In Social Circles

On Saturday evening a pleasant party was given Miss Tillie Norton by a number of her young friends, in honor of her 18th birthday. Games were played, after which refreshments were served. Miss Norton received a number of gifts. The party departed at a late hour, after visiting their homes. Many happy returns.

Among those present were Misses Ethel Brown, Myrtle Adams, April G. Smith, Ethel and Tillie Scott, and a number of Thompson, Moore, Foster, Hart, and Elliott. Refreshments were served by Misses Ethel Brown, Myrtle Adams, April G. Smith, Ethel and Tillie Scott, and a number of Thompson, Moore, Foster, Hart, and Elliott.

At a social gathering at the home of Mrs. V. H. Hicks, on Monday night, the 17th inst., a party for the purpose of visiting with friends in Roseburg, Oregon, was held. The party was for a little surprise. An attempt was made to find a number of friends, but the party was not successful. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Whitton, on Main street, where they took her completely by surprise. The party was passed altogether in a happy way, and was greatly enjoyed by those present, among whom were Messrs. J. H. Hicks, C. B. Cannon, W. H. Harrison, W. H. Hastings, and L. G. Long, of this city, and Wright of Portland.

Social circles are somewhat agitated by the starting announcement that a important wedding in local circles is scheduled for this week. Thus far it has not been disclosed as to who are the fortunate children of Cupid's machine.

Rev. H. H. Hicks preached in the Methodist church at Hills last evening.
