The S. P. company has now installed between Roseburg and Ashland a system of telephones working on the same line as the telegraph instruments. If the system proves a success, all small stations and sidings will be provided with a phone whereby all trains, where there are no telegraph agents will be able to determine at what time trains will arrive. This will be a great convenience to the traveling public. It is also probable that all trains will carry an extra phone in case of an accident, communication may be immediately instituted with the dispatchers office. J. B. Stewart is in charge of the phone system.

A. H. Candland, of Ures, Illinois, a member of the Harriman Commission to invite immigration to Oregon and circulate information as to the resources of the state, spent several days in Roseburg and vicinity this week looking over this section of the state. He represents a large colony of industrious and thrifty Germans who are seeking a location in this state and he was looking over the valley with a view to locating the colony here or near Oakland providing the desired acreage could be secured. He was very favorably impressed with this part of the state. Heretofore, Eastern Oregon has received all of his colonization efforts, but he will now give Western Oregon his attention.

Curd Consumption

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes, My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had kidney consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horsehold Syrup, and it cured him. This was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal. 25c, 50c and $1.00. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

To Advertisers.—The judicious Roseburg advertisers should not forget the twice-a-week Plaindealer. It circulates throughout the length and breadth of the Umpqua valley and it is capable of helping wonderfully in extending the trade of Roseburg business men, which will be good for all the people of the city.
