RIOTING GREEKS RECEIVE SENTENCE

In the circuit court, Friday morning, Judge Hamilton passed upon the motion for new trials, in the cases against Tom Georges, Antone Mizes and Peter Demas, the three Greeks who were found guilty by the jury of inciting a riot at Glenbrook. He denied these motions and the court proceeded to pass sentence upon the prisoners. Georges and Mizes were each given ten years in the state penitentiary, and Demas, whose case had appealed to the jury to the extent that the body recommended him to the mercy of the court, was given only three years, which is the lowest sentence that could be given under the law.

In passing sentence Judge Hamilton took occasion to remark that the men had received a fair and impartial trial.

Judge Fullerton, one of the counsel for the Greeks, gave notice in open court, that the case would be appealed to the supreme court of the state. He seems confident of getting a new trial for his clients, upon the showing which he will make to the higher court.

In the meantime the attorneys for the prisoners will take the necessary steps to delay the carrying out of the sentence until the matter can be ruled upon by the supreme court of the state.

ROSEBURG ELKS HAVE GREAT TIME

The Local Herd Has One of the Finest Times it Has Had For Many a Day

Thursday evening, the members of the Roseburg lodge, No. 326, Benevolent Order of Elks, had a grand pow-wow. It was on the occasion of the annual "round up," and as that progressive order is not known for doing things by halves, the affair was a decided success in every particular. Preparations had been made on a grand scale and nothing was left undone which would add to the success of the occasion.

HOME OF THE ELKS.

One of the most important events of the memorable evening was the "class" of candidates who rode "Sir William Goat" into the order and to glory. These came, with one exception, all from out of town places and indicated that the local lodge does not confine its membership and influence within the bounds of Douglas county. Those thus introduced into the mysteries of the order were: Bert R. Westbrook, of the Hotel McClallen of this city; "Bert" Brown, of Oakland; A. E. Fisk, E. C. L. Ferrin, Robert Francis, F. M. Marhofer and H. J. Edwards, of Marshfield; M. J. Hartson, of Coquille and L. M. Travers, of Myrtle Point. These gentlemen are said to have passed through the "trying ordeal," with becoming fortitude, and are each sporting a new pair of antlers, of which they have every reason to be proud.

Among the distinguished visitors who were present to lend dignity and add interest to the occasion were, Judge L. T. Harris of Eugene and Hon. Walter L. Tooze, the well-known Woodburn politician, who is being prominently mentioned as an aspirant for congressional honors in the First District. Mr. Tooze is a member of the executive committee of the National Fraternal Congress, which has just been in session in the east, and he came to this gathering with much information which the assembled members and guests of the evening enjoyed to the utmost. Mr. Tooze is recognized as one of the most brilliant speakers on the Pacific Coast, and when it was found that his presence could be had at this noted gathering of Elks, the success of the affair was assured. And he did not disappoint them. As into everything into which he enters, he took hold of the subject with great zest and held the closest attention of the large assemblage throughout his entire address.

This was one of the pleasantest and most enjoyable occasions of its kind that Roseburg Lodge of Elks has experienced in its entire ten years of existence and the members will long recall the important event.

After the initiation and formal business, came one of those banquets for which the Elks are noted, and there was a veritable "feast of reason and flow of soul."
