The Government's Expenses Should Be Reduced

By United States Senator J. A. HEMENWAY

F the departments of the government had confined themselves will, on and after the its day of August, A. D. to the use of money appropriated by congress for the current fiscal year there would now be no deficiency. It is a sale, and balance at time of confirmation of very easy matter to prove that congress is not to blame. The sale, all the right, title and interest of the said w. w. walker, in and to the following detotal amount carried by the appropriation bills for the present | scribed real | reserving to with fiscal year 18 LESS THAN THE TOTAL RECEIPTS of the the north-east quarter of the north-west quarter of Douglas County, State of Oregon, his final government for the same period. If the departments had not spent more than congress intended they should spend we would be con- Meridian, in Douglas County, Oregon, containfronted by a balance on the other side of the ledger.

There are three sources of the deficiency. In constructing naval vessels more rapidly than anticipated, involving unexpected purchases of armor plate, a deficiency of something like $14,000,000 has been created. In rush work on coast defenses about $6,000,000 more has been anticipated. The balance of $16,000,000 of the present deficiency is the result of different departments of the government expending more money than was appropriated.

This practice of anticipating revenues has become so common that derks of their own motion HAVE CREATED DEFICIENCIES Oregon. All fenced, house, large barn tris of the above named exists. All person without consulting the head of a department. In one of the appropriate water supply, will cut about having claims against the said estate will propriet tons wild have. Address, with sont the said estate will propriet tons. priation acts of the recent congress there was inserted, on my motion, references, provision making it a criminal offense, punishable by fines, and in the certain cases by imprisonment, if deficiencies hereafter are created without direct and written authority of the heads of the departments. I am told that this law already is working well and that it will save the government a good deal this year.

There are many things which the government could properly do that it is not in a position FINANCIALLY to do. Too many of our worthy department officials and clerks have been assuming to DECIDE what the government can properly do without leaving it to date of this notice.

The remedy for our financial fix is in reducing expenditures. In my judgment a change of the tariff would operate to reduce, rather than increase, revenues. The government is now engaged in many matters that are proper enough, but that COULD BE DISPENSED

I expect that I will bring criticism on my head for saving so, but I believe that the manner in which we are constructing public build ings in small towns over the country has grown to be a colossal abuse. The minute one of them is erected it fastens on the government a maintenance charge of $3,000 a year, while in almost any town of the size I mention commodious and comfortable postoffice quarters, with light, fuel and boxes furnished, can be secured for $500 a year. There you have AN ANNUAL WASTE OF $2,500, to say nothing of the cost of constructing the building. No more such extrava | The House Furnishers. gance should be allowed.

We are paving every year $250,000 to agents for reporting the condition of the cotton crop. It is astonishing how many scientific projects the government has on hand which seem to have no PRAC-TICAL value and which could be discontinued without 99 per cent TIMBER CLAIMS AND HOMESTEADS LOCATED of the people knowing anything about it, but which fasten a cost on the treasury running into millions of dollars. The states no longer of the most beautiful valleys on the maintain their own quarantine service, but all that is saddled ON coast, write or phone to THE GOVERNMENT. The Growth of the Idea Of Municipal Ownership

By Rev. Dr. LYMAN ABBOTT of Brooklyn

AM personally heartily in favor of the municipal ownership of all forms of industry that are NECESSARILY municipal monopolies.

There are three theories of government-first, the Russian, that the people cannot take care of themselves, and the few must look after the many.

Secondarily, there is the police theory. Government should preserve order and keep off foreign aggression, but every man is for himself, and the devil take the hindmost. This is the theory of the We are now working toward the third. The state is an organism with intelligence, sensibility and will, as exhibited in public opinion, spirit and law. It has the right to do for itself anything it can do better than the individual. This is sometimes called socialism, but I have lived too long to mind about mere words. It is not state socialism, for that means the state does everything.

All work according to their ability and receive according to their needs. It matters not whether I preach sermons or shine boots, I RECEIVE ACCORDING TO MY NEEDS.

In my opinion this is a very good system of government, but it is very different from municipal OWNERSHIP.

We have already adopted the third theory of government. Our state policeman does many things. He builds lighthouses, runs a weather bureau and educates our children. In two cities he operates a subway AND IN ALL CITIES he maintains the parks.

The state, in fact, is recognized as an organism to do things FOR ALL. This is far more democratic and implies a greater faith in humanity than individualism, for it means a belief in the faculty to

THE DANGER OF MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP IS FAR LESS THAN THE DANGERS FROM CORRUPT COMBINATIONS OF POLITICAL MACHINES AND FAVORED CORPORATIONS.

If the people can combine for war and education, why can they not do it FOR TRANSPORTATION !

Russia's Influence on Japan By Professor LEO WIENER of Harvard

HE only opinion I can give about the war in the east is that while OUTWARDLY Russia will probably lose and Japan will tremendously win, SPIRITUAL Russia will be the victor. At this very moment, in the hour of her triumph,

Japan is being immensely affected by Russia. Mentally the Japanese cannot begin to compare with the Russians, though, of course, it is to the best advantage of Russia THAT RUS-SIA SHOULD LOSE. As to the influence Russia has over Japan, I have in mind a young Japanese Socialist who has written an article on the tremendous influence that Tolstoi is exerting on the mind of Japan, and who says that Japan is being more influenced now by Tolstoi, Dostoievsky, Herzen and Bakunin than Japan can EVER influence Russia A confirmation of this is found in the fact that one of the Japanese translators of Tolstoi recently sent me an immense bibliography of the forty or fifty separate translations that have been made of Tolstoi into Japanese.

First. Strike the wood sample a boavy blow with a hammer, and note that while the wood may be indented a quarter of an inch, the varoush has not marred or cracked. This proves that Chi-Namel is very elastic Second. Place the wood sample in a tea kettle, and note that boding water does not turn it white. This proves that Chi-namel contains no rosin Third. Apply whiskey This proves that Chi-Namel will stand upon bar tops. Fourth. Allow a can of the varnish to stand open over night, and note that there is no evaporation. This proves that Chi-Namel contains no benzine. Fifth. Spread varnish over flat surface, and brush in every direction, and note "self levelling" effect. This proves that all brush marks disappear, and the result will be pleasing no matter how inexperienced the applier may be.
