DOUGLAS COUNTY BITS OF NEWS.

Items of Interest Gathered from the Different Localities Tersely Told.

News Wanted
The Plaindealer would like to have news items from all parts of Douglas county. Space for brief, newsy notes will be gladly allotted and it is hoped that such an offer will not be passed by.—Editor.

Drain Belongs
W. A. Perkins was a Roseburg visitor Monday.
Horace Putnam of Tinpot is in Portland this week.

Attorney A. J. Buchanan and family of Roseburg visited their relatives in Drain Saturday and Sunday.
M. R. Ryan has just bought from F. L. Perry of Roseburg, 7 lots in the west edge of town, 50 feet wide by 1/4 of a mile long, for $400.

F. W. Beckley, of Oakland, who has a lot of fine cattle ranging near Elkton, was over looking after them the first of the week, stopping at Drain long enough Monday to pay his subscription to this great "Fire-side Companion."

Dick Sanders, who has been boring wells and cutting silos in the Yoncalla neighborhood for some time, is now at work in Drain with his steam wood saw. Dick makes things buzz when he starts in, having sawed 28 cords the other day in 15 hours.

Mrs. Ethel Derrick and little son, who have been here since June, visiting the family of her brother, N. B. Brown, and also her father, left last night for their home at Rosalia, Wash. It is likely that Mr. Derrick and family will move to Drain next spring.—Nonpareil

Skelly Skimmings
Mrs. Oscar Applegate is contemplating the purchase of some more milk cows for her dairy. With her present herd she finds more demand for butter than she can supply.

The school at Hayhurst is getting along nicely, with an increased attendance. The teacher, Miss Dora Green, is becoming decidedly popular with both parents and pupils.

Mrs. Louise Thornton, an aged lady, had the misfortune to meet with a trip and a fall Monday and suffered a bruised arm and shoulder, which have laid her up for a short time.

The workmen on Joe Francis' new residence on his Billy Creek farm are getting along finely with their work, and the building will be ready for occupancy about the 6th of October, when Mr. Francis expects to take possession.

Chas. Engles, who has been ill for the past week, is once more at himself. Others are complaining, but that is the lot of man and complainers are not worthy of a personal. Some people would even complain if they were to be hanged.—Nonpareil.

Outbursts From Olalla
The present rain is appreciated by the people of this place.
W. R. Wells, our postmaster returned from the Lewis and Clark fair. He reported a very pleasant trip and that he was well pleased.

J. E. Lenard and H. Z. Ireland returned Sunday from Portland, where they were taking in the fair. They were well pleased with the exhibits.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovebyon, Mrs. R. B. Wells, Mrs. Mary Byron and E. E. Wells, will leave for Portland Friday morning where they intend visiting the fair.

Our schools are progressing nicely under the management of Miss Mildred Haines, at Olalla and Miss Bel Newland, of Upper Olalla.
Mr. J. W. McFarland is installing a chop mill at his sawmill and is expecting a larger saw for his mill this week. He has the enterprise and we hope and believe he will be successful in the milling business.—Uno.

Glendale Cleanings
The Bailey girls were in from Gold Bog this week.
Miss Ethel Reinfield is visiting with friends at Grants Pass.

Postmaster Hurd had occasion to be in Grants Pass on Sunday.
Miss Phelora Gilham, of Galesville, is attending college at Albany.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wall recently visited with friends at Leland.

Len McDonald has been in from the Greenback mine for several days.
Percival Roberts has secured employment in connection with the new round house which the Southern Pacific is now constructing.

Another important business transaction has just taken place. S. R. Miller of this city having sold his placer mine, the Shively, to Mr. Drury, a mining man of Seattle. The consideration was $200 cash, but the amount has not been spent definitely. The new owner will install necessary machinery at once and nearly a dozen men will be employed in the immediate future under Mr. Miller's supervision. Rumor is current that Eastern parties are already negotiating with the owner with a view to purchasing the property. The Shively mine, which is located near the head of Cow creek, but on the Umpqua side, is regarded as a splendid investment and no doubt will be a great producer when the necessary machinery has been installed.—News.

North Roseburg Notes

A vote for B. S. Nichols and J. O. Newland means a vote for lights and new sidewalks. Vote for them.
H. J. Robinette and family returned home Saturday after a very pleasant summer spent in the mountains.
Jas. Newland and wife spent Thursday and Friday at their ranch near Olalla.

B. S. Nichols is building a neat little cottage in the Kinney Addition. This makes the fourth new cottage in North Roseburg in the past two months.
Mrs. Ada Cawfield and two children expect to go to the Portland fair this week. After a brief visit there they will go to Baker City to spend the winter.

Geo. Dimmick and daughter, Lela, returned, on last night's local, from a brief visit to the fair.
Mr. Hamilton, of Indiana, is working for Geo. Jones, sr.
Mrs. Henry Strader and children spent Sunday with Mr. Strader, who is employed on a bridge near Olalla.

Red Hill Report
We are glad to have "our vicinity" noticed in the Plaindealer's news.
Bert Seales and Miss Annie Cochran returned from Portland Thursday.

Our school will commence Oct. 23, with Mildred Haines as teacher.
C. L. Westenhiser, who has been quite sick, is greatly improving under the care of Dr. Mortenson.

Mr. Wesley Vasey, wife and two children of Wier, are visiting their cousin, H. Cochran, of this place. They are enroute to the Portland fair.

Those who went to the Lewis and Clark Fair last week were, Albert W. Dockerman, Forrest Jones, R. B. Thompson, Ray Langdon, Minerva Westenhiser and Mary and Mattie Trumpe.
Benj. Huntington, of Yoncalla, was on the Hill Thursday buying cattle for the Portland market.

E. A. Langdon and Ike Jones are through drying prunes.
WEARY WILLIE.

Elkton News Budget
The Elkton school commenced Monday, Sept. 25. The attendance is good.
Mrs. Grace Jones has returned from Portland where she has been attending the Lewis and Clark Fair.

Miss Ida Robinson closed a very successful term of school near Long Prairie, and returned to Ashland where she will resume her studies during the year.
Rev. Da Huff and family will depart for Ashland the latter part of the week where he goes to continue his work as pastor of that place.

Soon, Elkton can boast of a railroad, as work is in steady progress for the same.
Miss Maggie Jones, one of the county's most successful young teachers, has completed a term of school near Gardiner and returned home.

There will be held at the M. E. Church, W. C. T. U. Contest Thursday evening, Sept. 18.
SHAKESPEARE.

Oakland Observation
The attendance at school this week is twice as large as the first week, as the young folks are through picking hops.
Prune drying this year is at an end. The crop was very poor, but quality good. The trees should be well pruned this winter as we are sure to have a tremendous crop next year, more in fact than the trees can stand, weather permitting.

The irrigating ditch is progressing rapidly, and we hope to see at a very near date, the water, under irrigation. This will be an ideal valley for orchards, each 40 acre tract set to trees, should be a very profitable proposition under irrigation.

A. Grunwald, of Austria, has asked for prices on 1000 lbs of Douglas Fir Seed from Douglas County. Seed firms from all over the world get seed of native trees from the adjoining counties. The older nations are planting extensive forests and prefer the Douglas fir, as it is a very rapid grower, making a tree fit for lumber in 50 years. It is probable we will have an extensive trade in the near future.
OAKLANDER.

Myrtle Creek Musings
J. H. Foreman has been quite ill for several days, but is now improving.
Look out for the marriage of several of Myrtle Creek's young people soon.

Mr. W. H. Kelley, one of our former esteemed citizens, but now located at Lebanon, Oregon, came up Monday to visit friends for a short time and look after business interests.
Noble Andrews, S. W. Bayless and J. D. Strong went to Portland Thursday to see the fair. Mr. Strong expects to meet his brother, Lee, whom he has not seen for sixteen years.

John Orr and Jas. McGee went up North Myrtle hunting a white buck and killed two bucks, a panther and a bear. The boys are old bear hunters. And we have others too. Among them are Jas. Dunnavin, S. W. Bayless and M. A. Sly. Such a combination turned loose in a bear country would make Teddy and his friends look like six bits.—Mail.

Oakland Observations
Dave McCollum is hauling lumber from his mill on Hinkle Creek to this city.
A. F. Brown was looking after business matters in Roseburg, Tuesday evening.

C. H. Brown, S. J. Chenoweth and Will Peckley started to Prineville Wednesday night. They may engage in stock raising in Crook county.

CAME HERE LOOKING FOR HIS LOST WIFE

W. R. Gay, of Linnton, was in this city, Friday, in search of his young wife, left her home last Tuesday, in company with Mr. Gay's two year old son, by a former wife, leaving a note that she was going to Portland to have some work done upon her teeth. Not returning as soon as expected, Mr. Gay went to Portland in search of her, and found the little boy at Portland, at the home of a friend, where he had been left by Mrs. Gay the evening before.

The unfortunate husband at once enlisted the assistance of the police and a thorough but unsuccessful search was made in the city. Mr. Gay received another note from her, stating that she was going to Roseburg. The police were notified to look out for her here and Mr. Gay arrived in this city Friday morning to assist in the search.

To the Plaindealer reporter, Mr. Gay said: "My wife has been convinced by another woman that she is not my legal wife. The woman who is doing this work was my former housekeeper and came to Roseburg with my wife. She is a bad, bold woman and is doing this for spite, because I discharged her from my house and employ. She is making my own wife believe that she is my wife. I am not positive of her name, as she has told me at one time her name was Nadine Stevens and at another that it was Wilkins. She claims to have relatives in Roseburg. She, herself is an eastern woman.

Mr. Gay in company with the officers, made a thorough search of the rooming houses and hotels of this city, but were unable to locate the lost wife. However their search was not altogether unsuccessful, as they met several persons who described both women and had been seen in Fullerton & Richardson's drug store on the street, last Wednesday.

"If I could only find her and talk to her," said Mr. Gay, "I am sure she would be willing to come home, as I can easily convince her that she is my only wife. My God! do you think for one moment, that if the other woman, as she has told me, she would let me go without being arrested?"

Mr. Gay is a real estate dealer and agent and is superintendent of a shingle mill at Linnton. He and the missing Mrs. Gay have been married only a month and he seems badly broken up over her taking leave of him, as he says, without any cause. Mr. Gay says that he will search for her as long as he has the means.
W. B. Gay, of Linnton, left this city for Portland, Friday night after an unsuccessful days search in this city for his wife who deserted him last Tuesday. The officers believe that the note sent to Gay telling him she was going to Roseburg was a blind. Mr. Gay says that he will return to his work, but will continue his search through the assistance of the officers.
