Court House Notes

Assessor Staley and Deputy Rogers are just completing their big task of making out the tax rolls of Douglas county. There are three large rolls and they represent a vast amount of very difficult work. The books will soon be turned over to County Clerk Agee who will proceed to extend the taxes on the same.

Next Wednesday the county court will convene, and it is expected that this will be an unusually full docket, as many matters of more or less importance will be considered.

As the "open" season for deer closes next Wednesday, many hunters are taking advantage of the short time in which they will have a chance to indulge in this fine sport. Among those who have just taken out licenses are:
A. B. Haskell, D. S. Daniels, W. E.
Clingenpeel, Wm. Ferk, and W. B.
Johnston, of Roseburg; S. E. McClure, Drain; Thos. Maddox, Cleveland; F. B.
Holinger and W. A. Jackson, Glendale; Lee Senckenbaugh and John Mocine, of Portland.

This morning Contractor F. F. Patterson began the work of laying a substantial cement walk in front of the court house, on the Douglas street side. It will add very materially to the appearance of the big structure and will be greatly appreciated by pedestrians.

In the proceedings of the Multnomah county court appears an account of the granting of a divorce to Carrie Settle, who formerly resided at Oakland, from George Settle with whom she has been living for nearly 20 years. She was granted a divorce and title to her real estate in Oakland, Or. She testified that her husband for years occupied a room in her home at Oakland, where he paid his board but never contributed to her support. They were married at Eugene July 25, 1871.

Among other things to be considered at the meeting of the county court, which convenes Wednesday, will be some petitions for new public roads, which will then be passed upon.

Circuit court has adjourned to meet again Friday, Jan. 12, '06.

Sheriff McClallen, assisted by Tom Hinkle, escorted the Greeks up to the state penitentiary at Salem Friday, where they will board at the public institution for a while, at least.

County Clerk Agee spent Sunday with Medford friends and he came home quite enthusiastic over Medford. He thinks that is destined to be the coming city of Southern Oregon.

Orders were entered confirming sales made by Sheriff McClallen in the following cases: The Monitor Mfg. Co. vs W.
H. Young et ux for certain acreage, and in the case of Austin & Wall vs W. D.
Calloway for the sale of sawmill and fixtures.

Sheriff McClallen is just closing up his delinquent tax books and Deputies Bogard and Slocum are getting a report ready which will be made to the county court Wednesday.

This morning County Clerk Agee issued a marriage license to Mr. Chris Russer and Miss Lucy Guggisberg, both residents of Leona.

Probate Matters

A voluminous document, containing the proof of the heirs and power of attorney in the estate of Chas. Fischer, showing $1297.47 receipts and $345.99 ianship estate of John V. and Dell V.

Rast, reports to the court the sale of lot 5 block 1, Bushey's add to Roseburg, which was bought by Wm. Carstens for $83.30.

as appraisers of the estate of Vera and Floyd Weaver, minors, shows lots 1 and 8, block 9, with store building worth $1350; lots 3 and 4, blk 7, with dwelling, and 1 acre west of blocks 8 and 9, with barn, $400, all located in Myrtle Creek.

has appointed O. H. Martensen, M. D.
Zwight and Erick Eden as appraisers of the estate of Helma Nelson, deceased.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions

First, soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by A. C. Marsters and Co.
