

she became a witness to the will on the day Mr. Greeley died. Mr. Greeley was then, a few hours before his death conscious and rational. After some slight confusion on this subject an advertisement followed. The will of 1871 gives the property to the children, but in addition to the legacies in value to a share of the Tribute Children's Aid Society of New York.

Legislative Affairs.—Impediment of

Gov. Warmoth.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Packard,

United States Marshal at New Orleans, telegraphs to Attorney-General

Williams that the Senate has at present rejected Republican and elected

Democrats; the House has fifty Republicans and fourteen Democrats.

The San Francisco Convention of the Eighteenth District Court to fall for ten days, and his clerk for five days and find them at the House adopted the following: Resolved, that Henry C. Warmoth, Governor, be and be hereby impeached, high crimes and misdemeanors in office, committed against the Constitution and the laws of the State. The Senate has declared Warmoth suspended until such time as the charges can be tried, and declined at the evening session that court of impeachment be formed, and Pinebeck be nominated Governor.

A Turk wants to know about our Patriotic rights.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Blaguey has received a letter from the Finance Minister of Turkey, asking for the rights of the Turkish Republic in the Pacific. The letter has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior, and Blaguey has presented a report thereon to the President.

Secretary Delano goes to Cuba.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—A Washington special says Secretary Delano is to leave for Cuba on Thursday next, to be absent two months. His good will be in a semi-official capacity, and at the suggestion of the President. The President has appointed a special agent to investigate the condition and affairs of the island, and expects to get it back in a few days. The President has also appointed a special agent to

investigate the condition and affairs of

the island, and expects to get it

back in a few days. The President

has also appointed a special agent to

investigate the condition and affairs of

the island, and expects to get it

back in a few days. The President

has also appointed a special agent to

investigate the condition and affairs of

the island, and expects to get it

back in a few days. The President

has also appointed a special agent to

investigate the condition and affairs of

the island, and expects to get it

back in a few days. The President

has also appointed a special agent to

investigate the condition and affairs of

the island, and expects to get it

back in a few days. The President

has also appointed a special agent to

investigate the condition and affairs of social, making up to half past two of the morning, twenty-two, which are believed to be all the victims. There were about five hundred guests, who scarcely left any. Their danger, were greatly excited.

LATER.—There is great confusion at the hospital. One of the proprietors denies that there was any delay in giving the alarm. The walls of the laundry are completely ruined. The only eleven persons were burned —all female servants.

Arrival of Italian Immigrants in a Destitute Condition.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The Italy-an immigrants, arrived yesterday, bringing 500 immigrants. Five hundred were Italians, in an extreme state of destitution. The authorities at Castle Garden are in a quandary as to their disposition. They are, as a general thing, unable to arrange them after arrival. At present they are without means of any kind. Several have been sent to Ward's Island to support themselves. Other vessels are now on the way here with large numbers of Italians. As nearly as can be ascertained, the number of immigrants to America by the prouises of an agent of a colonization society is reported as being not favorable to this.

Wedding in High Life.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The President and Mrs. Grant, with Miss Nellie and her family, will be at the wedding of Miss Boria, niece of ex-Secretary Borah, at the residence of the latter at Washington, on Thursday next.

THE POPULAR NEWS MONTHLY.

The Popular News Monthly is published on the 15th of each month, and contains a large amount of interesting and useful information. It is published for one year, at $2.00 per annum, in advance. It is sent to all subscribers free of charge. It is published by

D. APPLETON & CO., Publishers,

549 & 551 Broadway, N. Y.

A. L. BANGSOTT & CO.,

San Francisco, Cal.

NOTICE.

Any person receiving Twenty Dollars for any purpose, or five years subscription, or for any other purpose, is entitled to a copy of the Popular News

Monthly for one year, at $2.00 per annum, in advance. It is sent to all subscribers free of charge. It is published by D. APPLETON & CO.,

549 & 551 Broadway, N. Y.

A. L. BANGSOTT & CO.,

San Francisco, Cal.

NOTICE.

Any person receiving Twenty Dollars

for any purpose, or five years subscription, or for any other purpose, is

entitled to a copy of the Popular News

Monthly for one year, at $2.00 per

annum, in advance. It is sent to all

subscribers free of charge. It is

published by D. APPLETON & CO.,

549 & 551 Broadway, N. Y.

A. L. BANGSOTT & CO.,

San Francisco, Cal.

NOTICE.

THE

Popular News Monthly.

CONDUCTED BY

E. L. YOUNG.

No. 157, FIFTH CENTRAL

Contents of No. 7, for November.

PORTAIT OF STEEL OF PROF. TYNDALL

I. The Study of Sociology—Objective

Methodology. By Herbert Spencer.

II. Epidemic Delusions. By Dr. Carroll.

III. The Practical Man as an Observer of Nature. By Prof. H. G. O.

IV. Development in Dress. By Geo. H.

V. S. Van Hook, Sen. and Sky. A Lecture to Washington, by Wm. Spottiswoode.

VI. The Life of the Brain. By Professor Claude Bernard.

VIII. On the Origin of Species. By Prof. S.

M. S. M.

IX. Science and Religion. By Prof.

Sydney.

XI. Abstract Instruments of Scientific

Thought. By Prof. W. Kingdon

XII. A Sketch of Prof. Tyndall's

Life. By Prof. W. Kingdon.

XIII. The Doctrine of the Continuity of Life. By Prof. W. Kingdon.

THE POPULAR NEWS MONTHLY.

The Popular News Monthly is published on the 15th of each month, and

contains a large amount of interesting

and useful information. It is

published for one year, at $2.00

per annum, in advance. It is

sent to all subscribers free of

charge. It is published by

D. APPLETON & CO., Publishers,

549 & 551 Broadway, N. Y.

A. L. BANGSOTT & CO.,

San Francisco, Cal.

NOTICE.

Any person receiving Twenty Dollars

for any purpose, or five years subscription, or for any other purpose, is

entitled to a copy of the Popular News

Monthly for one year, at $2.00 per

annum, in advance. It is sent to all

subscribers free of charge. It is

published by D. APPLETON & CO.,

549 & 551 Broadway, N. Y.

A. L. BANGSOTT & CO.,

San Francisco, Cal.

NOTICE.

Any person receiving Twenty Dollars

for any purpose, or five years subscription, or for any other purpose, is

entitled to a copy of the Popular News

Monthly for one year, at $2.00 per