THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1905.

Society journalism in New York is making the old reliable yellow brand look a pale gray.

A San Francisco "masher" has been given six months in jail. A hospital would have been the better place.

If Peary does discover the pole, wonder how he will establish the fact to the satisfaction of the scientific world.

A company with $500,000 capital has been formed in Seattle for the purpose of developing Southern Oregon mines.

Harvard astronomers announce that the spots are spreading on the sun. We could dispense with fully half its area just now.

The United States exploded forty-five tons of dynamite at Portsmouth before the peace envoys arrived. That probably will be mild to what will happen after they assemble.

The Russian press declares it impossible to accept Japan's terms. Japan may have to black the other eye and knock out a few more teeth, and incidentally increase the bill.

The new Chinese daily, published in San Francisco, says: "Since Chinamen are not treated as gentlemen by Americans, the Chinese will refuse to associate with them." This is tough, but we will try to stand it.

The Russian has good reason for complaint at the lack of tact shown by the president in allowing the visit of Secretary Taft and Miss Roosevelt to Japan while the United States is the host of the Russian peace plenipotentiaries.

Many exporters would no doubt be willing to turn the whole country over to the Chinese, in order to hold their trade. The people, however, object to having the coast turned into a Chinese pasture to protect the merchant's cow.

Paul Morton is now president of the Equitable Assurance Company with a salary of $80,000 a year. He not only violated the laws while in office, but is now robbing the widows and orphans' fund, because he cannot earn that amount of money.

Attorney General Moody hit the nail on the head recently when he said, "The public is too ready to declare certain transactions illegal, because it happens to be wrong. It does not necessarily follow that the laws have been broken. The statutes do not cover all classes of wrongs."

"Boost Roseburg"

Homer Davenport started out in life drawing pictures on the back of cracker boxes—pictures made him famous. The National Biscuit Co., made a fortune out of Uneda Biscuit. Why? Because they "boosted" it, and kept continually at it. Everyone knows the success of other firms of a national reputation who have massed colossal fortunes by "boosting" things. You can't do any good for a project sitting down and talking about it. "Boost." That's the way. If we had ten thousand more people in Roseburg we would all be better off, would we not? Why! of course we would. Then let's "Boost." Life is all sunshine to the man who "boosts" things along. The best way to "boost" Roseburg is to write your letters on Roseburg Souvenir writing paper. For sale at the Plaindealer Office.

Crack Marksman at Roseburg

Adjutant-General W. E. Finzer, Major Baker, State Inspector of Rifle Practice, Captain Scott, Captain Hamlin, Lieut. Kelts, and twenty men of the Oregon National Guard, are camped on the banks of Deer Creek near the rifle range for the purpose of selecting a champion team of the state riflemen to represent Oregon at the national shoot at Seagirt, New Jersey. The range, three in number, are in excellent condition, and preliminary practice commenced this afternoon.

F. A. Boyce has sold his tailoring establishment to Harry A. Lloyd, of San Francisco, who has been in the employ of Mr. Boyce for the past several months. Mr. Boyce will return east with his wife next week. They will locate at Kalamazoo, Mich., where Mr. Boyce will go into business with his father, who conducts a large wholesale and retail wall-paper, paint and oil establishment.

"I would like to have a hand in hanging Stuyvesant Fish," declared the governor. Speaking of Rockefeller, he said: "He gave lots of money to missionaries. His hands reached out in all directions. They have been in all industries and he is strangling and throttling them one after another. Chariot? Great God! If Rockefeller lived a million years he could not expiate the crimes he has committed in robbing his competitors."

Judge Bennett in his eloquent and forceful argument in behalf of Williamson and his partners Tuesday struck the key note when he said: "District Attorney Heney is indeed seeking the 'big fish' but not the men big in crime. The Judge asked why the millionaires who have been allowed to steal thousands of acres of the Government land, such as Kribbs and others, were allowed to go free, while the men, big only in reputation and standing among their neighbors were chosen for prosecution? He alleges that Congressman Williamson is the big fish the Government is after, and that Biggs and Gesner were entangled in the net because they must be caught to get the others. He charged that the intention of the Government is to throw Biggs back into the stream if it can be done, but a Congressman is to be dragged down to the Prosecuting Attorney might make a name."

It looks like Roseburg had delayed all too long in taking advantage of the opportunity long afforded in securing railroad connections with the rich Coos Bay country and our people are still sitting idly by and watching their more enterprising northern neighbors carry off the plum. At present the North Douglas people in and about Drain have the best of the situation in having their preliminary surveys already made and a crew at hand for a permanent location of the line. Roseburg will find that she has neglected and probably lost a golden opportunity in securing a branch road to Coos Bay.

Citizens of Dillard, Myrtle Creek, Riddle and Canyonville are complaining about the Roseburg dam being an obstruction to the passage of salmon, trout and other fish to the spawning grounds on the headwaters of the South Umpqua, alleging that no fishway is maintained by the owners of the dam at this place as required by the state law. If it is true that the law is not complied with in this matter there is just cause for complaint.

Governor Geo. E. Chamberlain was a guest of the Coos county people this week on his return home from his visit east.

It sounds somewhat strange to read that the Japanese plenipotentiaries are visiting old college chums at Harvard. Many of the foremost statesmen and soldiers in the Japanese empire, however, are graduates of universities in the United States. There have been American spirit and American methods in the battle against the Russians.

One of the leading questions being discussed among the Salem 400 these days is: "What is the proper color of hose to wear with white shoes?" There really should be no difficulty and delay in arriving at a satisfactory conclusion. Why not submit the matter to Editor Hofer, of the Capital Journal.

Weiss Brewery Sold.

Max Weiss, proprietor of the Roseburg Brewing & Ice Company, has sold his entire plant to a party of Portland capitalists for $50,000. The sale was consummated within the past week, and the new owners will take charge September 1. The deal was negotiated by Fred J. Blakely, of the Roseburg, Water Light & Power Company, but beyond that as the medium through which the sale was made, Mr. Blakely claims to be in no wise interested in the transaction, nor will he at the present time give the names of the purchasers. It is also announced that the entire plant will undergo a thorough overhauling and renovating. The manufacturing facilities will be increased by enlarging and remodeling, more ice and beer will be manufactured daily, and an excellent up-to-date cold storage will be installed.

Redmen Organize.

Umpqua Tribe of the Improved order of Redmen, has been installed in this city recently by Deputy Great Sachem and Organizer C. J. Noloop, of Ashland. The following officers were installed at the first regular meeting held in Foresters Hall last Monday night: Frank Kennedy, Past Sachem; Jas. T. Bridges, Sachem; Gilbert Kennedy, Sr., Sagamore; C. H. Harmon, Jr., Sagamore; H. O. Wilkinson, Chief of Records; Ed Daley, Keeper of Wampum; Dr. A. C. Seely, Medicine Man; Geo. Staples, Guard of the Wigwag; J. Fogelsonger, Guard of the Forest; J. Falbe, 1st Sanay; Chas. Matthews, 2nd Sanay; Trustees, A. C. Seely, H. Wright, O. J. Knott.

The new tribe starts with a charter membership of 35 members.

The Trail at the Exposition will hereafter be kept open on Sunday as a result of a decision rendered by Judge Frazier.

THE POWER BEHIND THE THRONE IN JAPAN.
Although not one of the peace plenipotentiaries of his country, it is safe to say that the terms which will be exacted from Russia by Japan will be dictated by Marquis Hirobumi Ito, who is generally conceded to be the greatest man in the mikado's empire. To Ito and Yamagata, intimate friends and fellow members of the Council of Elders, it is due Japan's awakening within a generation to the consciousness of her ability to take her place alongside the great nations of the world. Ito has several times been premier of Japan and could today have any office within the gift of the mikado, who relies almost implicitly upon his judgment.

Montpelier, Vt., Aug. 1.—At her home in Windsor county, this state, Mrs. Esther Sumner Damon the last on the roll of federal pensioners as a widow of the soldier of the Revolution, celebrated her ninety-first birthday today. "Aunt Esther," as she is familiarly known, is the widow of Nosh Damon, whose service as a Revolutionary soldier is shown by the records in the Bureau of Pensions. Damon entered the service as a minute man when about sixteen years of age. He was nearly 22 when his last recorded services was completed. His period of intermittent enlistment covered a period of nearly five years and seven months. The irregular troops of the Continental army were assembled and disbanded as occasion required, which explains his frequent changes of assignment to companies and regiments. He was nearly four score years old when he was married to Esther Sumner, the widow who survives him.

Mrs. Damon has been confined to her bed for nearly a year, and has lost to a great extent the use of her limbs. With the exception of a slight deafness, however, she retains her faculties remarkably. Last April her pension was increased by the government to $24 per month.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a resolution of the stockholders of the Sterling Mining Company adopted by the unanimous vote of all the stock of said Company at a stockholders meeting duly and regularly held authorizing the directors of said Company so to do. The said directors did on the 20th day of June, 1905 duly execute and filed for the purpose of said incorporation engaging in new enterprises and pursuits, the object of the same being as follows, to wit:

To generate and conduct the business of furnishing, supplying and selling light to the cities, towns, villages and the inhabitants thereof, and of the surrounding country in the State of Oregon, and to furnish and sell power for manufacturing purposes and for propelling engines, machinery, apparatus and mechanical appliances of all kind and for all purposes. To generate, manufacture, make, transmit, furnish, rent and sell electricity, gas and any and all other kinds of power, or fluids for the purpose of illuminating, power, heat or other purposes for electric lighting, and to contract for the furnishing, distribution, rental and sale to persons, corporations, towns, cities and villages of electricity, gas or any other kind of power or fluid for lighting purposes and for power purposes.

To own, buy, construct, lease, rent, hold, maintain and operate plants and power houses and stations for manufacturing, generating and transmitting electricity, gas and any and all kinds of power, fluids and currents, and to construct, buy, own, hold, lease, maintain and operate lines of wire, pole lines, overhead lines and lines of pipe lines, conduits, ducts and rights of way for the same.

To supply cities, towns and villages and the inhabitants thereof and of the adjacent and surrounding country with water for household and domestic use and consumption, and to acquire and maintain water rights for household and domestic consumption and watering live stock.

To construct, buy, hold, own and lease pipe lines, reservoirs, aqueducts and ways, and rights of way for the same, for supplying cities, towns and villages and the inhabitants thereof and of the surrounding country with water for any and all purposes, and for furnishing and supplying power to individuals, associations and corporations for any and all purposes.

To own, buy, lease, construct, operate and maintain pumping stations and power plants and dams, furnaces, races and water wheels in, and along the running streams, and any and all other machinery, apparatus and appliances necessary or convenient for utilizing and using water for power and distribution. To appropriate water for power purposes, and furnishing electrical power, and to divert water from its natural bed or channel and to condemn right of way for its ditches, canals, flumes, reservoirs, feeders and pipe lines, and the rights of riparian proprietors upon the lakes or streams from which appropriation is made.

To acquire and hold real and personal property in the State of Oregon, and to lease, sell, mortgage, convey, and otherwise dispose of the same, and to exercise the right of eminent domain, and to condemn lands, water, and water rights and to appropriate private property in the State of Oregon, or as may be authorized by law, when necessary or convenient to carry into effect, and to enjoy either or any of the business pursuits or occupations for which this corporation is organized; to buy, acquire, hold, own, sell, mortgage, convey, and otherwise dispose of, in whole or in part, any and all kinds of machinery, apparatus and appliances necessary or convenient for enjoying, carrying on, or putting in effect either or any of the business pursuits or occupations for which this corporation is organized; to buy, own, hold, sell, lease, bond, contract and mortgage real and personal property; to purchase, acquire, take, have, hold, own, possess, enjoy, sell, mortgage, lease and use any and all chattels and personal property which it shall, at any time desire, including promissory notes, bonds, mortgages and checks in action, to subscribe for, take, have, hold, own, possess, sell and enjoy shares of stock in other companies and corporations and to be a stockholder therein; to assume and obligate itself to pay and guarantee the payments of indebtedness, bonds, mortgages, contracts and obligations of other persons, companies and corporations; to sell, mortgage, lease and otherwise dispose of any and all of its property at any time and to mortgage, hypothecate and pledge any and all its property at any time owned, held or possessed by it; to borrow money and issue and sell negotiable promissory notes and other securities and agreements to pay money, and to secure any bonds, contracts or obligations of, or assumed by this corporation, by mortgages, deeds of trust, pledges and hypothecations of its real and personal property; to own, acquire, receive, hold and enjoy franchises, privileges, easements and immunities, and to do and perform each and every act and thing which may at any time be requisite, convenient or necessary to do in order to accept, receive, take the benefit of, hold, comply with or enjoy, any franchise, rights of way, privileges, immunities or easements at any time acquired by this corporation and generally to do each and every act and thing whatsoever, which may at any time be or become convenient or necessary to carry out or accomplish either or any of the objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized, as aforesaid.

Notice is also given that the principal office and place of business of said corporation has been duly changed from Portland, Multnomah county, Oregon, to Roseburg, Douglas county, Oregon, and the capital stock of said corporation increased to Three Hundred Thousand dollars.

In witness whereof the president and secretary of said Company have caused this notice to be published by order of the Board of Directors of the Sterling Mining Company duly made.

FRED J. BLAKELY, President.
T. R. SHERIDAN, Secretary.
(Seal)

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitutes, but give the old-fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripes. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.
