ROSEBURG PLAINDEALER

THE PLAINDEALER PUBLISHING COMPANY

Entered in the Post Office at Roseburg, Orego as Second Class Mail Matter in 186

W. C. CONNER, EDITOR

Semi-Weekly One Year; $2.00; Semi-Weekly Six Months, $1 00. Cash in Advance. Advertising Rates, 50 cents per single column inch per month. Locals, 5 cents a line.

1905		MARCH			1905
Su.	Mo.	Tu.	We.	Th.	Fr.	Sa.
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
26	27	_	29		_	_

MONDAY, MARCH 27, 1905.

a shocking state of disrepair.

Napoleon, Wellington and Grant will have to look to their laurels-Field Marshal Ovama is coming to

Two of the highest salaried men in the world are the czar of Russia and the king of Spain. Big salaries do not always bring the best service.

For a man anxious to die poor, it seems that Mr. Carnegie was rather inconsiderate when he drew his sixtyfour dollars of witness fees in the Chadwick case.

With both army and fleet in the East destroyed, Russia may well begin to believe that peace has practically dropped in upon it unannounced.

the state making a "good road" talk. closed with a strong rebuke to the He is out of work just now and is company for its alleged attitude. The probably working up a chance to fill only representative of the railroad another state office.-Gervris Star.

ner coal fields. The company pro- light vein. poses to build a road into the interior

In the Japanese army the favorite time for assault is high midnight. A

The equinoxial storm came promptly and a heavy fall of rain was the result. Snow fell on the mountains and pretty low down at that. Farmers, stockmen and mining men are crowding all the westbound trains, returned with great promptness and The city of Roseburg and Douglas unanimity to their natural conditions county generally should not neglect and dirt again reigns supreme. The the opportunity to advertise their Russians used to compel every Chinamany advantages.

ties have commenced the work of forced to such an extent that the taking the census required every ten main streets are still kept clean. years under the laws of the state. What will the figures tell for some of tiquity. The city is the ancient capthese very ambitious towns?

With two congressmen, a governor, a full state ticket and a legislature due to elect a United States senator all to be nominated and elected next year, there certainly will be big things doing in Oregon politics.

carried a heavier burden of intel- area exactly a mile square. There is lectual work requiring physical en- a great tower at each corner, and 8 it every time anybody made a fool of durance than Field Marshal Oyama, gates, two on each side. and he is over 60. No doubt the Russians will agree that he ought to have been chloroformed years ago.

The Grants Pass Herald, edited by Representative Robert G. Smith, has al arrangement of all is simple. The a strong editorial against the running palace is gorgeously painted in red openly of brothels in the residence portion of the city, and he tells some plain truths to the people of Grants Pass in that connection. His appeal kinds sent here by the various Manfor decency could well be heeded by other cities.

Captain Oliver C. Applegate, for a long time agent of the Klameth Indians, has voluntarily resigned his day they might make a very hurried charge, and will be succeeded by Horace G. Wilson, Superintendent of the Winnehago Indian Agency school in Nebraska, orders for the transfer of the latter from Nebraska to Oregon having been issued from Washington.

R. Kelly of Linn, are listening with pearls broken and as many fresh ones

HOT SHOT AT RAILROADS

At the Salem Commercial Club he opposed the present war long bemeeting last Thursday which was fore it began and with rare precience largely attended, were made speeches foretold in detail the disasters that by prominent men which covered a have come to pass. He knew the wide range of subjects. Representa- prospective enemy far more thortive I. H. Bingham, the Cottage Grove oughly than the grand ducal coterie lumberman, hit the nail on the head and the grand ducal chiefs at St. Pewhen he gave the railroads the fol- tersburg; yet when ordered to under-SUBSCRIPTION AND ADVERTISING RATES lowing hot shot. "Transportation take measures his trained mind knew larly to interior manufactures, which gallantly placed the whole burden of moved to Portland, died Sunday from depends upon one line of railway defeat on his own shoulders. The pneumonia at the family home in the transportation, and have not the ad- experience of Kuropatkin in this year death reached this city Sunday evening vantage of competing water lines.

show the irregularity of some of the tions at St. Petersburg and Washingrates, said it cost more to ship a car- ton were practically the same; polit- garding the funeral and burial are obload of nails from Portland to Ash- ical interference, clashing instruc- tainable at this time. An estimable land than from Pennsylvana to Port- tions, and a strong evidence that the wife and family of three grown children, land. He declared that the people dominating authorities in both capimust take up the question of regula- tals did not wish their field commandting freight rates, for it is certain ers to win success. Kuropatkin, howthat no relief of that kind can be se- ever, was more respectful to the aucured from the Legislature. "You thority that was rushing his army to BINGER HERMANN might as well try to run water up disaster, as well as to destruction hill as to try to get railroad regula- piece-meal, than McClellan. The tion through the Oregon Legislature. strongest indictment ever laid against Port Arthur's new tenents like the It looks as though we shall be forced Stanton, the "war secretary" was location but they find the premises in to resort to the initiative and pro- contained in these burning words of shall not be compelled to resort to that I will owe no thanks to you or this method, but I believe we shall to any other person in Washington." not get relief until we adopt radical means. For the present, however, we've got the railroads, and they've

He charged the company with having been responsible for the loss of thousands of dollars to the lumber industry of the state, and with causing scores of sawmills to shut down on account of lack of facilities for transportating their product and because of exhorbitant rates, these mills he said, had never resumed operations so serious were their losses. He urged that some steps be taken by the people of the western part of the state to overcome the alleged monopolistic Hon. T. T. Geer, is traveling over sway held by the railroad company, company present was H. E. Lounsbury, traveling passenger agent, but The Northern Pacific Company is he did not reply. W. E. Coman was surveying a line through Umatilla present at the banquet in the evening the state seem to be very faulty in county in the direction of the Hepp- but he dismissed the subject in a the respect that no columns are

MUKDEN, MANCHURIA SACRED CITY this county, such as goats, mohair, Mukden, the largest city in Mangame of hand grenades at that hour churia, was taken by the Japanese must be more exciting than any other on the morning of March 10, after a long, fierce fight.

ducer of the former products. Most cities in China have 3,897 The sensational divorce case of separate and distinct smells; Mukden Buffalo Bill has been concluded and has only about 2,543, says Richard the decree dissolving the H. Little in the Chicago News. Before mestic relations of the great the war began the Russians had the Indian fighter and showman were town pretty well cleaned up, but since denied by the court, which took octheir entire attention has been taken casion to roast Bill and inform him Hundreds of homeseekers are up by the Japanese the Chinese have that he had been too gay and not as considerate to his sacred marriage views as he should have been. Bill will appeal the case. A corps of eloquent evangelists man all over the city to keep the part of the street in front of his County assessors in several coundwelling clean. This rule was en-

Mukden chiefly rejoices in its anital of the Manchu rulers of the dynasty that now sits in Pekin on the throne of China. The history of the town goes back eleven or twelve centuries. The great wall around the present inner city dates back three centuries. It is 40 feet high and 25 feet wide and is in almost perfect During the last year no one has preservation. The wall encloses an

> The palace buildings are more than four centuries old and are rotten and crumbling, but they still present a fairly good appearance. None is over two stories high and the architecturand green and has golden tiled roofs and fiendish grinning gargoyles. The palace is full of rich treasures of all chu emperors at Pekin. These emperors seemed to be impressed with the idea that they were not quite sure how firmly their throne was nailed down in Pekin, and that possibly some return to Mukden. There are countless boxes palace filled with jade vases, disher and jewelry of every discription. There is a pearl necklace that connoisseurs say is worth all the way hand corner of the enuelopes. There There are numerous would-be can- from $250,000 to $500,000. There didates for the republican nomination are dozens of others pearl necklaces for congressman in the first district. of lesser value. There are the robes It is generally understood that Bin- of the emperor, embroidered solidly ger Hermann will not be a candidate in pearls and other precious stones, for re-election. Walter L. Tooze, and there is the great crown of the "the man that made Woodburn fa- Manchus, which is covered with mous," Col. E. Hofer of Salem, editor jewels. The two mandarins in charge of the Capital Journal, and W. I. Vaw- of the palace like to show the treaster of Jackson county, are said to be ures, although every time they are new heavy steel for the S. P. are now candidates for congressman, and I. exhibited they must be taken down side-tracked at Krewson's spur. They H. Bingham of Lane county, and P. from musty cabinets and a half dozen replaced.

Be it said to the credit of General H. H. BROOKES IS DEAD AT PORTLAND

Kuropatkin, the friend of peace, that

The republican party has a noble origin. It sprang directly from an aroused and indignant national conlitical economy, of orderly administrations, passed out of sight for the moment, to be taken up and dealt with momentous questions, he judged right;

and if he is sleeping in his honored

The new enumeration sheets supprovided therein for many important products of the state and especially prunes, peaches, etc. Sheep, cattle, hogs and apples are the only products listed under these two heads on this blank, while Douglas is a great proof his decision.-John Hav.

Died Sunday from Pneumonia at the Family Home .-- Ex-Editor Plaindealer.

and our manufactures," was his sub- would be fruitless, he followed the resided in Roseburg for two years, soldiers instinct and obeyed orders, where he published the Piaindealer un He applied his remarks practicu- and in the results he had foreseen he to last July, when he sold out and of battles is historically parallel with and came as a surprise, few, if any, of Mr. Bingham denounced the meth- that of McClellan in his campaign our citizens being aware of his illness. ods of fixing freight rates, and to against Richmond. Superior condideath are meager and no particulars retwo daughters, Misses Mary K. and Ethel, and one son, Harry, are left to mourn their sad loss.

COMING HOME

tative Hermann is preparing to leave grace or humiliation he does not betray pose laws directly that we can't get the beloved Union commander: "If I for Oregon. He has been unable to through the Legislature. I hope we save this army now, I tell you plainly learn when his case will be called for trial here on the charge of destroying public records. It appears that the Government is in no hurry. Mr. Hermann believes his affairs in Oregon require his personal attention.

science. Questions of finance, of po-later on. But in 1854 the question that brought the thinking men tosell, on April 12-13-14, round trip tickets Rollerism have left the ayslum, disgether was whether there should be to Los Angeles, at greatly reduced rates, charged as cured, and have returned to on account of convention of Woodmen a limit to the aggressions of slavery of the World, and Women of Woodcraft. and in 1861 that solemn inquiry to be held at Los Angeles, April 18th, to work their minds into a religious turned to one still more portentous. 1905. Call on nearest Southern Pacific frenzy. Mrs. Creffield, formerly Miss Should the nation live or die? The Agent, for rates and full particulars. humblest old republican in America has a right to be proud that in days of his youth, in the presence of these

OYAMA LOVES PEACE.

grave his children may justly be glad Great Japanese Warrior Longs Por Field Marshal Oyama is by no means a man of prepossessing aspect but since the last of the others had left. plied the various county assess or by pictures were taken of him at the outbreak of the war with Russia he has grown a beard, which partially covers

COPYRIGHT 190 6 BY COLLIERS WEEKLY

the pockmarks in his face and adds something to his martial air. The photograph reproduced herewith was taken recently and gives a good idea of taken he had one between his fingers.

Though so great a man in the mill-war. And I would gather about me my best old friends and little children.

Then in the sunny days all would be

Real Caustie.

"Why, man alive, her father's worth

An English View.

Will Schwab retire? He won't, not he

No Yankees are retiring!

Early Industry.

n business as a floorwalker?

Jewett-Twins.-Judge.

Hewitt-How did you come to start

Equalized.

Beware! Go slow, ye fast young men. You can't change nature's ways. You're lengthening your nights, but the You're shortening your days.

—Philadelphia Press.

In Other Words, Temporarily,

"And so he's married to an actress?"

And It Is Hard to Raise the Price.

The saddest words of tongue or pen: "The price of coal has riz again!"

"Yes. For the present,"-Town Top-

$40,000. Of course she's pretty!"- bappiness."

"Is she pretty?"

have opened their batteries on Portland sinners from the churches, assisted by sweet singers. That is right-the place needs a good spiritual housecleaning.

Musinés.

The flour for the bread of packed in gun barrels.

All ingrates are not cowardly, but owards are ungrateful. Exchange says that "a woman can she doesn't need to This world would be far more dismal than it is if the public found out about should not marry until she can support a husband must want to put the men of this country on a level with foreign

"No fewer than six times in the last forty years has the outline of a woman's figure been changed," a modiste said, and now tight lacing is coming into

An Oregon exchange is credited with this "break" in the course of an obituary notice. "The deceased leaves nine children, eight of whom are honored and respected citizens of this state and the other lives in Missouri. Some people appreciate the power of the press, particularly whey they want something left out of a newspaper, and those whose appreciation is the greates are often a class of people who never support any paper published at home.

The sarcastic postmaster advises that persons wishing their letters to go hrough the mails in a hurry should always write "In haste" on the lower leftevery-body connected with the service will jump around lively. The mail sack containing it is delivered to the route clerk on the run. The route clerk rushes ahead and notifies the engineer to pull the throttle wide open, and the rural carrier whips his horse into a swift gallop all in order that the instructions may be obeyed.

The Greek gang who are laying the town tomorrow. There are more than 100 men in the gang. $5000 in wages attentive ears to the buzz of the con- put on again when the treasures are was distributed among the Greek gang Sunday .- Drain Nonpareil.

PRISON LIFE OF JOSHUA CREFFIELD

no thoughts or feelings in the matter ants.-Oregon Agriculturist. and keeps his own counsel as to matters religious or otherwise.

entence for adultery, is employed in the tin shop and is a faithful workman. He enjoys the best of health, his appetite is good, he sleeps well and is gradually growing fleshy. He pays do attention to his surroundings and has nothing to say to guards, foreman or fellow convicts, except as pertains to the work he is performing. He carefully avoids being drawn into conversation regarding his past or what he intends doing when he secures his release; neither has he any confidents among the prisoners, so little is known as to his state of mind or feelings concerning his present predicament. If he feels any degree of dis-

Creffield, who is serving a two-years since he has been in prison and makes no attempt whatever to convert the other convicts to his belief, if he still maintains it. Several people have called at the prison to see him, yet, while he does not refuse to see them, he declines to discuss anything pertaining to his past, present or future in a religious sense or otherwise. When told that his wife was AT LOS ANGELES | Otherwise. When told that his wife was no longer a believer in the faith, he betrayed no feeling of surprise.

Followers Out of Asylum.

All the followers of Creffield's Holy Captain Racket, of the National Guards, the life of quiet and contentment they enjoyed before he appeared among them Hart, left the asylum soon after a ser ious illness, which was in the nature of Ramblers new and up-to-date at Hod- a hysterical trance. After she recovered from this spell, she promised to go home Mrs. O. V. Hurt. Attie Brev. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurt and Rose Seley were among the first to renounce their fanatic faith and take their departare homeward, but Sophia Hartley fought it out for about two weeks after

The asylum physicians are convinced that Miss Hartley's religious professions were wholy affected from her manner of ed to give Holy Rollerism up, she was a raving, shouting Holy Roller. When ing to boodwink her.

Mrs. Creffield Taras Tide.

She did not desist in her fanatical protestations until Mrs. Creffield called at the asylum to pay her a visit. As soon as she saw Mrs. Creffield looking very nice in a neat traveling suitand that she had thrown off her carious religious belief she underwent a very sudden change of manner, greeted her affectionately and signified her willingness to go bome and be good. She was called for by her her a new outfit of clothing of the latest ports to the asylum indicate they are Two Step, "The Toplinere"...... all doing well.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION

The following is taken from the Angusta Chronicle and Sentinel. The recipe may be valuable and it may not. Jolly Fellows Waltz R. Tollstedi "Having seen much suffering from consumption, and knowing thousands of dollars are yearly spent by invalids traveling for their health, and on medicine and physicians, we propose a simple recipe by which patients may become their own physicians, and, if not too far gone, we guarantee a perfect cure if his appearance in the field supervising made and regularly taken according to the movements of the armies which are directions. The ingredients are hoardriving Kuropatkin back toward St. hound, mullein and molasses-ingredi-Petersburg. He is strongly and heavents that are within the reach of all; ily built and more powerful looking the mullein growing wild in every field. than the average Japanese. He knows that he is homely and jests about his the hoarhound in almost every garden looks whenever a photographer by dint and the molasses to be had at every groof persuasion or stratagem gets him to cery. The directions for making are to face a camera. Like Kuroki and so take a large handful of hoarhound and many other military men, he enjoys make as strong a tea as can possibly be his cigar, and when the picture was made. Take up and boil an equal mount of mullein in the same way. Take a cupful of tea of the mullein and tary affairs of his country, Marshal hoarhound and mix together in a suita-Oyama does not love war. He once ble vessel, and then add a cupful of mosaid: "My ider of happiness is to dispose of everything I possess that beinsses and stew to a syrup—the quicker the better. Take a tablespoonful or longs to the practice of arms and go tar into the country with big boxes of large swollow three times a day. Be books to read for the rest of my daysparticular in following directions as to books that tell of happiness and progmaking and also as to taking it and we will guarantee relief in all cases not too far advanced. "The writer does not claim this recipe as original with himself but has recommended it in many cases with good results. As the ingredients are so common and easily obtained, it is not best to make more than a quart at a time. particularly in warm weather as the fresher it is the better effect it will pro-

Postmaster C. W. Parks has found it necessary to enlarge the postoffice room and has had workmen take out a partion of the brick wall between the front and back room and has finished up the rear room and moved the mail sack rack further back.

For sale, Toulouse goose eggs now ready, from prize winners, 25 cents each Send in your orders early: eggs limited. AddressE. A. Kruse, Roseburg, Ore-

We have a limited amount of screenings suitable for chicken feed that we offer for sale in quantities not less than one hundred pounds. Douglas County

DOUGLAS LEADS IN

The poultry industry is steadily growand apparently unshaken in religious ing in Douglas county, Oregon. It has belief, Joshua Creffield, erstwhile chief- long been known as the greatest turkeytain of the Holy Rollers, takes life growing country in the Pacific Northmerely as a matter of course in the pen- west. Oakland in that county is the itentiary, goes about his daily work leading egg-shipping point in Oregon. cheerfully and uncomplainingly and at- The interest in breeding good poultry is tends strictly to his own business. It now developing. There are local pouldoes not seem to matter much to him try associations at Yoncalla and Drain whether his band of followers has un- which are doing good work Poultry dergone a change of heart and mind, or may some day be worth more to Dougthat his young wife has renounced him las county than it now is to Sonoma and returned to things of a more worldy county, Calif., where it supports the nature, for he asks no questions, betrays city of Petaluma with over 4000 inhabit-

High School Entertainment

An entertainment for the benefit the Roseburg High School will be given Saturday evening, April 1, 1905, at the High School auditorium.

Beautiful pictures of the World's Fair Lewis and Clark Centennial and Oregon scenery produced by the latest and best

Carl Hallock Robinson will delight you with popular illustrated songs. Edyth Tozier-Weatherred, who has seen commissioner from Oregon to several world's fairs, will explain the pictures. These slides are made by Kiser Bros , official photographers of the Lewis and Clark fair. Admission, 25c and 15c

Everybody attend and thereby assist the High School.

Local Theatrical Company

The Roseburg Amateurs will appear in the Farce-Comedy, Captain Racket, at the Roseburg Theater Monday April 3, 1905. Following is the cast of charac-

a lawyer when he has nothing else to do, a liar all the time Roy Bellows Obadiah Dawson, his uncle from Japan (where they make tea)

..... Nels Osmundson Simothy Tollman, his friend, who married for money, and is sorry for it

Mr. Dairoy, his father in-law, a jolly cove,.....Thos. Carlon Hobson, a waiter from Cafe Glorins Mrs. Tollman, a lady with a temper, who finds her Timothy a vexation of . Agnes Pitchford

Katie, a mischievous maid. Eva Messler Clarence, the captain's pretty wife out for a lark, and up to everything aw-......Gertrude Rast SYNOPSIS told she was the only one of the band breesy morning in September. The remaining, she thought they were try. Captain's fancy takes flight, and the trouble begins. Act II. The same place the next morning. How one yarn requires another. "The greatest liar unhung." The trouble now increases and the Captain prepares for war. Act III Place the same; time, evening of the same day. More "misery," a general muddle 'Dance or you'll die." Cornered at last. The Captain Specialties between acts by the Rail-father a few days later. He purchased road Quartette, and illustrated songs by style and took her home with him. Re- MUSICAL PROGRAM BY ROSEBURG ORCHESTRA Between acts I and II.

Descriptive piece, "The Village Orchestra"......Percy Gaunt
The Bangtown Crossroads Orchestra after practicing all winter, decided to give a contert; the eventful evening arrives, every member feels himself an artist and determines to be head, as his best girl is there. Result, "A howling success."

Between acts II and III. Band concert in the evening in front

Whole and cracked corn for sale by the Douglas County Flowing Mills.

W. M. HODSON & CO. 711 GAK STREET

MACHINE

OF MALL KINDS A SPECIALTY : BICYCLE

MRS. H. EASTON is prepared to wait upon old and new customers and friends with a full and complete stock of -GROCERIES-All fresh and of the very best quality. Tess and coffees are specialties. Your patronage

205 Jackson St., Roseburg

STAMMERING CURED

permanent and terms reasonable. Pupils on leaving school talk per-fectly institual as though they had never stammered : : : :

PACIFIC SCHOOL FOR STAMMERERS 150 ELEVENTH ST. PORTLAND, ORF.

POULTRY RAISING Bargains for all

Fancy Baskets from 5 cts to $200 Swell line of Combination Cases Ranging in Price from $15 to $28 Take a look at our Buffets From $25.00 to $38.00. :: ::

FRESH FAMILY GROCERIES

A complete stock of all the best brands and grades of staple and fancy Groceries. New and fresh goods on which we have removed the tariff.

All kinds of early vegetables and fruits kept constantly on hand. Highest market price paid for all kinds of farm produce.

KRUSE & NEWLAND UP-TO-DATE GROCERS

JUST ARRIVED

NEW STOCK

FINE CHINA

FIGS HONEY ALMONDS

CROCKERY

GLASS WARE

WARE

CURRANTS

WALNUTS

CITRON

LEMON AND ORANGE PEEL

Anything you need for a Fruit Cake or Mince Meat J. F. BARKER &CO. Phone 201

Merchants reserve your orders for the ROSEBURG BROOM FAC-TORY which will be re-established and ready to fill orders early in All Brooms a grade higher than the onlinery instom made broom Prices in competition with

R. S. BARKER, ROSEBURG, OREGON.

A TALE OF WOE

line done up at home. At no private laundry can you get the perfection of color and the beauty of finish that makes our establishment famous, for our facilities are perfect and up to date, and we employ only experts, that can show such evidence of their handicraft ROSEBURG STRAM LAUND:Y.

GETTING READY TO PAINT

You want the best, no doubt, and that's just what we have. Carter's Strictly Pure White Lead. Kalcimo Pure Bolled and Raw Linseed Oil and All the other Essentials.

BEARD & CULVER

ARTICLES OF JEWELRY

Suitable Gifts for Ladies Suitable Gifts for Gents Suitable Gifts for Children

Finest Line of Jewelry Ever Shown in Roseburg

Right Goods ight Prices ight Place

SALZMAN'S