CURRIER CANDY STORE

Miss Ora Note returned home from Portland this morning after a week's visit at the fair.

EXTRA! EXTRA!

Wonderful Sale on at Stanley's. Great Crowds Attend This Forced Out Sale

A monstrous sale of merchandise is taking place in Roseburg at the store of Stanley's. Great crowds have been in attendance for the past eight days. Have you been one of the numbers? Are you aware that this is the time to stock up for months to come.

The entire stock of clothing, hats, shoes and furnishings for men, women and children must be closed out by the first day of July. Assortment is still complete. Look for the signs. First door south of the post-office.

Brakeman L. L. Riley, wife and family are visiting in Eugene.
Conductor G. E. Biew, who has been laying off has returned to work.

Yardman J. G. McNulty and Brakeman A. L. Cole are laying off.
F. H. Churchill returned home from a visit to Portland this morning.

F. J. Adams, a brakeman, is the last employee to be enrolled out of this station.
Miss Newland, a Cottage Grove, school teacher, is spending a few days in Roseburg.

Conductor A. G. Hamblin has returned to work after several weeks absence, prospecting.
Don't forget Thursday night, Grand Military Ball, Guard Mount and Inspection at the new Armory by Company D., O. N. G.

S. Churchill has sold the Central Hotel business to C. R. Harper and Chas. Farnature, two gentlemen who recently arrived here from the east.

State Game Warden J. W. Baker spent Sunday in Roseburg on official business and went to Gold Hill today on business connected with his office.
J. W. Henderson, of near Melrose, brought some fine specimens of oats, club wheat and rye grass to the Plaindealer office to be sent to the Douglas county exhibit this morning.

John Alexander, of Glendale, was in this city on business last week. Mr. Alexander states that there will be a glorious time at Glendale on the 4th of July and those who miss the celebration will always regret it.

W. C. Winston has completed his cherry picking and shipping from 400 trees. He shipped 20,000 pounds of fine cherries this season from which he realized $800 or about $200 per acre for his crop.

E. L. Parrott shipped two carloads of fine beef cattle to Portland Sunday. Three car loads of cattle were shipped to Montague Saturday by E. R. Hagan and A. F. Hunt will ship three car loads of cattle to Portland Tuesday.

The management of the Willamette Valley Chautauque Association has the thanks of the Plaindealer for complimentary season tickets. The annual assembly will be held at Gladstone Park near Oregon City as usual July 11 to 23 inclusive and many notable people are down on the program this season.

Humor in court and in a case where murder was attempted! Branton's daughter, testifying for her father, being asked if Fletcher, the man shot, had threatened suicide, replied, "Yes; he told me that he was soon going to marry." "Someone else got it in her mind that marriage and suicide were identical."—Guard.

Dr. A. W. Shearer, of Glendale who was so unfortunate as to be injured in the freight wreck in Cow Creek Canyon while enroute to this city to attend the Elks' building dedication, June 24th was in this city Saturday greeting friends. Mr. Sonneman who was also injured at the same time is reported to be able to attend to his usual duties.

Ira Cole, an S. P. bridge carpenter, is in this city today. He informs us that two weeks ago, while working near Drain, a timber upon which he was working, slipped and struck his throat and jaw in such a way that his tongue was badly lacerated by its teeth. He was compelled to go to the Portland hospital where eight stitches were taken in his tongue by the physician.

Several changes in the passenger service are scheduled. Conductor Lee Hendricks will replace Chan Cosner on the Eugene local, Mr. Cosner returning to his run on Nos. 11 and 12 out of this city to Portland. Sam Veatch will take a run on train 15 and 16 between this city and Portland and Brakeman A. J. Follett will change from his run south on 11 and 12 to 15 and 16, north.

Mr. Ed Marsters has the thanks of the Plaindealer for a beautiful large bouquet of feathery poppies and sweet peas. The poppies were very large and beautiful and almost as varied in color as the rainbow as were also the sweet peas. Roseburg is becoming celebrated for all kinds of flowers grow to perfection here.

John A. Eggers sends the Plaindealer two marked copies of the Southern Idaho Review, recently established at Heyburn, Idaho, where a great irrigation project recently undertaken by the government is under way. The prospects for the early development of that country seem bright and Mr. Eggers is in on the ground floor with a good claim staked out.

John Baker and wife who arrived at Dillard recently to spend a few weeks with Mrs. Baker's relatives before proceeding on their way with team and wagon to Klamath county to reside, met with a great misfortune and heavy loss at Dillard one night last week. The team which was valued at $250 was turned out in a pasture over night and in some way got into the railroad right-of-way inclosure and the next morning one horse was found with its head cut off by a passing train and the other was disemboweled and frightfully mangled. Mr. and Mrs. Baker, will of necessity, take up temporary residence at least, at Dillard.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia
Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who has suffered quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion, why not take these tablets, get well, and stay well? For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

JOSEPHSON'S THE BIG STORE ESTABLISHED 1877 MAIL ORDERS WILL RECEIVE CAREFUL ATTENTION

Local and Personal.

Read Josephson's big new ad. Osteopathy when understood is highly appreciated. Mrs. F. W. Benson is visiting relatives in Portland. O. C. Barker spent a few days of last week in Portland. Leave orders at the Rochdale grocery store for your wood. There is talk of erecting a three-story hotel building at Myrtle Creek. C. J. Hoover, of Medford is in this city visiting with relatives and friends. Years will pass before the highways are as easy to travel as the primrose path. Best grade of family flour, Bashford's "Pride of Douglas" at only $1.15 per sack, all grocers. The "Drug habit" is a menace to health and happiness. Can you say this of Osteopathy? J. E. Sawyer, lawyer and notary public. Office up stairs in Douglas County Bank Building. Read advertisement of the Forestry Inn in this paper and when you attend the fair in Portland patronize this popular hostelry. Lessons given in all kinds of fancy work, Handkerchiefs, Gittertyl, Eyes embroidery and all the new fads. At Grave's Art Emporium. The "Pride of Douglas" has reference to Bashford's best grade of flour which can be purchased at all of the grocery stores at $1.15 per sack. Gus Hall says the deer in his neighborhood are getting to be a nuisance as they visit his garden at night and help themselves.—Drain Nonpareil. Bread, pies and cakes like mother used to bake when you use Bashford's "Pride of Douglas" flour. Accept no other brand. Only $1.15 per sack. We have for sale at this place lumber in the ruff $9 per thousand, Fruit boxes cheaper than formerly, products of the Rider Bros mill. W. E. Wells, Ollala, Oregon. The laxative effect of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is so agreeable and so natural that you do not realize it is the effect of a medicine. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co. Miss Mary E. Lovick, of Tucson, Arizona, arrived in Roseburg Saturday to give a brief visit with the family of N. T. Jewett. From this place she will attend the Portland Exposition and then go to New York City to visit with her parents. J. T. Bryan, the busy watchmaker, has a window display of new jewelry which is fairly dazzling. Those beautiful absolu watch charms, pins, fobs, and other articles of jewelry at once appeal to the observer when the low price is made known. On Friday Mrs. Ed. Lenox presented the Plaindealer with a handsome bouquet of sweet peas, there being twenty-eight distinct varieties or colors. The blossoms were unusually large, highly colored and fragrant and were plucked from vines nearly six feet high. A Polk county farmer gets rid of yellow jackets thus: He cuts a hole in a piece of meat, fills it with Paris green and then hangs the meat on a tree out of the reach of dogs and cats. The yellow jackets feed on the meat, and are put out of business in short order. J. A. Willis is busy in the strawberry again, his second crop for the season is being picked. One box which he brought to this office had the quality all right and a full quart but there were only 25 berries in the box, because they were big ones.—Myrtle Creek Mail.
