Coles Valley Crumbs

A few issues ago I saw an item from tatoes galore. Melrose concerning W. R. Vinson of Coles Valley, as a candidate for county sheriff for 1906. Whoever wrote the item made a very good selection, as William is well qualified for the office. imported "William Goat" from Califor- William has officiated in public office for some time. He will have a better show some very fine registered nannies in the in getting a nomination this time under week. the primary law than heretofore. The only objection is that he is too premature, as Harry is entitled to the office for two years hence.

The democrate think that they are entitled to it; there is a rumor of bringing David McKay out from Wilbur as candidate. David is a very good man, but we republicans have about 564 majority; not but what David would fill the bill, but he could not overcome this majority. Besides, when it comes to politics Billy is a hard man to beat. There is some talk in the northern part of the county of bringing out the old war horse, Geo Dimmick, also of Burt Bogard, besides there might be numerous others brough: up between now and then. A man in Oakland said that he would like to have Geo. Dimmick come out for sheriff, and he would apply for treasurer's office. He is a school teacher and well posted. your valuable paper soon.
