Men Have Wrong Ideas About Their Wives

By Professor SIMON NELSON PATTEN of the University of Pennsylvania

HERE is something wrong in the concept of the men of the present day with regard to their wives. THROUGH ALL CLASSES OF SOCIETY EXTENDS THE IDEA THAT THE WOMAN IS A DOLL. Everything tends to relieve her of her share of the work and to make her one of the leisure class. Formerly this leisure class of women included only the aristocracy.

Now those of the capitalistic class who were once large producers have become nonproducers and are imitating the ideas which were once held only by the aristocracy. The wife of the man who belonged to the money class was hard headed and saving, and she helped her husband build up his fortune.

THE ACQUISITION OF THE IDEALS ONCE HELD BY THE ARIS-TOCRACY HAS REACHED EVEN TO THE WORKING CLASSES, SO The ligan ent that binds our wounds THAT A MAN EARNING ONLY $10 A WEEK WILL OBJECT TO HIS WIFE DOING HER SHARE ON THE GROUND THAT HER DOING SO WOULD GIVE THE IMPRESSION THAT HE WAS NOT ABLE TO SUPPORT HER. IT IS THE SPREAD OF SUCH IDEAS WHICH HAS SHUT OUT A LARGE CLASS FROM PRODUCTION.

Everywhere we see the tendency for women to go into this leisure class. The wives of men of moderate means devote their time to dress, to travel, to attending the meetings of women's clubs, in going to balls, dinner parties, theaters and bridge whist parties.

THAT MEANS A FALLING OFF OF THE POPULA-TION. IT CANNOT HAVE ANY OTHER EFFECT. The demand for exhibit space necessitated ty-five (3b), Section thirty-six (3b), In Town woman who has no work has no children, because she does not wish the utilizing of this tract for buildings. ship cleven (1) south Range four (4) East. On the other hand, the been profusely scattered about the clusive, the north half and southwest quarter woman who toils does so for the purpose of increasing the family inbeautiful pains which will be in full (29) and thirty (30), in township twelve (12) come so that she may help build up the home. ### "Owed" to Spring

In the early days of April, Days of sunshine wet with rain, Mother rallies all her forces, Opens up the spring campaign. First we carry out the sofa,

Bank it round with every chair, Bedstead, bureau, mattress, table, Till the house looks gannt and bare. Still we show no weak relenting,

For the carpets still on floors, And all down things must come upward [ And be carried out of doors. When the rooms are bare and empty.

'Tis the point where mother looms Large upon our near horizon, Armed with rags and mops and brooms.

Also pails of soapy water, And perhaps some air-slacked lime Go to swell enthusiasm In the glad housecleaning time.

Oh, the joy of pasting paper On the ceilings and the walls! Oh, the sweet smell of the varnish On the woodwork in the halls!

Oh, how nice to sort the cupboard, Where we keep our cures for ills, See the lotions, powders, potions, Liniments and salves and pills.

Now we eat our dinner standing All around the kitchen range If we get too tired on one foot Then we "make a little change."

With our lumbar muscles aching, And the biceps like to crack, With what joyous looks and actions We begin to put things back.

Oh, the gay and glad housecleaning, All its joys I may not speak; I must save my breath and muscle-We expect to clean next week.

Profitable Employment

Spare the Birds.

Why kill the birds the pretty birds That sing about your door Who turn the mind in mem'ry sweet To happy days of yore.

Their little lives are dear to them As ours to you and me As merrily they build their nests And fly from tree to tree

On summer time how would it seem Without the birds so gay Flitting by and singing sweet

Their merry little lay. The flowers too would lonesome seem The trees loose half their charm Without the tiny little birds

That never did us harm. The farmer, too, depends on them, The insects to destroy.

Should slugs and worms eat up his crop 'T'would bring his heart no joy. You surely would not wear a bird While dressing with much care

Young ladies, sweet and fair Don't rob the nests, the tiny nests Constructed with such care, Unless you are an ologist

If doing so you take a fife

Collecting for a fair. And then you must with caution move For don't you plainly see If all the eggs you should collect

No birdies there would be. Oh, spare the birds, the pretty birds That flit about the door,

For were they gone, how sad would To hear their song no more
