WHAT IS GOING ON AT THE COURTHOUSE

Items Which Will be of Interest to the Taxpayers

County Treasurer's Notice

Notice is hereby given that all parties holding county warrants endorsed prior to, and including, July 17, 1903, are requested to present the same to the county treasurer as interest will cease thereon after the date of this notice.

Dated Roseburg, Oreg., Oct. 19, 1905.
G. W. DIMMICK

Among those who were up from Yoncalla transacting business at the Court house were: O. F. Thiel, J. C. Wamsley and L. H. Yarbrough.

Sheriff McClallen is busy these days carrying out the orders of court, which commands him to sell personal property. On Nov. 17, he will sell the Cooper & Dake Sawmill, near Oakland, and also the furniture of the Commercial Hotel, which formerly was catering to the traveling public, at Drain, while on 21st he will dispose of the grocery stock of G. W. Carter of Canyonville, and on the 22, he will dispose of pipes and giant for a placer mine out on Coffee Creek.

County Clerk Agge has issued a marriage license to Frank Laduron, of Siskiyou, Cal. and Miss Alida M. Leishman, of this city.

Justice Thomas Williams has sent to the county treasurer the ten dollar fine which Duane Peck of Gardiner paid for having disturbed the peace of the community.

Tuesday, Dec. 12, at 10 a. m. Judge Thompson will hear the final settlement of the estate of Chas. H. Bittings, deceased.

Objections to the settlement of the estate of Joseph Schindler, deceased, will be heard on Saturday, Dec. 9.

Word has been received by the County Clerk to the effect that Frederick Myers, the "dope fiend", who was arrested and tried before the county insanity commission, Sept. 20, and who was declared to be insane has escaped from the state insane asylum, to which institution he was ordered committed. The report is that he has eloped with one of Salem's fair ones. The officials of this county were not much surprised to learn of his being so much better, for they felt that if he would only let opium alone he would soon be himself again.

James Richards, of Stephens, has been appointed guardian of his insane son, John Richards. Among other property of the unfortunate man is the sum of $450, which is on deposit with the Douglas County Bank.

Work on the new cement walk which Contractor Patterson is placing in front of the Court house, along Douglas St., is progressing nicely and will soon be in shape for pedestrians.

In Social Circles

L. Roadman, one of the tonsorialists at the O. K. parlors, has stolen on his many friends of this city.

Yesterday he asked Manager Weather a short lay-off, saying he was going out into the Calapooia mountains for a hunt, as he had not had a chance for some time past. The request was very readily granted, but there were some things which tended to arouse Mr. Weather's suspicion. For instance, he did not see why a fellow would pack up his best clothes and take a suit case of such wearing apparel to the mountains for a hunting expedition. Later on word was received to the effect that Mr. Roadman had been seen in the Northern part of the state. This made things look serious, but nothing definite was known until Mr. Roadman escorted his "better half" from last evening's local train to the home of his mother, where they will have temporary quarters. Then it was that the truth dawned upon his friends. To say that he took them by surprise would be expressing it very mildly indeed. They were actually "shocked" but they recovered enough composure to greet the "Benedict" and to offer heartiest congratulations. Mrs. Roadman was formerly a Douglas county resident, having lived at Looking Glass, where she was known as Miss Eloise Andrus, and where she has a host of warm friends who will be pleased to know that she has come to Roseburg to live. The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride at Dayton, Oregon, Rev. Dixon, pastor of the M. E. church, officiating. The groom is deservedly popular and his many friends welcome him and his new bride to this city and all wish for the happy couple a long and joyous journey on the sea of wedded bliss.

Tomorrow evening the members of the Public School football team will indulge in one of their enjoyable parties at the Forester's hall. Of course their lady friends will be in evidence and it goes without the saying that the affair will be a decided success, for the football enthusiasts are royal entertainers.

The reception which is to be tendered Mrs. Louella McWhirter, the noted temperance worker of Indiana, by the members of the W. C. T. U. at the home of

A Book of Interest more absorbing than the most thrilling work of fiction is a Bank Book. Its tale is never too long, nor its pages too many, and the long row of figures, so dry in other books, is intensely interesting. But in order to enjoy its pages, each man must own a book.
