

ROMANCE OF STAR CHARACTERS IN LAND FRAUD CASES

Horace G. McKinley Divorces His Wife to Wed the Petite and Dashing Marie Ware.

Eugene, Ore. May 8.—H. G. McKinley and Marie L. Ware were married at the Saratoga Hotel, Chicago, May 3. They will return to Oregon June 1.

Miss Marie L. Ware, who yesterday became the wife of Horace G. McKinley, is the daughter of the late Joel Ware, of Eugene. She was born in Eugene about 28 years ago and, upon the death of her father, who was a well-known Oregon pioneer, about three years ago, succeeded him as United States Commissioner at Eugene. She has been a prominent figure in the Oregon land-fraud cases, but was acquitted in the Federal Court at the time of the famous trial of the conspirators last fall. She is petite, graceful and of rather striking appearance.

AUTOMOBILE LAW EFFECTIVE MAY 18

For the benefit of those who have asked information concerning the state law regulating the speed of automobiles the following synopsis is given:

Owners of motor vehicles, motor cycles and automobiles must file with the secretary of state their name and address, with description of the machine, which shall entitle them to a certificate for which a fee of $3 must be paid. The number of certificates must be displayed on the rear of the vehicle. Non-resident owners who have complied with laws of other commonwealths do not have to secure this license. Each vehicle shall be provided with light, muffler on gasoline engines and efficient brakes. Speed in thickly settled or business portions of towns or cities must not exceed eight miles an hour, or one mile in 15 minutes when passing over a crossing used at the time by another person. When approaching a team, the auto vehicle must observe usual road laws, check speed if horses are frightened and stop if beckoned to until horses are under control. When arrested, an auto driver must have his bail fixed immediately at $50, which will be demanded by a magistrate if near, and by the arresting officer if no magistrate is near, and hearing of the case must be postponed not less than 24 hours distant and more than five days if requested by the defendant after giving bail. Penalties are fine not exceeding $25 for first offense, not exceeding $50 for the second and not exceeding $100 for succeeding violations.

AUTO RUNS AMUCK IN PORTLAND

Portland, May 9.—A large touring automobile just purchased by W. B. Thomas, caused much excitement in the streets here today, and finally destroyed itself. A few hours after Thomas brought the car it suddenly jumped away from the roadway in front of his home, on the eastern promenade, and with no one in it, whizzed at top speed for a mile along the promenade, running over and slightly injuring one man, caused two runaways, scattering people right and left. Finally the machine swerved to the left and out of the street and plunged over a 40-foot embankment to the railway tracks, from which it was brought up, a total wreck.

NAN PATTERSON WOULD BEGIN LIFE ANEW

New York, May 8.—A lawyer was introduced to Nan Patterson in the tombs today by her lawyer, Daniel O'Reilly. "Miss Nan Patterson," said the caller, "I have a client who stands ready to deposit $10,000 in cash as a guarantee to fulfill a 30-week contract to put you into vaunderlife in a new sketch. He will hand you $1,000 advance and start you on a salary of $1,500 a week in three weeks. I'll sign the papers now—this minute."

The girl clutched at the bars of the prison door and held on tight, as if she was afraid of falling. "No! It's hard to believe you," said she. "You sort of stunned me at first. I am through with the stage. I've seen enough of it. A friend sent his card today. On it was written: 'I know you when you were a baby, and I wish to see you again.'"

DEATH DEALING KANSAS TORNADO

Marquette, Kan., May 9.—Twenty-nine persons are known to have been killed and over 35 were injured in a tornado, the most disastrous in the history of Central Kansas, which swept over this portion of the state at midnight. One large section of Marquette, where the principal loss of life occurred, was entirely wiped out. Reports from the surrounding country show that the destruction to life especially, was widespread, and the list of dead and injured is growing constantly. A storehouse has been converted into a temporary morgue, and at 9:30, 24 dead bodies had been brought in. Following the storm the utmost confusion prevailed, and it will be some time before the actual extent of the storm is known.

Funeral Headed BY BRASS BAND

Portland, May 8.—To music furnished by a brass band of 11 pieces, funeral services were held yesterday afternoon over the remains of Frank Guglielmo, who was hanged at Sal M Friday for the murder of his sweetheart. The march, participated in by about 30 people, was conducted from the undertaking parlors at Seventh and Pine streets to St. Michael's Church, Fourth and Mill streets, where services were conducted by Rev. Father Alexander Costelli. The sermon was preached in Italian, and then in English. The remains were laid to rest in Mount Calvary cemetery, where a little disturbance was caused over a misunderstanding with the grave diggers. The body was laid beside Guglielmo's parents. Through the lack of material the cement vault remained uncovered until today, when it was sealed.

FEDERAL JUDGE BELLINGER IS CRITICALLY ILL AT PORTLAND

Grave Fears for the Worst are Entertained by His Physicians and Friends—Effect on Land Fraud Cases.

Portland, May 10.—Charles B. Bellinger, Judge of the United States Court, is critically ill at his home on the East Side, and the chances for his recovery are so slight that hope has practically been abandoned and his family and friends are waiting for the end.

The mental strain caused by the responsibilities incident to the land-fraud investigations and trials which have been proceeding under his jurisdiction for the past several months have sapped the strength of the aging jurist and weakened him until, when he was attacked by the grip upon the day of his decision in the case of the Mitchell abatement plea, he was unable to rally completely, and is now on the verge of the grave, suffering from a relapse.

FAIR ENTRANCE COMPLETED LATE EXPOSITION NOTES

Portland, May 10.—The ornamental main entrance to the Lewis and Clark Exposition has been completed, and in a short time the old temporary gates will be torn away and the gatekeepers will be doing business at the bright new turnstiles.

TO RACE ACROSS THE U. S. TO FAIR

Portland, May 10.—The Wisconsin Senate Tuesday passed a bill appropriating $12,000 for Portland, for the Lewis and Clark Fair opens Thursday, June 1.

CLEWS TO THE MURDER AT GLENDALE

A Glendale correspondent has this to say regarding the arrest of one Burns or Barnes on the charge of the foul murder near Glendale recently. J. C. Barnes was arrested seven miles north of this place Sunday by Sheriff McClallen, of Roseburg, upon a warrant from Justice Montgomery's court, charged with the murder of the unknown man whose body, badly burned, was found a mile and a half north of here last Monday.

A most searching investigation has been going on ever since the discovery of the body, to ascertain a motive for burning the body and to discover its identity. Almost the only clue upon which to work was an old hat found near the body. After being viewed by hundreds of people the hat was finally identified as that belonging to William Graham, a prospector, living about seven miles from here on Dad's Creek, tributary of Cow Creek.

FAIR ENTRANCE COMPLETED LATE EXPOSITION NOTES

Portland, May 11.—Late last evening Judge Bellinger's condition was reported as slightly improved. His condition is very serious and his recovery is doubtful. Dr. Parker announced last evening that the patient was resting easier, and that his condition was generally better, but that he is a very sick man. He is suffering from septicemia caused by a gripper.

VIOLATED LOCAL OPTION LAW

Portland, May 9.—Herman Schneider, convicted of selling liquor in Montavilla precinct, in which prohibition is now in effect under the provisions of the local option law, was this morning fined $172.50. Judge Sears overruled the motion for a new trial and then imposed the penalty, stating that the local option law provided that for the first offense of this kind a fine should be imposed and that for the second offense both fine and imprisonment must be the penalty.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT ON SCENE OF GREAT STRIKE

Governor and Chicago's Mayor Welcome Him. Strike Condition Quiet—President Cheered Everywhere.

Chicago, May 10.—The President arrived at noon. About 150 patrolmen kept the crowds back. Chief O'Neil led the procession in a carriage, followed by 50 mounted police. Then came an escort of cavalry, surrounding the carriage in which were the President, Governor Deneen and Mayor Dunne. The President was repeatedly cheered along the route.

After shaking hands with the reception committee the President walked to the engine and shook hands with the engineer and fireman, and thanked the crew for the safe trip. About 15,000 people followed the President's carriage, all trying to catch a glimpse of the executive. The procession halted 15 minutes at the Rush street bridge, to await the passage of a lake steamer. This gave the crowd a good chance to look at the President, who did seem annoyed by the delay. A few minutes after he lunched with the Merchants Club.

MINERAL EXHIBITS FROM BOHEMIA At a special meeting of the building committee of the Lewis and Clark Commission, it was decided to recommend to the commission meeting Saturday an addition to the Mining building, 60x35 feet. This is rendered necessary to accommodate the immense mining exhibit to be made by Oregon. The addition will be entirely occupied by products and samples of ore from the mining regions of the state. The Bohemia mining district is one of those which responded emphatically to the call for exhibits, and it will have a very valuable collection on hand, with a man to have special charge of this display. In addition there are now four carloads of exhibits at the dock at Portland and another is going from Southern Oregon. The Eastern Oregon mining district also is well represented. Barn Burned Near Millwood. The large barn of A. H. Churchill near Millwood was destroyed by fire Saturday with most of its contents. The origin of the fire is not known, but about one-half of the loss is covered by insurance. Mr. Churchill will have to hustle up another barn in which to store his season's hay and grain crops. Although the exact number of colonists who have taken advantage of the low rates West arriving in Oregon is not known, the O. R. & N. has brought not less than 11,000, and 3000 more are expected before May 15, when the rate ends. This is the work of only one of the lines ending in Portland.

KILLED COUGAR WITH 22 RIFLE Eugene, May 9.—The report comes that Charles Hayden, residing on the Mohawk, shot and killed a cougar six feet long with a 22-calibre rifle Saturday. The animal was 24 feet away when the shot was fired. Few men would care to tackle a cougar with anything smaller than a 44 calibre. The cougar was up a tree and 17 shots were necessary to bring it down. Eight of the shots were pumped into the animal's head.
