

J. A. COBB & CO.
ROSEBURG, OREGON

A Man With Judgment,
One who has the "long green," comes to J. A. COBB & CO. for his Furnishing goods.

THE REASON WHY
First—Because he gets what he wants; Second—Because he can get the fit here, and he takes into consideration the fact that we carry the only exclusive line in town of Gents' Furnishings, Boys' & Men's Clothing.
And last but not least, he knows our prices are right. We have the Clothing and Furnishings that tally with the purchaser's means. If you want a $5 suit, we have the best in town for the money. If your judgment tells you to buy a $14 or an $18 suit, we'll give you your money's worth. Do you know the names of some "snappy" stuff? See if this sounds natural: the "Conqueror" Hat, the "Castle Brands" Hat, the "Packard" Shoe, the "Cluett-Peabody" coat shirt; a full line of "Arrow" brand collars, "Carter & Holmes" ties; "Carson" dress gloves, in 8 shades of tans. We invite you to call and examine our merchandise. We won't poster the life out of you trying to sell you something just because you come in "to look." Ladies, if you have a spare moment when you're out shopping, drop in at Cobb & Co.'s place and inspect our "Boys' Wear" department, or our nice line of ties. You are interested in the way your boy or husband dresses; so are we, and that's why we have turned our whole attention to Men's and Boys' Furnishings.

ROSEBURG PLAINDEALER

PUBLISHED MONDAYS AND THURSDAYS

Entered in the Post Office at Roseburg, Oregon, as Second Class Mail Matter in 1905.

W. E. WILLIS, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

SUBSCRIPTION AND ADVERTISING RATES
Semi-Weekly One Year; $2.00; Semi-Weekly Six Months, $1.00. Cash in Advance.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1905.

A MARKED STEP FORWARD

This issue of the Plaindealer shows a marked step forward in the annals of journalism in Southern Oregon and will, undoubtedly, be appreciated by the reading public. For nearly 40 years the Plaindealer has been a most welcome visitor to the many thousands of Douglas county's most prosperous population, and this issue is only a reminder that the present management will give to the many friends of the Plaindealer a paper that is modern and new.

WHAT IT MEANS TO CHANGE

This issue contains 12 feet more reading matter than was formerly published, or an increase of 1248 feet more news annually. In order to more clearly understand what it means to change from an eight column folio to a six column quarto, draw an imaginary line, the width of one column, the distance of nearly 6 1/2 ordinary city blocks and you have our annual increase of reading matter.

MODERN EQUIPMENT

The change in the size of the Plaindealer is made possible by the modern equipped office. Our presses are of the latest type and enable us to print in two colors at one impression. We have the only folding machine in Douglas County, the "Dexter", which folds, pastes and trims 2250 papers per hour. We have recently put in a large assortment of new type, and there is more type enroute. The finest half-tones can be brought out on this press as clear and distinct as can be done in any office in the United States, hence the demand on us for book and catalogue work. The smaller presses are adapted to fine stationery and card work, and they require less time to make ready.

We touch on these facts merely to demonstrate to the reader that it is the desire of the Plaindealer to be progressive and up-to-date, and that nothing will be left undone to deter the advancement of this paper.

High School Notes

The regular meeting of the Philodorian society of the High School, was held Friday evening, and the following program was carried out:

Instrumental Solo, Velma McWilliams
Oration, Eugene Jewett.

Debate: Resolved: "That a diligent student will gain more from observation than from reading." The affirmative was upheld by Harry Hildeburn, Bessie Clough and Sylvanus Moore. The negative by Frank Kirk, Myrtle Boggess and Dick Gilvin. The decision of the judges was in favor of the negative.

Vocal Duets, Lucy Bridges and Lucile Ragsdale.

Reading of the "High School News" by Lenoir Ragsdale.

Monday evening a social will be given for the benefit of the football team.

The Eugene High School team will play here Nov. 18.

The Grants Pass High School has offered the boys a game in that city for the near future.

The girl's basket ball team under direction of Captain Margaret McClallen is practicing faithfully now. The team hopes to have some games in the near future. XEPHON.

Died.

ITEMS FROM THE DIFFERENT CHURCHES

The entertainment given by ladies of the Baptist church Friday evening was a decided success both socially and financially. About 200 guests were present in response to the ladies hospitable invitation and that all enjoyed the excellent and well rendered program was evidenced by frequent and hearty applause. After the program a dainty lunch was served in an adjoining room and an enjoyably social hour was passed. These good ladies netted a neat little sum which will materially aid in the improvements contemplated by that organization in the near future. They are very grateful to the kind friends for the interest manifested.

Next Sunday Nov. 5th will be the time for the members of the Christian Church to make their offerings for Oregon missions. The money raised in this offering is all spent for religious work in our own state. Last year the local church gave $55. for this cause. It is hoped that a better offering even than this good sum will be realized next Sunday.

Friday the meeting of the District Stewards of the Willamette district, will be held here. Representatives from all the M. E. Churches, South, will assemble here to look after the financial interests of the church in this part of the church. J. W. Rogers is the representative of the local church. Presiding Elder, Rev. C. L. McCausland, of Corvallis, will be present to preside over the sessions.

Next Sunday the Sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed at the Presbyterian church, and new members will also be received. Preparatory services will be held Wednesday evening.

The first quarterly conference of the M. E. Church, South since the change of pastors, will occur Saturday and Sunday. Presiding Elder McCausland preaching both days.

The monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian Church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rice on Thursday evening October 26. The regular business session was held after which the Social Committee took charge and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and social conversation. Light refreshments were served and all present enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Osborne, Mrs. A. Abraham, Ellen Flook, Lucile Ragsdale, Pauline Thompson, Mary French, Ruth Gibson, Jessie Flook, Ethel Shupe, Alice Maho, Minnie Shupe, Nellie Negley, Messrs. F. E. Alley, P. P. Ball, Sylvia Moore, H. L. Ball, Russel Dunham, Virgil Shupe and Lenoir Ragsdale.

St. Joseph's Catholic church will observe tomorrow as "Fast Day of Obligation," while Wednesday will be "All Saints' Day," or the "Holiday of Obligation," mass at 8 a. m., followed by benediction of the sacraments. Thursday will be "All Souls' Day," with requiem mass at 8 a. m. for the faithful departed of the missions. Friday there will be mass at 8 a. m.

Rev. R. A. Reagan, who has been in this city for some days, left Saturday for Oregon City, near which place he takes charge of the M. E. Church, South.

HALLOW'EEN PARTY

The Junior Auxiliary of St. George's church will give a Halloween Party tomorrow evening at the Rectory, Cass and Kane Streets. Games suitable to the evening will be played, and refreshments will be served. Admission 10 cents. All are invited to come.

Enjoy yourself at the Halloween social held at the High school building on the evening of Oct. 30, 1905. Admission 10 cents. 51-4t

A Judicial Inquiry
A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured
"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief, says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by A. C.
