What Frank Blair said about Gratz Brown was that "it would make him drunk to sit down on a rotten apple. We have this from an authentic Source.

A Democrat, who thinks the necessities of his party demand that he lowing adopt "crow meat" as a permanent diet, says "H. G." evidently stands for "Hard Grub." The St. Louis Democrat prints the protest of one hundred and fifty-two Democrats of Pike county, Illinois, against the Greeley ticket, and recommends it as interesting reading. The Utica Herald says: "Jeff Davis, flying in female attire, is not half so grotesque and cowardly as the Democracy skulking in the old white hat sud coat of Horace Greeley." The New Haven Palladium (Democratic) and several other Eastern papers call upon B. Gratz Brown to withdraw from the Greeley ticket. B. Gratz will do no such thing. It is an old saying of his that "A bir'in thand 's better'n a pouno' pre (hie) vention.' an article expressing its gratitude to General Grant, as follows: "With
