ADOPTED BY THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 6, 1872. The Republican party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Pariantelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith and appeals to its history and amountes its position upon the questions before the commary.

It suppressed a gignite rabellion; emanacipated 4,000,000 stayes; decreed the equal citizenship of all land established universal saffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished itished universal sattrage. Exhibiting unparalliced megaaningly, it ertimically punished no man for political offenses, and warmly weeklomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and degling justly with their neighbors. It has steedily decreased, with a firm hand, the rusulant disorders of a great war, and initiated a wise policy toward the libitians. The Pacific Ratiroad, and imitar vast enterprises, have been generously added and successfully conducted. The public lands are freely given to actual settlers; immignation is protected, encouraged, and the init acknowledgement of the neutralized chilzen's right-shas been secured from European powers.
