New Circuit Court Cases

A suit for divorce has been filed by Berntha Carpenter against her husband, Ernest C. Carpenter for divorce. The parties were married in California, and have four children, of which the mother asks for the custody, the complaint alleges desertion and cruel treatment.

The Invitation

Dear friends, come rest and see the sights
To miss the fair would not be right.
So take the train without delay.
And do not wait another day.
For soon the rain will fall in sheets
And you'll not be able to walk the streets.
Lewigland claim will not be there,
Nor Sacajawea no more and fair.
But old Mt. Hood is at her best,
Columbia river—and all the rest.
Is here you will see the choicest fruit.
And also a chance to "shoot the chute."
Oregon roses are the best.
Overlaid by none found in the west.
And if you will only make the test
You'll find Portland in her finest dress.
Her sons and daughters are most fair,
With any state they will compare.
You'll always find them kind and true.
And they will do all they can for you.
The steadily fair and lovely pine
Will look to you, I'm sure, sublime.
And if you'll come and take your time
I'm sure you never will regret.
Oregon rich in copper and gold,
And other minerals—I've been told.
So now's the time for you to invest.
And ever hereafter take rest.
It's here they raise fine hay and oats,
And hills are covered with choicest goats.
So if you have not got the cash
Just give the state a little gas.
Then get at once upon the "rail"
And very soon you'll "Hit the Trail."
Now my friends I'll bid adieu,
And hope quite soon to meet with you.
I. F. B.

DOUGLAS COUNTY CITIZEN AT FAIR

EDITOR PLAINDEALER: I am here in Portland, mixing business with pleasure. I have taken in most every thing at the fair and find the Mineral, Horticultural, Agricultural—in fact all exhibits were beyond my expectation, especially the stock exhibits, they being by a long way the best I have ever seen. I have been told by some people who visited the fair at St. Louis, that the stock in better than it was at that place. One should be able to spend at least four days on the grounds to be able to see all and we find that by one's taking time to procure lodging and take their meals at any place they choose, it need not cost more than at any other time. I have seen people from all parts of the world. The attendance seems to be exceptionally fine, and indications are that it may continue so. I would say to those who can spare the time and expense to be sure and visit the 1905 Fair at Portland or they may regret that they did not later on. W. R. WILLIS.

Notice to Taxpayers.

The last half payment of the taxes for the year 1904 becomes delinquent Monday evening, October 2, 1905. Pay before that time to avoid penalty and interest. Taxpayers who have paid no part of the 1904 taxes and all other taxpayers are notified that shortly after the above date there will be other costs in addition to the penalty and interest on unpaid taxes. Please take notice and pay promptly. H. T. McCallen Sheriff and Tax Collector.

Forty million bottles of August Flower sold in the United States alone since its introduction! And the demand for it is still growing. Isn't that a fine showing of success? Don't it prove that August Flower has had unfailing success in the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the worst enemies of health and happiness? Does it not afford the best evidence that August Flower is a sure specific for all stomach and intestinal disorders?—that it is the best of all liver regulators? August Flower has a matchless record of over 35 years in curing the ailing millions of these distressing complaints. * Two sizes, 25c and 75c.
