what means, and in what sums, and what period the sinking funds should be obtained and applied. He indicates, however, that he considers the offers of the two companies iondequate. The Central Pacific proposed to pay $400,000 per annum and the Union Pacific $500,000 per annum for the first ten years, $750,000 for the next ten years and a million yearly thereafter.

One of the counsel for the detense stated to-day that the trial would not be fairly opened until a witness from Washington-one high in public office-could be called to give his evidence.
Who this witness is can not be ascertained : but from the manner of those who are in the secret, it would appear that the party referred to, and the evidence be is expected to give, is of great importance.

FOR THE BEST OF REASONS.

There is a member of the Massachusetts ful. Legislature named F. W. Clapp, who deserves special and honorable serves special and honorable mention as resident and legislator of a State celebrated for the number and rapacity of its deadbeads. He recently returned a milroad pass which had been sent to him, on the high moral ground that he did not consider it proper for legislators to accept such fitvors. This is the first instance of the kind which has been recorded in Mussa-clusetts, though we believe something like It happened in Misscurfa few years ago, when a legislator who lad rece ved a single pass declined it on the grounds: i. That it was not a senson licket. 2. That it was not transferable. 3. That the didn't live in that direction," 4. What it he did be could woulk it quicker," and that he would "see them to World: of C and the 1 "see them ded first,"

We stood entranced, incapable of thought or action, unconscious of the gathering crowd, seeing only the lordly minstrel, and hearing only his heavenly notes. The music ceased. His eyes tell smillingly upon us as he struck up a fandango. Immediately a little girl, his companion, till then unobserved sprang into the circle. An immense crowd had by this time collected. The little girl be-
