

The Commercial Bank

Oakland, Oregon

A Book of Interest more absorbing than the most thrilling work of fiction is a Bank Book. Its tale is never too long, nor its pages too many, and the long row of figures, so dry in other books, is intensely interesting. But in order to enjoy its pages, each man must own a book. The way to do this is to open an account with the Hallie T. Hamlin, Teacher.

Myrtle Creek Musings.

Mrs. Zipperah Hunsaker and Mrs. Leslie spent a few days last week in Roseburg.

Mrs. Kate Powell and Jane Daly were up South Myrtle on a canvassing trip.

The Bates & Jackson sawmill on North Myrtle is now running full blast, and doing a rushing business. Joe Miller of Myrtle Creek, has the contract to supply them with logs.

Old Mr. Pitts, on Frozen Creek, is very ill. Dr. Devore of Canyonville was sent for.

Mrs. Hetty McDonald Reddifer is seriously ill.

Andrew Reddifer returned Wednesday after a three months' absence.

Andrew Reddifer and his sister Virginia went to Riddle Sunday to visit their uncle, Robert Reddifer, and family.

Robert Wilson and family of Missouri, are visiting his sister, Mrs. Ira Wardruff. Willard Willis, our popular liveryman has established a new stage line between Myrtle Creek and Nugget, and makes regular trips. He drives four horses to his fine new coach, which has a seating capacity for 16 passengers. The initial trip was made Sunday. Success to him.

Mrs. K. W. Miller went to Riddle on Tuesday to spend a few days with friends.

Hon. Willis Kramer was in Roseburg Wednesday, on business.

There was a large attendance Tuesday evening at the entertainment given by Woodmen of the World, in honor of Head Consul I. A. Doak. A nice little program was rendered, a special feature being the fine music. A bountiful and delicious supper was served free to all. A large number were present from Roseburg, Riddle, Canyonville and other points. Everyone was much pleased with the affair.

South Deer Creek News.

John McKean has just finished a new barn on his farm.

Our farmers are busy at the fall work, while this fine weather lasts.

J. Dolan of Roseburg was out to his home a few days last week.

School is progressing nicely at Boggs schoolhouse, Professor Houser in charge.

Miss Ina Davis will attend school this winter at the Boggs schoolhouse.

The surprise parties at Mr. and Mrs. Allison's and at Stanton's proved very enjoyable.

Mrs. Walter Roberts of Arizona is here visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. S. Ingram.

Everyone at Deer Creek looks forward to Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Clara McLaughlin of Roberts Creek was the guest of Mrs. M. Adams one day last week.

Newt Howe still holds his appointment on Deer Creek each Sunday, and sometimes during the week, also.

SOUTH DEER CREEK ROSSKREDS.

Looking Glass Happenings

Mr. B. F. Goodman was here one day last week.

Mr. Fred Taylor has been shearing sheep for Geo. Kohlhaugen, at Winchester.

The ground is getting pretty dry for plowing, and a nice shower would be of great benefit.

Olliphant Bros. are putting in considerable grain.

Mrs. Naomi Montgomery of Junction City, is here visiting her parents.

One of the old residents of this place, Mrs. Sarah Bonds, is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simonds. We welcome her back to our valley. She says she wants to die in Looking Glass Valley. She is very old and feeble, and is partially paralyzed.

Why use a dull plow when you can have it ground for 10 cents at Spang's.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drickling, of Humboldt county, Cal., are here visiting Mrs. D's mother, Mrs. Fred Taylor.

George Wiken of Brockway was in our midst Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Grimes, of Olalla, were visiting here Sunday.

Garrick Swan was in Looking Glass on Sunday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lawson of Roseburg were here with friends Sunday.

North Roseburg Notes.

Mrs. Chas. Matthews is visiting at her father's out at Oak Creek this week.

Stella Marsters is employed at the packing house. We understand they will finish packing prunes this week.

Prof. Geo. Jones returned home Monday from Gatesville where he has been teaching. His many friends are glad to welcome him home.

Mrs. Yarbrough's children are very ill with pneumonia fever.

As three ladies of North Roseburg were returning to their homes from the business part of town Monday night, they were annoyed by three drunken toughs who rode up and down the street all the way from the McCallen House to the north end of town using profane and obscene language. It is a disgrace to civilization that men should act so.

NAOMA.

Oakland Observation

Z. L. Dimmick took Sunday's local for Portland.

Hyd and Laura Pinkston went to Portland, where Miss Laura will attend business college.

Herman Stephens is in Portland again to attend business college.

J. C. Pringle was attending to business in the city Monday.

Fred Russell left on Monday night's overland for Baker City, where he will go into the drug business. Success to you, Fred.

At the public meeting called for the purpose of discussing a water system for the city, it was voted to place on the election ticket to bond the city for $15,000 for water. C. L. Chenoweth was nominated for mayor; B. J. Bovington, C. L. Beckley, A. F. Brown, Dr. E. W. Hunt, for councilmen; E. M. Brooks, recorder; Z. L. Dimmick, treasurer, and Robt. Brown, marshal. The election will occur on the first Monday in December.

C. F. Lewis was in the city from Wilbur yesterday.

J. Henderson Miller is enlarging his blacksmith shop.

OAKLAND.

Reports From Riddle

One of the things which attracts the newcomer, is the neat appearance of the railroad depot grounds, and track Foreman M. S. Ryan has had this matter in hand, and with its eight able assistants, he has everything in fine shape. The track is rebalanced and filled in, and is regraded, making one of the nicest appearing roadbeds to be found anywhere.

W. E. Britt, S. P. timber inspector has been in this locality for several days, appraising land of that company. He informed the Plainedealer that his company had many requests from outsiders who wanted to lease the land and it was now to be let in that way. He says this includes a great lot of good land in Douglas county.

A new kind of oil was put on the school room floors but it was not any too good and now Janitor Crow is having a time scraping it up.

D. H. Bibb has been in Riddle trying to make contracts for railroad ties. It is understood that he is getting them to ship into Nevada. He closed some contracts with the Canyonville mills and now the ties will be hauled here and shipped from this point.

W. L. Nichols, Riddle's popular meat market man has been buying up a large number of turkeys for shipment. This week he sent out 22 in one lot. He reports that this fowl is not roosting very high, as yet. They are bringing 14 1/2 cents alive, in this market.

Mrs. W. Q. Brown is busily engaged moving into her handsome new residence. She expects Mr. Brown home from the mines at Concord, Idaho, in time to eat Thanksgiving turkey.

Road Supervisor Abner Riddle is doing some needed work in replanking the public bridge over Cow Creek. It has been about twelve years since this was last done and there was some danger from accidents.

Saturday evening Azalea Lodge, No. 136, L. O. O. F., will confer degrees upon some candidates. The lodge is growing right along and makes a good showing.

Some of the finest hogs found anywhere were grown here by W. L. Nichols. He had eight head, one year old, which averaged each, 325 lbs. This is but another indication that this is a good cattle-growing district.

M. M. Gilbreath leaves for Oakland, soon, to accept a job of work, but, in order that his children may get the benefit of the most excellent schools of Riddle, he will leave his family here.

Next Sunday the M. E. Church, south, will have services in the church Rev. Lyons, the new minister, preaching at 11 a. m. and again at night.

Quite a good-sized delegation from Riddle Camp No. 245, W. O. W., took in the big log-rolling at Myrtle Creek Tuesday night, and they report having had a grand time.

Frank Cutsforth, brother of the Riddle blacksmith, Geo. Cutsforth, is coming from Jarvis, Marion county, Ore., to buy a part of the L. Ash place, where he will make his home.

Miss Maud Harrison arrived from Brownsville, last night, to visit with her cousin, J. R. Harrison, and family, and with other relatives in this place.

Rev. H. M. Bowman, who has been the guest of his father-in-law for some weeks past for the benefit of his health, left for Newberg, where he is pastor of the Free Methodist church.

Corrie Catching is said to be intending to go into the business of canning grasshoppers, for the benefit of young turkey raisers.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Richards are home from a pleasant visit with Mr. Richards' parents at Grants Pass.

Mr. Geo. Cutsforth was very ill with an acute attack of nervous prostration Sunday, but she is now able to be about again.

Mr. Ashford from Jackson county, has been here buying cattle for Ed. Hanley, the Alaska man, who purchased considerable cattle here before and shipped it to Alaska, where the herd increased in weight from 500 pounds each to 800 pounds in a very few months, the native grass up there being so fattening. He is paying $12 per head for yearlings, the best price paid here for some time. He also wants heifers. This high price is taken as an indication that cattle will be scarce and very high priced before the winter is over.

John Roth, who has been here for some weeks looking after his timber claim, went to Seattle this week but expects to return here later on.

Yoncalla Chronicles

Mrs. Nina Ott, nee Brown, of Enterprise, is visiting Mrs. Maggie Cook and other relatives.

Mrs. Josie Lamb returned to her home at Wilbur Monday, after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Crow.

W. A. Burr, of Roseburg delivered a beautiful Bailey piano to Miss Eva Applegate this week.

Rev. Wire of Portland came up Monday and is the guest of Mr. Jesse Hockett, of Maple Creek.

Rev. Heamister, of the Chapel Car is at Portland this week to deliver a course of lectures for the Y. M. C. A., and the meetings are in charge of his wife, who is a pleasant and interesting speaker. The crowds were too large for the car, so services are held in the M. E. church.

Mr. Cheebro of near Elkhead, has removed here and occupies the Staley house.

Mrs. Addie Cross entertained eight of her lady friends last Friday.

We are reliably informed that Roseburg will doubtless have a fruit cannery next year. This will make a market of much fruit which goes to waste.

We are pained to learn of the death of the ten-year-old daughter of Mrs. Myra Counts, of Siskiyou. She was formerly a resident of Drain and was well known here. The child was buried at rain Tuesday.
