
PREMIER BALFOUR, WHO THREATENED RUSSIA.

Premier Arthur James Balfour of Great Britain has finally succeeded in correcting the impression that he lacks determination. His recent attitude toward Russia regarding damage to British commerce by Russian warships evidenced that he is no man to be trifled with. The czar's men of war began to overhaul vessels carrying the British flag and search them. A warning from Balfour passed unheeded and then he notified the Russian authorities that he would use more stringent means to insure protection for British ships "The czar's officials immediately backed down."

HYPNOTISM A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Chicago, March 15.—Hypnotism as a cure for rheumatism has been brought to the attention of the University of Chicago medical professors by the discoveries and demonstration of Otto W. Greenberg, a young medical student, who professes to cure the most chronic cases of ailment by hypnotism. Young Greenberg's theory was given a trial in a physiology class, conducted by Professor Anton J. Carlton. A helpless cripple from the Home for Incurables was brought to the classroom on a stretcher and thrown into a hypnotic state by Greenberg. When under the mental influence of the operator the man was told he was to have the use of his limb. When he was released he was able to move his lower limbs, a feat which he had not accomplished for a long time before.
