MONDAY, JUNE 5, 1905.

COMING EVENTS.

- Roseburg and Cottage Grove day at Lewis and Clark Fair, Monday, June 12. National Good Roads Convention, Portland, June 21-24.

A little warm sunshine would be acceptable to most farmers. Haying has commenced in some parts of the valley, on the hilly farms.

Civilized humanity is coming rapidly to the conclusion that Gen. Sherman understated the case.

Portland is full of people, to attend the fair, and all Oregon will be full from now on. Treat the visitors well.

A Soap Creek boy named Wilson has just sold the fleece from five sheep for $18.30, an average of $3.64 per head. How's that for business.

An echo of the Spanish-American war comes in the announcement that the cruiser Reina Mercedes has just graduated from Uncle Sam's repair shop.

Minister Bowen will probably be separated from the diplomatic service because of his lack of discretion. That is, perhaps, the most valuable attribute of the diplomat.

It is stated that the Japanese have succeeded in raising the Russian battleship Pallada at Port Arthur, and will make serviceable at least five other of the sunken vessels.

With the Daily Astorian, the Daily Capital Journal, the Daily Salem Statesman, the Daily Eugene Register, the Plaindealer and a number of Oregon weeklies determined to see fair play in the land fraud trials, the star actors in Hitchcock's great political drama will no longer be able to hoodwink the people through their energetic press agent, Mr. Francis J. Heney.

There is something especially gratifying to every Missourian in the wonderful growth and development of St. Louis, the chief city of the state. In spite of the general predictions that the city would suffer from a period of depression and business stagnation after the close of the World's Fair, it has continued to grow and seems now to have reached the highest point in its development during the past ten years.

If the editors of the country would use their heads a little more, much of the nonsense regarding the Senate investigation of railway rate legislation which is now printed would be killed.

The nonpartisan dodge is certainly being worked to a frazzle in the State, and the funny part of it is that the most bitter partisans have the gall to call on the Republicans to support their candidates on the ground of "nonpartisanship."

Thousands of foreign paupers are flocking to this country and there seems to be no way of shutting out this undesirable class of immigrants.

The government is bound to convict those accused of land frauds in this state. At least Hitchcock and his satellites are moving everything to this end.

President Roosevelt is not the only apostle of the strenuous life. Perhaps it is that the spirit is contagious back in Washington, perhaps it was the spirit of the day, but at all events no member of the Congressional party from Vice-President Fairbanks and Speaker Cannon down to the clerks and stenographers with them had more than time to breath Thursday from early morning until midnight handed them the mantle of sleep.

Odd Fellows are arranging to attend the session of the grand lodge of the order which is to meet in Portland June 6 to 8, and Odd Fellows day at the fair on June 9.

There is something especially gratifying to every Missourian in the wonderful growth and development of St. Louis, the chief city of the state.

"Jumbo" Burrows in Trouble.

Portland, June 4.—Within a few minutes after they were notified that he was wanted on a serious charge, Detectives Hartman and Vaughn arrested William Burrows who is wanted at Vale, Oregon. The arrest was made at Fifth and Washington streets at 10 o'clock this morning.

Additional Local

Attorney R. W. Marsters, left this morning for Youcailla on legal business. Conductor A. E. Everton was a passenger agent on this morning's local from Grants Pass to Portland.

MEDFORD'S EXHIBIT BUILDING.

The formal opening of Medford's depot exhibit took place recently in conjunction with the farmers' institute. The interior of the building was literally a mass of roses, contributed by the ladies of Medford.

Musings

Typewriters are to be less expensive—the machines, not the operators. The reason Jeffries quit the ring is because he has a wife who wears the gloves.

Lewis and Clark Fair News.

The Lewis & Clark Exposition is now wide open. "Hit the Trail!" Every day is a special day at the Lewis & Clark Exposition. Important events take place daily.

Watch Free for Boys.

Here is a chance for hustling boys to earn a good watch with little effort. Any boy sending the Plaindealer five new yearly cash subscribers, or five yearly renewals, or five yearly remittances made up from both, will be given a fine nickel Ingersoll watch free, guaranteed for one year.

If About to Make Up Your Mind

To get a ring, a pin or a brooch, the prices we sell fine and beautiful jewelry for ought to induce you to come here for it.

Riverside Road Opened

The new road recently authorized by the county court connecting river-side addition with the main Roseburg, Winchester wagon road at the line of Chestnut street has been fenced and opened up to the public after an effort on the part of the Riverside people, reaching back for a period of three years.

Darby, McGregor Nuptials.

Mr. B. L. Darby and Miss Cathryn McGregor were quietly married at the Hotel Clark, Glendale, Ore., June 1st, 1905. Mr. Darby is the proprietor of the Glendale Drug Store, and in the last few years has made his mark as a business man of rare ability and success in that thriving town.

ROSEBURG SHOULD HAVE ONE.

Competitive Poems

The following are the poems submitted by Roseburg writers in the contest for the $100 prize offered by the management of the Lewis and Clark fair with "The Trail" as a subject.

The Lewis and Clark Trail

The following poem is by Aldon Harnesse. A copy of his poems entitled "Lewis and Clark: A Sonnet Book," which was published in a small volume by the Plaindealer Job office a few months ago, will be mailed to any one sending 10 cents.

"Hit the Trail"

If you feel the weight of care, Hit the Trail; If you want to see the fair, Hit the Trail; If you want your money's worth in the biggest show on earth, Hit the Trail.

"The Trail"

A hundred years have come and gone, We'll strike "The Trail," come on, Since Monticello Jefferson.

A FOOLISH PLAN

'Tis a joy to eat—I welcome my dinner hour: Because I rout indigestion with August Flower Constipation is the result of indigestion, biliousness, flatulency, loss of appetite, self-poisoning, anemia, emaciation, uric acid, neuralgia in various parts of the system, catarrhal inflammation of the intestinal canal and numerous other ailments that rob life of its pleasures if they do not finally rob you of life itself.

STAMMERING CURED

Guarantee to cure any case of stammering or stuttering. Cures are permanent and terms reasonable. Pupils on leaving school talk perfectly natural as though they had never stammered.

Not Misinformed In order to defend my truthfulness in regard to my statement in the Plaindealer relative to the churches of Roseburg refusing to allow the pilgrims of Alleghans, Pa., to preach in their places of worship I will say that they had that right. I do not know that the application was made to all churches, but about two years ago a lady of their own faith made applications to those having the Christian church in charge, but was refused, for what reason I do not know neither do I care. If the Rev. gentlemen who took exception to my statement has a personal interest in the matter he can demonstrate his liberality next year as one of the pilgrims will be here. L. C. HULL.
