Mr. Stearns is looking after the business of E. G. Young & Co.

Wollenberg Bros. have a most artistic window display comprising the very latest patterns in ladies' dress goods and waists.

If in doubt what you want for spring wear take a look at I. Abraham's show windows. This is applicable to both ladies and gents.

Prof. Ray Henderson recently closed a very successful term of school at Elkton. He is at present assisting County School Supt. F. B. Hamlin in his office.

According to the Medford Mail between 2500 and 3000 acres of new orchards have been set out in Jackson county, Oregon, the past season.

Prof. J. E. Patterson of Dillard, and Prof. J. H. Hobbs, of Wilbur, two of Douglas county's most competent educators, spent Sunday in Roseburg.

It is observed that Rice & Rice, the hustling house furnishers, are displaying an elegant line of Brussels and Ingrain carpets and Japanese matting in their show windows, marked at and below Portland prices.

A little of the old time western diversion still crop out in this highly cultured and refined county occasionally as will be seen from the following note taken from the Glendale News: "Shooting on the streets at night and other lawlessness should be stopped. There is no fun or pleasure in such actions, and fatalities may result from stray bullets."

After a lapse of some four or five years the S. P. railroad company has again granted the principal Postal Telegraph line repairers privilege to run velocipedes on its road at the risk of the repairers. This concession was made to High French of Ashland; Frank Jordan and G. O. McSilvray of Cottage Grove and Repairer Erickson of Portland.

J. Fred Hurst, assistant secretary and manager of the Hurst Automatic Switch and Signal Co., has a working model of their own invention on exhibition in the dining room of the Mosier Eating House on Cass street. This is a very ingenious invention and it is claimed will, when installed upon a railroad system cause it to be impossible for a train to run into an open switch. The object of exhibiting the parcel is to induce purchasers of stock in the company.
