

Oregon Statesman.

SALEM, TUESDAY, NOV. 19.

THE CITY AND COUNTY.

From Daily of Sunday Nov. 19.

ESKIN LATER.—We found Mr. E. Eskin, chief of the Superior court today, yesterday, making out the "records" for the judges at Grand Island.

GERMANS COMING.—The Commercial Record says: "We are informed that private advice has been received from Germany giving information that quite a large emigration may be looked for from that country during the coming year."

A HANDSOME COMPLIMENT.—A day or two since, the Oregonian contained an editorial notice of Mr. C. Adams' geological and mineral chart, with which we clip the following: "We confess that the Oregon production of a geological and mineral chart is a credit to our State, for we cannot find regard this as Oregon's greatest achievement in the field of natural science."

THE ISMATHERING OF ISRAEL.—A sermon will be preached at the Opera house, at 10 o'clock P. M. Sunday 17th inst., by Catherine Scherer, on the subject of "The Ismathering of Israel, for the Redemption of Spirit, Soul and Body, to enter into Eternal Life."

MARRIED.—On the 14th inst. in Salem, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. S. M. Dillon, Mr. E. J. D. and Miss E. M. K. of the county of Clatsop, Oregon.

STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.—Governor Brown's cabinet has appointed as Governor John Whiteaker, Mr. M. H. Dixon and Mr. J. C. G. as members of the State Board of Equalization.

AN "EXTRANEUS ITEM".—One of the Portland papers announces that among the passengers by the outgoing steamer, Friday evening, were "Major M. J. Carr and his bride, who he led to the altar in this city (Portland) yesterday."

DELEGATIONS.—We learn that Rev. Stephen Bowers of the M. E. Church of this city will deliver a new church, situated four miles east of Albany, Sunday, Nov. 24th. It is to be called Trinity Chapel.

PERSONAL.—Mr. O. W. Dunbar who has been Mayor for the last year in the Starbuck office, left yesterday for San Francisco, and possibly for some point toward the north sea, to spend the winter.

STATE LAND BUSINESS.—The Governor has appointed C. C. Page, as Register of the State Land Office at La Grande.

FROM DAILY OF SUNDAY NOV. 17. INDEPENDENT MEETING.

A considerable number, attracted by the publicity and grandeur of a mass meeting, assembled at the Opera House last evening to make nominations "respective of party" for city officers.

FOR MARSHAL.—Wm. Crump, —Kays and Wm. Stewart were put in nomination. A vote was taken by division and Wm. Crump received a large majority.

FOR TREASURER.—The nominations were Mr. Johns, C. P. Stratton, Billie Stanton and J. F. Raiger.

ATTEMPT TO KILL AN EDITOR.

SPEAKER BLAINE ON THE 43D CONGRESS.

Speculations About the Cabinet, Army, and Supreme Court.

Official Returns from Virginia.

Miscellaneous News.

LANTERN NEWS.

Boston Since the Fire.

Boston, Nov. 13.—All the theaters tender benefits in aid of the sufferers.

The police commissioner, with property recovered from thieves; $100,000 worth has been restored to the owners.

A young lady of this city is cruel enough to boast that she has rejected ten matrimonial proposals in the past few months.

Some of the mud lakes in this area are being filled up with gravel. An excellent idea.

Our Road Commissioner has been repairing the sidewalks. Do so some day.

Frank Hard, Postal agent, was in the city yesterday.

Considerable sickness in the city and the physicians appear contented.

The deprived husband already shaking his head at the bloody clamor for Thanksgiving turkey.

If the Boston fire did not raise the tariff on wooden barrels, a few more such might as well be abolished.

It is estimated that 30,000,000 pounds of wool, including manufactured wools, are exported to Great Britain.

Price here has advanced ten per cent, and is expected to go higher.

A survivor from the Harriet Steamer.

New York, Nov. 13.—William Jones, a passenger on the Harriet steamer, was rescued.

The fire that started, arrived here a few days ago.

Other survivors. His story of the disaster is a most interesting one.

His escape was due to the fact that he was in the hold of the vessel.

He was rescued by the crew of the vessel.

He is now in the city.
