Life Insurance As Interstate Commerce

T has been estimated that the life insurance companies of America have paid in the last forty years to the various states TAXES TO THE AMOUNT OF $100,000,000 and that at the present time the annual charge for the privilege of engaging in this great beneficent enterprise amounts 37, 22, 7 w, $2500 to $9,000,000. Such a tax would be onerous and oppressive if these institutions were merely money making enterprises, but as a distinguished senator from Massachusetts, Charles Sumner, once pointed out upon the floor of congress, INSURANCE IS NOT "A MONEY MAKING BUT A MONEY SAVING BUSINESS," and these enormous license taxes are, therefore, direct taxes upon thrift.

THE EVIL IS RECOGNIZED, AND THE REAL QUESTION IS, TO WHAT EXTENT, IF ANY, CAN THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT SUB-STITUTE ITS REGULATION FOR THAT OF THE SEVERAL STATES?

Primarily and chiefly the question is one of constitutional power. No clause of the constitution has had such a continuous evolution as the commerce clause of the constitution. This was inevitable. The facility for intercommunication between the states created CONDI-TIONS OF WHICH THE FATHERS OF THE REPUBLIC NEVER DREAMED and has caused a corresponding expansion of the commercial power of the federal government to adapt it to the needs of the American people.

Thus it has been held that the mere transmission of a message over telegraph wires is commerce and that the passage of a citizen over an interstate bridge is commerce equally with the shipment of wheat or cotton to Liverpool.

The question at once suggests itself that if the mere transmission of a telegraph message from state to state is interstate commerce why the vast system of intercommunication between the citizens of the various states to which any one great insurance company gives rise should not EQUALLY be such commercial intercourse.

It must be admitted that the supreme court, in decisions from Paul and Virginia, decided in 1868, to Nutting versus the commonwealth, decided in 1901, has persistently held that such form of commercial intercourse IS NOT INTERSTATE COMMERCE within the meaning of the constitution and that it is therefore subject to the arbitrary and despotic power of every state. The force of these cases it is idle to gainsay.

IF THE COURT, HAVING DUE REGARD TO THE ENORMOUS GROWTH OF INSURANCE AND THE FACT THAT IT UNQUESTION-ARLY IS A MOST IMPORTANT PART OF THE COMMERCIAL INTER-COURSE OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, SHALL SEE FIT HERE AFTER TO MODIFY OR ABROGATE THE DOCTRINE OF THE INSUR-ANCE CASES SUCH ACTION WILL NOT BE WITHOUT PRECEDENT. FOR THIS GREATEST TRIBUNAL IN THE WORLD HAS NEVER HESITATED TO ADMIT ITS OCCASIONAL ERRORS OF JUDGMENT IN SUBSEQUENT DECISIONS.

The Menace of the Low Birth Rate In America from Myrtle point on county road.

By Bishop WILLIAM C. DOANE of Albany

UESTIONS like the tariff and the currency are of LITER ALLY NO CONSEQUENCE whatsoever compared with the vital question of having the unit of our social life, the home, preserved. It is impossible to overstate the importance of the cause. If the average husband and wife fulfill their duties toward one another AND TOWARD THEIR CHILDREN as Christianity teaches them, then we may rest absolutely assured that the other problems WILL SOLVE THEMSELVES. But if we have solved every other problem in the wisest possible way it shall profit us nothing if we have lost our own national soul, and we will have lost it if we do not have the question of the relations of the family put upon the proper basis.

Among the most unpleasant and dangerous features of our American life are THE DIMINISHING BIRTH RATE and the loosening of the marital tie among the old native American families

IT GOES WITHOUT SAYING THAT FOR THE RACE AS INDI-VIDUALS NO ARTISTIC OR SCIENTIFIC DEVELOPMENT WILL COUNT IF THE RACE COMMITS SUICIDE.
