TWO PIONEERS PASSED AWAY

This community was somewhat shocked yesterday, to learn that two of its respected pioneers had passed away. One of these was Mr. Nathaniel Cockerleas, a native of North Carolina, aged 85 years. Old age, with its infirmities was the immediate cause of his demise. For several days he had been at the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. B. Brockway, of Civil Bend, where he passed away early yesterday morning. He leaves two sons, Edward and John Cockerleas, of Douglas county, and two daughters, Mrs. Brockway and Mrs. Sarah Hedgpeth, of California. Deceased was one of the pioneers of Douglas county and was highly respected for his sterling qualities. His has been a busy and useful career.

The funeral was held at the Pine Grove Church, this forenoon, Rev. W. A. Smick conducting the services. The interment was at the Burt cemetery where Mr. Cockerleas was laid beside his wife, who died many years ago.

The other pioneer who passed away was Mrs. Mary Fortin, of Coles Valley, who died at the Roseburg House, the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Jones, yesterday morning. She was a native of Indiana and was 73 years old. A short time ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis, which ultimately resulted in her death. Mrs. Fortin was one of the early settlers of Oregon, having come to this state with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Ridenour, in 1855, where she has resided ever since. She leaves to mourn her loss: L. S. and Ferdinand Fortin, of Coles Valley; T. R. Fortin, Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. A. Scarlet, Bakersfield, Cal. and Mrs. Harvey Jones, of Roseburg, her surviving children and also the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Geo. Shambrook, of Portland; Mrs. D. Wheeler, Mrs. Seagraves and Mrs. David Ridenour, of Reno, Nevada, and Mrs. J. Brock and Timothy and Henry Ridenour, of Melrose, Douglas county.

The remains were taken to Coles Valley early this morning, where the funeral occurred from the school house, the services being conducted by Rev. F. W. Leonard, of Wilbur, the services being attended by a large concourse of old friends and neighbors.

Yoncalla Chronicles

Mrs. Anna Lamb has gone to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Woodson at Grants Pass.

Mrs. Susie Clark's youngest son is very ill.

Mr. Carl Applegate of Sterling, Cal., is here visiting his parents and a host of other relatives. He was so unfortunate as to cut his foot very badly with an ax, and after the absence of seventeen years is enjoying the scenes of his boyhood.

"Bob" Mosier, S. P. fireman was with us Sunday.

Mrs. Hannah Wilson, of Drain, was here to see her sister, Mrs. Pitzer Smith, who is quite ill at the residence of Mr. Crow.

Mrs. Wm. DeVore, of Canyonville, and Mrs. J. S. DeVore, of Oakland, Cal., have been visiting with Mrs. DeVore and family of this place.

Interest in the meetings still continues and good is being done.

Norman Brace was born in the state of New York, Mar. 4, 1822 and died at Yoncalla, Oregon, Nov. 19, 1905. He lived in Indiana and Minnesota previous to coming to Oregon in 1869. He was married in 1850, to Miss Sarah Atwood, who passed into the Great Beyond several years ago and he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Lillis Brown, who with a brother and two sisters survive him. The funeral services conducted by Rev. Bonyan, were held at one o'clock, Tuesday and in spite of the very cold day a goodly number were present.

THE FAIR WAS A BIG SUCCESS

The Chrysanthemum Fair, given by the ladies of the M. E. church, was a success in every sense of the word. On entering, Mrs. Churchill, as chairman of the reception committee, greeted each guest and incidentally gathered in the shekels.

The walls were tastefully arranged with greenery, vines and ferns forming the background, which served to show the beauty of the chrysanthemums more effectively. The latter were displayed on tables in great profusion, and each variety was marked with its special name. The prize winners were of the rarest elegance and perfection, from the pure white of the Mrs. Robinson, the cream of the Moonlight, to the deep red varieties, all of exquisite beauty.

Mrs. A. C. Marsters, as chairman of the flower committee, displayed much taste in the arrangement of the different varieties. She was ably assisted by Mesdames Palm, West, Green and Selden. The tables for serving the luncheon were presided over by Mesdames Patrick, Palm, Howard and Thompson, while Mesdames Porter, Renfro, West and O'Neil served at the ice cream table. At the right of the entrance, homemade candies were tempting and displayed and were dispensed to lovers of sweets by Mrs. Booth, who was also assisted by Mesdames Terrell, Haines and Frank Anderson.

PRIZES AWARDED

The judges were Mrs. W. R. Willis, Mrs. Kidder and Mrs. Winston, of Winston Bridge, and awarded prizes are as follows:

A Judicial Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlains Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

For the next ten days only, our regular $12 shirtwaist suits will go for $9.80; our regular $10 values for $7.80. At Josephson's. 93 tf
