ITEMS FROM THE DIFFERENT CHURCHES

Instead of the various churches holding evening services at eight o'clock, as was announced, they will hold them at half-past seven hereafter.

Rev. E. H. Hicks, the popular pastor of the Baptist church, returned from the north today. Last Sunday he preached in the First Baptist church of Portland and it is rumored that his services are badly wanted up that way. This has been what his parishioners have learned all along, for they recognize that he is a man of unusual ability and that any church would be fortunate in getting him. However, it is said that Mr. Hicks will not leave Roseburg, at least not while his work here is so prosperous, for he is one of the ministers who does not consider salary the first thing, but who wishes to go where he will be of the greatest service to the good cause. His friends outside the church which he supplies, as well as those in it, will be glad to know that he is going to remain right here, where he seems to be very useful and successful.

Rev. J. A. Townsend and Mr. P. Benedict are home from the northern part of the state, where they attended the first meeting of the Southern Oregon Presbytery, which was held in the First Presbyterian church of Portland, and later the annual meeting of the Synod of Oregon, which convened at La Grande. They report having had a very delightful and interesting time at both gatherings. While at La Grande they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clements, former residents of Roseburg. At the meeting of the Presbytery Mr. Benedict was elected to represent that body at the next meeting of the General Assembly, which will be held at Des Moines, Iowa, during next May.

By a strange coincidence two pastors, Rev. W. C. Benter of the Methodist church and Rev. Geo. C. Ritchey of the Christian church, both had identically the same themes for their last Sunday's sermons, both morning and evening. But neither one knew that this was to be the case as they had no idea what the other was to take for the subject of his discourse.

Saturday evening Pastor J. M. Cole of the Salem Seventh Day Adventist church, will deliver his fine stereopticon lecture on "Cannibal Fiji," at the Seventh Day Adventist church in this city. The lecture is spoken very highly of and a large audience ought to greet Pastor Cole. There will be a free will silver offering at the close of the lecture.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Mrs. Mattie Graves, National organizer of the W. C. T. U., will speak at the Baptist church, at 3 in the afternoon she will talk at the Presbyterian church, and in the evening at the Methodist church. She is a talented speaker and all who hear her will be well paid for going.

Do you like queer sermons? Such a sermon will be preached at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. In the sermon the pastor will relate how he captured a deck of cards from a gambler. At night Mrs. Graves will deliver a gospel-temperance address. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to these services.

The W. C. T. U., held their yearly meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Barzee. The following officers were elected: Pres. Mrs. E. H. Hicks; cor. sec., Mrs. Emma Faulkner; rec. sec., Mrs. Mary Edm.; treas., Mrs. Gertrude Bartram. Superintendents of the various departments were also appointed, from whom good results are expected. The meeting was one of great interest and the lunch served by Mrs. Barzee was fine. All in all it was a delightful occasion.

Word has been received from the Bible School evangelist, J. P. Corder, of the Christian church, that the Bible school institute announced for this week as beginning Friday and holding over Sunday, is postponed indefinitely.

At the Christian church next Sunday the services will be as follows: Bible school, 10 a. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. meeting, 6:30 p. m., (union meeting) Preaching, 11 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning theme: "The Holy Spirit as Related to Christians." Evening sermon: "A Lost Boy." The public is most cordially invited to attend.

The Farmers Real Estate Co., have sold the A. M. Gallagher farm on Deer Creek, to H. H. Fox from St. Louis Mo.

R. K. Montgomery, of Glendale, has sold through the Farmers Real Estate Co., 240 acres of timber land to Linton Bros. of Sushonish, Wash.

At the residence of Mr. Horace Marsters, in Roseburg, on the evening of Oct. 18, Rev. W. C. Reuter, officiating, Mr. D. H. Marsters to Miss Mary Parks, both of this city. These young people have many friends in this city who will wish for their much happiness. They will reside in West Roseburg.

The Roseburg Painter justly kicks at the keeping of the Land Office closed at that place on the ground that it interferes with the rights of legitimate homesteaders and timber claim purchasers. We ourselves have been nearly three years getting a patent for our timber claim and haven't got it yet for that matter, and for no other reason than that it is being delayed by such apparently uncalled for actions of the government as these—Washington County News
