THE WISE ONE

Said:—"I am sick; go and call the best doctor and also get for me the very best medicine that money can buy; there is nothing too good for me I want the best."

The attendant called Dr. —, of Roseburg and had the prescriptions prepared in the laboratory of Fullerton & Richardson.

THE WISE ONE RECOVERED QUICKLY.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1905.

We are glad to have some new correspondents on our Douglas county department this week, and also to welcome our Glendale reporter back again. These representatives are doing much to help their own locality by thus giving it a good lot of wholesome advertising, and we appreciate their untiring efforts very much, indeed.

The Plaindealer acknowledges the receipt of a copy of the new statute relating to elections, compiled from Bullinger and Cotton's Annotated Codes and Statutes, and from the laws of 1903 and 1905, compiled by F. L. Dunbar, Secretary of State. Such a book will be in much demand, as the time for holding the next state election rolls around.

Today the Republican hosts are assembled at the Empire Theater in Portland to consider what pertains to the best interest of the party. It is hardly possible to estimate the good which may come from just such a gathering of those who have the best interests of the party at heart. It is to be hoped that there may be harmony and that nothing will be done which will hinder all elements in the party from forgetting the past and getting together for one of those good, old-time majorities which have come to the united forces in Oregon in days gone by. The result of this meeting will be awaited with great anticipation by a great many people throughout this great commonwealth.

Our mild criticism on the apparently reckless manner in which the local land office is being kept closed to the detriment and injury of a host of people who deserve better things at the hands of Uncle Sam, has elicited much favorable comment. But not a few think we were entirely too easy on the "powers that be," and would have us go after some-

THE FOOLISH ONE

Said:—"I am sick; go and find a doctor who won't charge me much, and get my medicine where you can get lots of it for a little money; I want the cheapest that can be found."

The attendant found a cheap fellow who called himself a doctor and got the medicine where they gave him a big bottle full for a few cents.

THE FOOLISH ONE IS STILL SICK.

body with a stick. This was not our aim in writing such an article. On the contrary, we felt that if the attention of the authorities were called to this gross injustice, in a way to indicate that we had no malice in the matter, that possibly our words might have some weight with them. That we came near the truth seems most evident, as developments take place. One needy farmer came in and assured us that we had not missed the truth. He has a family depending on him and he is trying to get title to his land, but for these nine long months he has been unable to prove up and make his arrangements to support his family. Now he says he will be seriously handicapped if he has to wait another three months before he can get title to his property. This is plainly one of the cases where severe hardship is worked upon innocent people. We sincerely trust that this wrong will be righted at a very early day, and the sooner the better.

Personal Mention

Madame Lillian Webb Baker, a noted pianist of Chicago, is visiting the Pacific Coast and has decided to remain, during the winter, in Roseburg, where she will accept a limited number of pupils in piano instruction. A Plaindealer representative had the pleasure of listening to some of Madame Baker's renditions and can heartily recommend her to the music-loving people of Roseburg. Her playing is distinguished by a delicacy of execution and a marvelous depth of feeling that shows she has not only mastered the technique, but the very soul of music. She has studied under some of the greatest modern teachers of America and Europe, and for a number of years was first assistant to Dr. Robert Gold back in his famous College of Music in Chicago. LOOKED UP THE OLD SOLDIERS

Soldier Home Jottings
Col. C. A. Wadsworth, who holds the office of assistant inspector of the national soldiers homes has been in this city, looking over the Oregon State Soldiers' Home. He found that there are one hundred and forty inmates in this institution and that things over there are kept in very orderly and business-like way. The old veterans were put through a muster and made a most excellent showing. He took occasion to highly compliment the management upon the most satisfactory showing which it has made and he will make a report to the government officials to the effect that the Roseburg Soldiers' Home is one of the very best conducted institutions in this great land. Roseburg has reason to feel proud of being the place where these nations' defenders are making their home and it is to be hoped that an assembly hall can be secured so that local talent can go out and tender these men some free entertainments. They are deserving of all they can get, in the way of sustenance and a great deal more. It is not possible to count the value of the services which they rendered their country, in its hour of greatest need. Therefore, let no citizen begrudge the small amount of money which is expended for their comfort in their declining years.

Joseph Hawkins and M. C. Reesor went out to the Upper Umpqua river yesterday and had some fine sport catching trout. Now they have a good stock of fish "yarns," which will entertain the boys.

Saved His Life

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., wrote June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other side badly affected. I also had a tumor on my side. I don't think I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application cured me great relief; two 50-cent bottles cured me sound and well.

It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity. Sold by A. C. Marsters & Co.

WHAT IS GOING ON AT THE COURTHOUSE

Items Which Will be of Interest to the Taxpayers

Beckman Found Insane

Wm. F. Beckman, who was to be tried at this term of court on the charge of having killed his stepson in 1894, has just been examined by Drs. Geo. E. Honck, A. C. Seelye and E. V. Hoover, of this city and Dr. W. T. Williams, of Portland, for insanity, and they have declared that he is mentally deranged. This will stop all criminal proceedings and will result in sending Beckman to the asylum. He was sentenced to the state prison for having murdered his wife, but owing to his very poor health, it not being supposed that he could live long, he was pardoned. He went east and upon coming back to this state he was arrested upon the other charge. The finding of the medical examiners recites that Beckman is "lacking in moral conceptions, has lapses of memory, has defective emotional control of himself, and is at times morbidly suspicious."

Many Hunters' License

Owing to the fact that the season for deer hunting closes November 1, there is a scramble for hunters' licenses. Up to the first of the month over 100 such permits had been issued, from which a revenue of $1250, was had. Those who have just taken out such papers are: G. C. Graham and Arthur Marsh, Roseburg; J. D. Veatch and E. H. White, Glenade; George Best, Looking Glass; G. G. Hixon and Eugene Hixon, Brockway; Oscar Shipley, Kellogg; Geo. Burt, Portland; and Geo. E. Myers and H. H. Olcott.

The Ladies Would Vote

For some time the members of the W. C. T. U. of Douglas county have been taking a lively interest in the movement which is being made all over this state to have the gentler sex granted the right of suffrage. In order to have the next state legislature pass upon the matter, it was necessary for petitions containing the signatures of at least two per cent of the voters of the state to be presented to the secretary of state, on or before Oct. 10. So, on Monday, the ladies appeared before County Clerk Agee, and presented a petition containing the names of 136 voters of this locality, which had to be certified to by that official, before it was sent on to the secretary of state. Mr. Agee found most of the names all right. A short time ago a similar petition with 125 names was sent up from Drain and Yoncalla, and another of 60 names from Myrtle Creek. It is necessary for the ladies to procure at least 5,000 such signatures in this entire state, before this matter can be taken up by the officials and the local workers are quite sanguine that they have much more than completed with this provision of the statute.

Grand Jury at Work

The Douglas county Grand Jury assembled in the District Court Monday morning, and was duly empaneled by Judge Harris, of Eugene, in the absence of Judge Hamilton. The body is as follows: Joe Harvey, Roseburg, foreman; P. Swearingen, Drain; W. H. Larkins, Oakland; M. L. Brown, Camas Valley; Joe Turpin, Yoncalla; S. H. Wilson, Gardiner and Wm. Baxton, Brockway.

Many matters of more or less importance are being considered, and already the jury has passed upon the case of Lewis Cass, charged with assaulting and trying to kill R. B. Mathews, L. D. Carle and F. H. Math, Sept. 17. This was found to be a true bill.

In the case of John Frier, who was accused with attempting to commit rape on his 16-year old granddaughter, Pansy Frier, the jury did not find a true bill.

As soon as the Coroner shall have finished taking evidence in the Greek railroad workmen trouble, the matter will be passed upon by the Grand Jury.

Today the Grand Jury is down at the Court House where the Greek rioters are being brought up, and it is evident that they expect to find some true bills for District Attorney Brown took along a batch of indictment blanks.

A Judicial Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by A.
