Good Judgment

is just as necessary in buying a Corn Plaster as in buying anything else. A wise selection will cure your corn. A poor one will irritate it. It's just as easy to get rid of your corn as it is to say, Blue-jay.

TRIALS BY POPULAR SENTIMENT

Mr. Heney has said it and Portland papers have doled it out to the people and that settles it—popular sentiment is with Heney, the U. S. district attorney in the land fraud trials.

Before leaving for San Francisco to get a new start Heney said he would immediately proceed to the third trial of Congressman Williamson on his return, and the people of Oregon were with him.

The trials all the way through have been by popular vote as it were—by appeals to the masses of the newspaper readers, by the mob, and not by fair and judicial proceedings.

All the indicted men were declared indicted long before the indictments were found. All were declared guilty and were convicted long before trial juries were ever impaneled.

Every issue of the Portland papers for the past six months has treated every man accused of land frauds as guilty, per se, ab initio, de facto, on the high road to the penitentiary.

Judge DeHaven, the old ex-Congressman from the First California district, is brought up and filled with the "popular clamor" convictions, and he grinds through three trials and quite, says the Salem Journal.

He showed all the way through that he more and more felt THE THINNESS OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CONTENTIONS, and on the last Williamson trial virtually sided with the defense and instructed in their favor.

Heney lost his temper and spent half his time trying Judge Bennett. He leaves the state and promises the newspapers that the people are with him, thus revealing the whole "popular clamor" nature of his methods.

It is to be hoped for the sake of the administration, that one of the defendants from Crook county will be shown to be guilty, to the satisfaction of the twelve unfortunate persons who have to sit on the jury that takes three weeks to hear the infinitesimal slip of Heneyism.

It is presumed that Judge Hunt of Montana, will be a holy terror to the accused land grabbers. He will merely look at them and say "go to the pen ye accused on the earth." The formality of argument will be done away with.

The work of destroying the Oregon delegation will go forward at the hands of a Humboldt county democrat. The land business of Oregon will be paralyzed. We were getting too progressive and prosperous.

With three-fifths of our state tied up forever in forest reserves, with our delegation destroyed, and with timber lands and other public lands tied up in government prosecutions,

DO YOU SHARE IN THE PROFITS OF THE GROCERIES YOU PURCHASE? IF NOT, WHY NOT?

Every shareholder in the ROSEBURG ROCHDALE COMPANY is purchasing groceries from himself, cheaper, and better, than he could elsewhere, and at the end of the year takes home to himself the profits on these purchases. This is the Co-operative way.

BE A ROCHDALER

The supreme court of the United States has decided an entryman may borrow money to make final proof upon a timber claim. In his charge to the jury in the Williamson trials Judge DeHaven said the party or parties lending the money could state what the land would be worth to them; that the law was violated only when there was a contract to make a transfer to a second party as soon as final proof is made. On this technical point hangs the fate of Williamson, Gesner and Biggs. As the Oregonian admits, it is doubtful if an Oregon jury will ever convict and ruin the reputation of three men who have never before been accused of crime in order to win fame for Mr. Heney and a few special agents of the government. Mr. Hitchcock thinks it is a terrible thing for Congressman Williamson to get his hook in the pork barrel, but it is all right for the scrip syndicate and the railroads to take the government domain away from the poor. "Consistency thou art a jewel."

We are today in the midst of a new crusade—that against the multimillionaires and their shady methods of money-getting. In the lime-light of public opinion the fair fame of many of the ultra-rich is stained and smirched. Lawson poses as the Nemesis of the clan of heartless money-getters, himself among them, and Ida Tarbell roasts the Rockefeller millions and their owner with a hot pen. It was his recent gift for missionary purposes that aroused anti-sentiment. Many ministers bitterly opposed its acceptance, as coming from what was termed a "tainted source." But cash is good salve for sore consciences, and seems so in this instance, for the taint upon it has not hindered its acceptance.

Discussing the Congressional situation the Salem Journal says: Of course, there may be things that may intervene and make difficult any prospective candidates. Hon. Binger Hermann may never be placed on trial. There are many who believe that his case was put last as an admission of the government that it had no case, but would rely on the perfumery, trumpeted-up charge of burning records in Washington as a last resort. Anyhow, Hermann has announced his possibly rallying of friends to the standard for his vindication, and it has made all the aspirants careful announcements.

In applying for some additional life assurance recently, William Jennings Bryan, so the story goes, had to fill up the usual questions as printed on the application sheet. One query was: "Have you ever suffered from fever of any kind?" To this Mr. Bryan replied: "Yes; from two attacks of Presidential fever, followed by severe chills. Have completely recovered."

The Journal is reliably informed that Hon. R. S. Bean will be the appointee for federal judge to succeed the late Judge Bellinger. Governor Chamberlain will appoint a good Democrat to fill the vacancy and the Democratic brethren are already at work selecting a man for the place to recommend to the governor.—Salem Journal.

"Marching Through Georgia" is said to be the favorite tune of the Japanese soldiers. Native music has no marches as it is without "time." Patriotic Japanese composers have, however, since the war began remedied this defect by adapting various foreign pieces.

Dr. Osler's chloroform theory receives a serious set-back in the fact that the two leading peace commissioners selected by Japan and Russia are each over 65 years old.

Stearns-Powell Nuptials
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr and Mrs Robert Powell Thursday evening, August 10, when their daughter, Miss Lizzie Powell and Harry Stearns were united in marriage by Rev J. W. Stuckert. Only a few relatives and intimate friends were present. Mr and Mrs Stearns started to Portland on the midnight overland, where they will remain a few days and then go to Yoncalla, their future home. The bride and groom are too well and favorably known to require further comment in these columns. Many friends join in extending heartfelt congratulations. Mr Stearns is manager of Stearns & Chenoweth's branch store at Yoncalla and is a very worthy young man.—Owl.

Our people are learning, especially the Roseburg business men, that clean streets are easily maintained and never fail to favorably impress the stranger. The way Jackson street, Roseburg's main business thoroughfare, is being kept lately would be a credit to any city. Roseburg business men and the city council are to be congratulated on this evidence of enterprise and public spirit.

Congressman Hermann returned home Thursday from Portland where he attended the Harriman banquet and he states that he was assured that operation on the Drain, Coos Bay railroad would commence at the earliest possible date after the permanent survey is completed and the right of way was secured.

Harriman is gone and now J. J. Hill is coming to Portland, and will be there next Wednesday.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old-fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.
