The Roseburg Plaindealer calls attention to the success of Mr. J. C. Aiken, of Roseburg, in the dairy business. Mr. Aiken, who sells the cream from 25 cows to the Roseburg creamery, has no hesitation in saying that he believes the dairying industry is destined to become one of the most productive resources of Douglas County. He figures that he made a clear profit of $20 per cow on his herd in the past year.—Oregon Agriculturist.

Monday evening the members of Roseburg Lodge No. 16, A. O. U. W., and D. of H. No. 13, had one of those enjoyable joint social occasions, for which these orders are noted. An excellent impromptu program was rendered, including musical selections, recitations and addresses and ending with some fine refreshments.

If you have any metal, sheet-iron or pipe work to do call on Winnie Gaddis. His work and prices are guaranteed to please.

The Exact thing Required for Constipation.

"As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe enough for children and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives," says R. S. Webster & Co., Udonia, Ontario, Canada. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards of Des Moines, Ia., got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. Insomnia and Indigestion Cured

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. Marsters & Co.

Mrs. O. Olsen, of Roseburg, who has been visiting friends here, left for home this afternoon.—Eugene Guard.

Due to the very bad stage road existing between here and Roseburg, our mail has lately been having all kind of "time of its own." Last Tuesday it did not get in until 1 p. m. Some remedy for this delay should be found and the proper means applied to produce a much needed change.—Marshfield Advertiser.

Jennings' Bakery has fitted up a nice lunch room. Everything neat and clean. 74tf

Housekeeping Rooms—Ask at the Plaindealer office for particulars. They are in a very desirable part of the city. No children. 88 tf

A match game of football for the championship of Southern Oregon will take place at the athletic grounds in Ashland next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, between the Ashland Normal team and the Roseburg High School team. This will be the best game of the season so far and is being looked forward to with much interest. Occurring on Wednesday, it will give the business men of the city a better opportunity to see it and an effort will be made to have the stores close during the hour of the game. The Normal will adjourn its work for the day at 2:40 to give all the students a chance to attend.—Ashland Tidings.

"Hooligan" Coming

The plot of "Hooligan's Troubles" fairly bristles with diverting situations and brims over with startling climaxes. Wholesome humor permeates every line. There is an array of catchy music, charming songs, pleasing dances and specialties galore. The presentation at the Roseburg Theatre on Nov. 21st, will bet he comedy event of the season.

Young Sam wishes to announce that he has now the most complete stock of Japanese ware ever offered for sale in Roseburg. He especially requests an inspection of his beautiful new goods. China lilies for sale. 93-tf

Perhaps one of the jolliest affairs ever attempted in this city will be given by the members of Protection Tent, No. 15, Knights of the Maccabees. This is one of the most progressive orders in the country and the local tent is no exception, and is fully abreast of the times. The coming event will occur Friday evening, December 1, and judging by some of the reports which are floating around, it will be one of the greatest things of its kind ever seen in this part of the country. The members are on the qui vive over the matter and nothing will be left undone to make it a success.

Many visitors will be present from adjoining tents to participate in the festivities of the occasion. Several candidates will be taken "over the road," which is said to mean much, and there will be "something doing" all the time.

Umbrellas Mended—I am now prepared to attend to this for you, and my work is sure to please you. My rates are reasonable, and I will call for and deliver the articles thus needing repair. Leave orders at my place on Mill Street, 90-6t W. A. GUNAK.
