Springtime Reflections.

'Tis springtime and the balmy breeze
Has kissed to life the forest leaves
And from their low and grassy bed,
The flowers their sweetest fragrance shed.

And now my wand'ring fancies roam
Mid early scenes of childhood's home—
But gone are those with whom we play'd
And in the grave are lowly laid.
(Methinks I hear the voice that said
"Our Father," o'er the trundle bed,
Can see the form that bow'd in prayer,
To ask that Father's watchful care.")
All nature seems as lovely here—
The wild bird's notes as loud and clear,
The whisp'ring breezes when they meet
Seem just as low and soft and sweet
As when my heart beat light and free—
In childhood's innocence and glee.
As golden too the sun's soft sheen
Reflected on the murmuring stream,
But not as bright's my girlhood's dream,
Ah! those were bright and joyous hours
Ere I had known of sorrow's pow'rs,
Or felt the withering breath
Of envy, hatred or of death
And I have learn'd like flowers decay
Our fondest hopes all frail as they
May wither and may pass away.
Mrs. SUSAN ALLEN,
Yoncalla, Ore., May 6, 1905.

The Dying Drummer's Sweethearts

A gay and handsome traveling man
Lay on a bed of pain;
All hope was past, his life ebb'd fast;
He ne'er would rise again.
"Have you no sweetheart, fair and true?"
They whispered o'er his bed,
"Whom you would tell a last farewell?"
The young man softly said:
"There's Leona back in Ellensburg, and Bess in North Yamhill.
There's Millie down in Albany,
and Kate in Jacksonville.
There's darling Jess in good old Burns,
and Mary in John Day,
And write to Sue in Roseburg too,
or Hades will be pay."
The watchers started in surprise,
and then they said once more,
"And tell us, pray, without delay,
the girl whom you adore."
The girl whom you have sworn to love,
and bring both wealth and fame—
Your promised wife, and hope, and life,
quick! let's know her name."
"In Baker City Ethel lives, Go; phone
her quick he cried.
And Carrie calls from Klamath Falls,
and Anna from old Seaside.
There's Cora down in Tillamook, and Helen in Westfall."
The young man sigh'd, "It's time I died, I've sworn to love them all."
—Lit. eval.

A New Religious Sect.

The Church of Allegheny, Va., sends out ministers called "Pilgrims" to preach the Bible as interpreted by them and Pastor Russell. Mr. Russell has published several volumes entitled "Millennial Dawn." We have been informed that the churches won't allow any of those Pilgrims to preach in their houses in Roseburg. On Friday, May 12th, Mr. Bundy, a Pilgrim, preached in a parlor of the Broom Factory in Kinney Addition.
They profess to believe in the Bible and in the fall of Adam, and in Christ as Adam's ransom. They believe that in Adam all die, and ultimately through Christ shall live and be judged, and tried by the Elect Church in the Millennium of a thousand years and any, after full knowledge and opportunity are incorrigible, shall die again for their own disobedience, which is the second death.
They repudiate the Orthodox doctrine of an eternal Hell. Pastor Russell says the Millennium will be ushered in sometime in 1914.
They believe in election and free grace by rightly dividing the word of truth.
They believe that Christ's Kingdom is in the future on this Earth to be re-peopled by the past dead.
They believe that death is the penalty of Adam's sin, and death is a state of total unconsciousness until the resurrection.
They admit that spiritualism is a reality but emanates from demons.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A. writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Hubbard, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

A Good Suggestion

Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.
