THOS. GIBSON, OBSERVER

ELKTON POST OFFICE WAS BURLARIZED

Elkton, Nov. 11.—Mr. J. A. Smith, postmaster at this place, who lives on his little farm one-half mile out of town, on coming to his office yesterday morning found that during the preceding night the office had been burglarized. The thief had broken in through the back window. He had then gone to the till and finding he could not open it had wrenched it from the desk to which it was attached and abstracted therefrom the cash on hand amounting to $1.50. There were also the keys of the Christian church in the till, which, being of a peculiar design, were no doubt supposed to be the keys to unlock mail sacks. These also were taken.

Suspicion was at once directed toward one Fred Pederson, a young man of 17 or 18 years of age, who was taken from the orphan's home in Portland by Mr. J. A. Halliday, of this place, and by him given a home. Mr. Hannes went to Eastern Oregon some time ago taking this boy with him. It is said he had some trouble with him there, so the boy left and returned to Elkton, where for several weeks he has remained about, doing nothing in particular. He was a worthless kind of a fellow.

After robbing the postoffice he is supposed to have slept in the barn of Neils Rydell and early next morning he started out for Scottsburg on foot. A warrant was issued for his arrest and the constable dispatched to arrest him. The constable's boat was held until the constable arrived, and he was taken in charge of and upon being examined it was found he was in possession of the church keys. He will be brought before Justice Dimmock today and will, no doubt, be bound over to the circuit court on a charge of burglary. It will then be in order for the U. S. courts to take the matter up and prosecute him under the U. S. laws.

LATER—The prisoner was brought to the county jail, having been bound over to the circuit court by Justice Dimmock. Now waiting in the night gown at Josephson's.

The Commercial Bank

INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF OREGON
A Book of Interest more absorbing than the most thrilling work of fiction is a Bank Book. Its tale is never too long, nor its pages too many, and the long row of figures, so dry in other books, is intensely interesting. But in order to enjoy its pages, each man must own a book. The way to do this is to open an account with the Commercial Bank, of Oakland, Oregon.
