J. B. Eddy, formerly one of the proprietors of the Plaindealer called at this office, yesterday. At present he is in the employ of the Southern Pacific and looks after right of way and tax matters, with his headquarters at Portland where he will hereafter read the Plaindealer.

He was in yesterday consulting with the county commissioners regarding a much desired change in the public road on Pass Creek. The proposition was to change the road as to eliminate two of the railroad crossings and thus obviate the danger which such places often have for public highway. The county Solons saw the wisdom of such a change and gladly granted the permission to make such a change.

Mr. Eddy thinks Douglas county is all right. In other words, he regards this as one of the most promising sections in Southern Oregon and he thinks there is a great future in store for all his region.

In Social Circles

Dr. Ralph W. Lane, western agent for the Penna Medical Co., of Columbus, Ohio, paid Roseburg a visit in his official capacity Wednesday. While here he performed a very delicate and peculiar operation on Conductor H. E. Gilven. Dr. Lane left for Junction City today.

Lee Cannon has returned from a months visit in the Willamette Valley and at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. He is well pleased with the Douglas County exhibit, but believes we could have done much better had we commenced earlier to make arrangements for the fair.

R. C. Dement started for Roseburg Wednesday with a band of 110 beef cattle. W. T. Dement left Thursday with a drove for the same place—Myrtle Point Enterprise. The cattle arrived in this city Monday in good shape and were received by Geo. Kohlhagen, who made a shipment to Portland this week.

Mrs. Mary Davidson and daughter, Miss May have left for Portland to reside with their son and brother, Emory, who is employed in the terminal freight department in that city. Their residence on Fowler street will be occupied by Harry Moore and wife. Mrs. Moore will arrive from Portland next week.

Dispatcher E. B. Pengra and wife have returned from Portland where they attended the fair. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Whitney of Boise, Idaho, who will visit here about ten days. Mr. Pengra and Mr. Whitney are enjoying a hunting trip in Cow Creek canyon.

The Plaindealer enjoyed a call from Prof. O. C. Brown, principal of the training department, and vice-president of the Drain State Normal. Prof. Brown is just returning from a visit to his ranch at Dixonville. He is quite enthusiastic over the approaching year and says the outlook is most encouraging.

An observing citizen and one who takes great pride in the public schools of this city, has called the attention of the new editor to the fact that last year when the examination in the eighth grade was held, out of forty-six who took the test, all but one successfully passed. This is a remarkable showing and one well worth speaking about.

Robert Glen Smith the well known Democratic fire eater of Grants Pass who is booming himself for Congress in this city during this week on his way to Portland leaving for that place Tuesday night. Mr. Smith has sold his paper, the Grants Pass Herald, to Henry and Smith who will attempt the publication of a daily paper at Grants Pass.

A. E. Cohoon, forest assistant, under Forest Supervisor S. C. Bartram, has returned to Roseburg after an extended trip through the central and southern division of Cascade Forest Reserve, where he pronounces the most important of the state's reserve system.

Mr. Cohoon will again take up his office work in Mr. Bartram's office here for an indefinite period of time, while Mr. Bartram is looking after official business in the field.

Editor McKinney, of the Myrtle Creek Mail has disposed of his paper to Chas. Rice of this town. Mr. McKinney's father was formerly proprietor of the Glendale News, but disposed of his plant and moved back to his old California home, and now the son publishes good papers and were very desirable citizens, whom Douglas county dislikes to lose, but they will take the good wishes of a host of friends with them to their home in the southland.

A fine box of large Arken King peaches from the fruit farm of Joe E. Harvey, of Edenbow were brought to this office Tuesday and sent to the Douglas exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair. An extra inch and a half had to be built on to a common peach box to accommodate two tiers of these fine peaches and when packed the rebuilt box just held 30 peaches. A great deal of fine fruit is being shipped to our exhibit now. Any one who wishes to see Douglas county well represented in the fruit line should induce all the growers to make a selection of their choice fruit for our booth.

The members of the Roseburg Rebekah lodge, No. 41, are taking a lively interest in the big celebration of the fifty-fourth anniversary of this order. This occurs Wednesday, Sept. 20, and as the regular meeting of the lodge occurs on Tuesday evening, the affair will occur then. They are making preparations on a large scale and propose to eclipse all former efforts along this line. The members of Philatran lodge, No. 8 and of Rising Star, No. 174 have been invited and it promises to be a great occasion. Of course the event will wind up with the customary banquet.

In Social Circles

A very quiet and simple wedding was solemnized at the M. E. Church parsonage, Wednesday, Sept. 5, 1905, by Rev. W. E. Reuter, the contracting parties being Harry Lloyd, the popular taylor who recently purchased the business of Fred Boyce, and Miss Letha Alexander, a well known young lady of this county.

The residence of Judge J. W. Hamilton was invaded by a bevy of fair women on Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Hamilton received in honor of her aunt Mrs. H. H. Hill, of Chicago. The rooms had been tastefully adorned with flowers and greenery, which added beautifully to the scene. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mesdames Flint and Benson, while the Misses Josephson, Parrott, Gibson, Van Buren and Hamilton served in the dining room. About fifty guests responded to the invitations to meet the guest of honor. Mrs. Hill will remain in Roseburg for a few days, the guest of relatives, and will then resume her tour of the principal coast cities before returning to her eastern home.

H. I. McNabb the well known farmer of the Calapooia and Miss Mabel M. Hunt, a most estimable young lady of this county were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of S. H. Rhone near Oakland at high noon, Sunday, Sept. 3, 1905. Justice R. L. Stephens officiating. Besides the immediate relatives of the family there were present Mr. and Mrs. Cooper. Immediately after the ceremony a most sumptuous lunch prepared by Mrs. Rhone was served.

Mr. and Mrs. McNabb will reside in this county where the groom has extensive interests.

The Plaindealer joins the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. McNabb in extending congratulations.

Considerable interest is being taken in social circles by the announcement of the wedding of John Throne, of Roseburg and Miss Sue O. Opland, of Looking Glass. The groom came here from his Pennsylvania home, several years ago and has been employed in several capacities, in all of which he has made many friends. At present he is assisting a cashier of the Douglas County Bank.

The bride-to-be is one of Douglas county's accomplished daughters and likewise has a host of admirers. According to the well-founded rumor, the nuptials will occur next Monday and then the happy couple will depart for an extended wedding trip which will include a visit to Mr. Throne's old home in Pennsylvania, as well as to many eastern points of interest.

Ye editor enjoyed many pleasant visits from the people of this city and county, but none have been more interesting to him than the one made by Judge Thomas Smith. Judge Smith is probably the oldest resident of Douglas county, that is he has resided here longer than any living person, and his has been an interesting career. He promises to tell the Plaindealer some interesting things one of these days.

Prof. and Mrs. O. C. Brown, the well known Douglas county educators, have returned from a visit to the Lewis and Clark fair and left this city Wednesday morning for Drain to resume their work as instructors in the Central Oregon State Normal school which opens next Tuesday. The Drain school will have a larger number of pupils enrolled this year than ever before and it will undoubtedly be a most successful school year for that popular educational institution.

S. B. Cockrell, who purchased the B. Johns place, near Looking Glass, is moving his family here from Riley, Kas. In order to keep posted on what is going on he subscribed for the Plaindealer. He thinks that this country has a great future before it and just now he is taking a deep interest in the proposed new railroad to Coos Bay, one survey of which passed through his place. His brother-in-law, D. J. Sumner, of Randall, Wash., is here looking over the country with a view of locating in this section.

A Foolish Plan
This is a joy to eat—I welcome my dinner hour; because I root indigestion with August Flower. Constipation is the result of indigestion, biliousness, flatulency loss of appetite, self-poisoning, anemia, emaciation, uric acid, neuralgia in various parts of the system, catarrhal inflammation of the intestinal canal and numerous other ailments that rob life of its pleasures if they do not finally rob you of life itself. "I'm bound in the bowels," is a common expression of people who look miserable and are miserable—yet who persist in "letting nature take its course." What a foolish plan, when nature could be aided by the use of Green's August Flower, which is nature's own remedy for constipation and all stomach ills. "August Flower gives new life to the liver and insures healthy stools." Two sizes, 25c and 75c.
