There is a Difference

Between Tailor-made Clothes and "hand-me-downs." The Tailor-made is made for you—fits you. The "hand-me-down" is made for anybody. The Tailor-made holds its shape, wears well, looks well, and carries refinement with it. The "hand-me-down" gets out of shape, and displays neither choice nor taste.

Be a Tailor-Made Man

The difference in cost is trivial, and the finished product carries distinction.

Full Life of all the Season's Offerings and made for you at prices which out-rank the "hand-me-down" class.

Advice to Chauffeurs

If possible, avoid running down people who are over ninety years. They're only good for a few months more, anyway.

Yes, it is decidedly bad form to drive down a crowded thoroughfare at a speed of more than fifty miles an hour. Don't be a hog—leave something for the next generation.

Don't use an open lamp when searching for leaks in the gasoline tank. The lamp may blow out—incidentally the auto will follow up.

Don't be too eager to make a record. Remember that the present champion of the world on his first day out merely killed three and named four—and one of these was a policeman.

Not long ago one of the members of the Killers' Club was expelled for violating the club speed limit—he was caught in the act of driving under fifty miles an hour. The seriousness of his offense may be better appreciated when we mention the fact that not even his long and brilliant record as a slayer of citizens was able to save—Julien Josephson in November Pacific Monthly.

Remember that our leading tailor, J. A. McDougal, is still on deck, with a fine line of the best samples the market produces. He is ready to put up suits to please the most fastidious. He is second to none on the Pacific Coast as a fitter and maker, and his staff of workmen cannot be excelled. You would do well to call early and leave your order. Remember, what fits well, wears well. Cravenette overcoatings in many different shades. ss-4f.

Card of Thanks

To the many friends at Yoncalla who so kindly assisted in the care of our loved one during her long illness and death we wish to extend our heartfelt thanks. Kindness at any time is a precious trait, but when shown to the sorrowing and afflicted it is doubly dear. May the same measure of kindness be shown to our friends should it ever be needed is the wish of Cured Consumption.

Mrs. W. B. Evans, Clearwater, Kas., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by A. C. Marsters & Co.

What Denver, Colo., Says:

Mr. Wm. G. Lotze, one of the most able Y. M. C. A. secretaries in the United States says under date of January 7, 1897: "The entertainment by the Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette was strictly first class and gave entire satisfaction. Their concert numbers were especially fine." Hear them Nov. 2nd.

The Daily News of Denver, on December 29, 1896, says: "It is rarely, indeed, that Denver is favored with such vocal execution and instrumental as well. When it is said that the work of the Quartette is beyond criticism and the other performances the work of professionals, the truth is told. It was a rare privilege, thoroughly appreciated by the audience, to listen to the wonderful voices of the Quartette in their harmonious blending and surprising range, and there was not a number on the program but secured an encore." You can enjoy the same treat that Denver did at the Opera House on November 2nd.
